Engagement Announced—

The engagement of Miss Mary Lou Burton of Eureka, Calif., to Professor George R. Turnbull of the faculty of the University School of Journalism was announced to the assembled friends of the couple at a gathering on Saturday evening at the home of Dean Eric W. Allen. The marriage will take place late in July or early in August according to word received from Eugene.

Miss Burton graduated from the school of Journalism with the class of 1923. Since that time she has served as a successful and popular newspaper woman with the Central Oregon Press of Bend, with the Humboldt Standard of Eureka, and with the Oregon Voter of Portland. She is at present covering the session of the legislature at Salem for the Oregon Voter. While an undergraduate, Miss Burton was a member of Professor Turnbull's class.

Mr. Turnbull, well known to many local students who attended the U. of O., came to the University as Professor of Journalism in 1917, from the Seattle Daily Times, of which editorial staff he was a member. He graduated from the University of Washington with high honors in 1915.

To Broadcast Tonight—

Miss Margaret Auer, daughter of Mr. Auer of this city, will be heard over the radio this evening from San Francisco. On numerous occasions in the past she has broadcast, singing popular numbers. While but a girl of thirteen years, she has a remarkable voice and is popular with radio fans. One of her numbers this evening will be the popular dance number "Is a Little Spanish Town." During this past summer she visited here with her father and made many friends. During the winter she resides with her grandparents in San Francisco and attends school.

Here From Portland—

Accompanied by E. C. Michener, Major William Arnold, local representative of the Warren Construction company, arrived in Klamath Falls yesterday to spend several days in this city attending to business matters. Mr. Arnold anticipates the biggest paving year ever experienced in Klamath Falls.

1927 Big Year—

That 1927 is Klamath's big year is the firm conviction of Louis Porter, prominent local contractor, who has just returned from an extended business trip throughout the northwest. Klamath Falls is on every tongue, Mr. Porter said, and interest focuses on the Central Oregon railroad case which prominent men of the northwest believe can end in only one way, entrance of the Northern lines into the Klamath country.

Gun Victim Recovering—

Complete recovery from a serious wound incurred when a muzzle loading shot gun accidentally exploded last week and made a gaping hole in his left fore arm, is predicted for William Kanders, Adams Point. Quick application of a tourniquet probably saved the youth's life when the accident occurred.

Car A Week—

Demand for Klamath alfalfa hay is increasing daily, according to J. N. Branch, hay and grain operator. "The demand centers around the Willamette valley district," Mr. Branch said. "The high quality of the Klamath product is securing a reputation that has stimulated demand." Mr. Branch ships a car load of hay to the Willamette valley and adjacent sections every week.

Returning Home—

Mrs. P. D. MacDougal and infant daughter are returning to the family home today from the Klamath Valley Hospital.

Davis' Improve—

The scores of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Davis of Chiloquin will be happy to learn they are recovering from a critical illness with typhoid fever.

Leave for California—

On a combined visit of business and pleasure, Everett Geary, prominent rancher and part owner of the huge 4,000-acre ranch northwest of Klamath Falls, left last night for San Francisco and Stockton. The two men will be away for a week.

Dust from volcanic eruptions has been known to travel 500 miles through the air.

Son Is Born To Popular Couple

Another citizen made his entry into Klamath Falls Saturday night and his identity may be attested by the happy smiles of his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wilson.

The baby, a son, was born to the popular Klamath Falls couple at the Klamath Valley hospital.

Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock, he will be named Billy. Mrs. Wilson was formerly Mary Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Jenkins.

The floorboards of a jewelry shop in Birmingham, England, when reduced to ashes, yielded enough precious metal dust to pay for the cost of new flooring.

Klamath Falls, Oregon.

How would you like an insurance policy that protects you against any form of disaster that might happen to you? The Oregon Life Four-Square Policy is this kind of insurance. When you buy it you simply cannot lose. If you live to be sixty years old, you get $10,000 cash; if you die before sixty, your dependents or your estate get $10,000 immediately; if you are accidentally killed, they get $20,000; or if you are totally disabled, either from sickness or from accident, your policy pays you $100 per month until sixty years of age, plus $10,000 in cash at your death or when you become sixty years old. You cannot possibly lose when you have such a policy. Mail the coupon and we will send full facts. This is the insurance policy you have been looking for.
