PREPARING FOR COLONIAL BALL

D. A. R. Strive to Make Affair Outstanding Social Event of Season

With the annual Colonial Ball sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution but twelve days away, the local women in charge of the affair are putting forth every effort to make the dance one of the outstanding of the mid-winter season. Altamont Pavilion has been chosen for the dance which is to be open to the general public and will be strictly informal. Daughters of the American Revolution have chosen to wear colonial costumes, which promise to be most effective.
The grand march will be led by officers and members of the society.

Tickets have been placed on sale and may be purchased at Glover's Jewelry Store.
Those who attended the dance just one year ago will remember it as one of the most delightful social functions of 1926.
