

SCOUTS IN CAMP AT EAGLE RIDGE WORK TO PASS TESTS

Along with the fun to be found by any normal boy on a camping trip, boy scouts in camp at Eagle Ridge, divided into patrols, are passing a great deal of their time in taking tests to enable them to receive a higher rank in scoutdom.

The Black Cat patrol, with Tom McCuning as patrol leader, Chester Mount assistant patrol leader, and Merton Douglas scribe, has passed many tests. Those who have qualified for higher ratings in this patrol include Tom Cuning, Chester Mount, Merton Douglas, Earl Potter, Richard Kransburg, John O'Neill, Bill Fausse and Marion Heidrich.

In the Panther patrol, under the leadership of Lawrence Williams, with Raymond Shaeffer as assistant patrol leader and Arthur Bremer, scribe, the following have passed tests:

Raymond Shaeffer, Ben Wilson, Arthur Bremer, Dexter Knight, Axel Alto, Carl Emery.

The Flying Eagle patrol, under the leadership of Elmer Wilkerson, with Albert Lavenik as assistant patrol leader and Fred Hale scribe, has given tests with success to the following: Elmer Wilkerson, Albert Lavenik, Frank Hart, Walter West, Fred Hale, Howard Holtman, Clarence Howie, Rodney Macquaid.

In the Pine Tree patrol, headed by Ross Hillman, with Clifford Meredith assistant patrol leader and Nolan Arnett, scribe, the following have successfully completed tests: Ross Hillman, Clifford Meredith, Nolan Arnett, Chandler Berry, Fred Lewis, Roy Seeger, Howard Lewis, Harvey Brannon.

A point system is being used to determine the standing of the patrols. The standing of the patrols up to Thursday evening was as follows: Black Cat patrol, 802 points; Panther patrol, 632 points; Flying Eagle patrol, 582; Pine Tree, 509.

J. W. Scoggins, scoutmaster of Merrill, is in charge of scoutcraft and all test passing. A total of 275 tests have been passed.

parties?"

"There has never been a blonde woman in my room—unfortunately."

"Have any charges of graft been voiced against you?"

"No. There couldn't be. Now again, let me sum up: I drink. What of it? but there's nothing worse than that that can be laid against me, and listen here—more than half of those who are 'investigating' me are just as guilty as I am. If they are honest, they'd have to admit that they, too, drink and attend wild parties. I'm no prude. I don't want you to think I am. I am just a good sport."

"Yes it's correct," Colonel Green told the Associated Press this morning when he was asked concerning the Examiner's interview with him.

"I haven't read the Examiner yet this morning but a reporter from the paper was up to see me yesterday and I told him everything he wanted to know. I withheld nothing."

The administrator was asked if he intended to resign.

"No, not until this blows over, anyhow. Of course I don't intend to make it my life work, but I am not going to get out under fire."

London Wool Market Active

Inferior Grades Continue to Move Out Slowly

LONDON, July 24. (AP)—The offerings to the wool sales today amounted to 10,455 bales. Good conditioned greasy and scoured merinos met with a ready sale at firm prices. The home trade and Germany were the principal buyers. Inferior grades continued to move irregularly.

BOSTON, July 24. (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow:

"Manufacturers have been buying moderately in the wool market this week. Mostly interested has centered in the finer wools. Prices throughout the list are firm. In the west, the outstanding feature of the week's trading has been the clean up at Roswell, New Mexico, wools, including nearly a half million pounds of old wools, with $1.05 firmly established as the basis, clean at seaboard of the best fine clip out of this sale. Elsewhere through the west trading has been scattered and slower but growers are standing firm on their asking prices."
