

Everything Is Hotsy-Totsy!

If you do break any plate glass in your automobile, we can fix it as good as new

Plate Glass and Windshields
Electrically Polished Work

BOB RYAN

1315 Main

"BILL"—

We wash everything but the kids

Klamath Superior Laundry

Our Motto:

Not only to obtain your patronage,
but to gain your everlasting approval

"Buttons For Sale"

Owing to the illness of the Weather Man There
Will Be No Weather This Week
BUT whether there's weather or whether there's Not—

CHAS. J. CIZEK

Merchant Tailor

Sells Quality Suits

Weather or Not

If You Want To Be As Cheerful
As The

Best People On Earth

—Buy At—

HECTOR'S

"The Fashion Center"

SPEAKING of TRANSPORTATION

We hate to mention it account Elmer being on the Council but,

... We Sold More Shoes Last Year Than ...
... Balsiger Did Fords ...

Our shoes are reliable—get you there and get you back comfortably.

Bill
HOUSTON

Glen JESTER

—PURPLE FLASHES—AT ONE FORTY-FIVE

(By Frank Driscoll)
"They both stood on the door step.
And spread a lot of saliva;
She said, 'I've had a lovely time.'
He said, 'I hope you have.'
He longed to hold her in his arms—
She'd loved him for a year;
But they said goodnight and parted.
Just to keep their conscience clear.

—PURPLE FLASHES—

Two of the dancers in the "Jazzland Revue."

—PURPLE FLASHES—
TODAY'S JOKES

Salficky went into the Swanson barber shop the other day and got in the chair. Jim Swanson looked at him and said:
"It seems to me that I have shaved you before, although I don't remember your face."
Salficky said: "No, it's all healed up again."
—PURPLE FLASHES—

Ed. Moon as the Millionaire Hairdresser.

—PURPLE FLASHES—
Ed Geary—"Going to have dinner anywhere tonight?"
She (eagerly)—"Why no, not that I know of."
Ed—"Gee, you'll be awfully hungry by morning."
—PURPLE FLASHES—

Mrs. Dr. Stewart—"Doctor."
Doc—"Yes, dear."
Mrs. Dr. Stewart—"Who is this Violet Ray you are always talking about?"

ILLEGAL ADVICE.
The Editor of "The Elks Show Gazoot," knowing the great mental strain attached to selecting birthday presents, appealed to Ed. Vannice, who submits these suggestions:

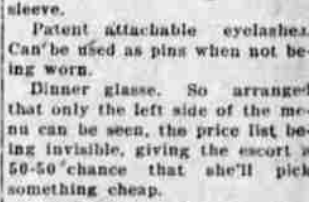

FOR HIM

A bottle of finger oil, to grease the fingers conveniently, so he can't pick up the dinner checks. A very popular novelty with the cake eaters.
An alcoholick, so flavored that it smells alcoholic. Can be rubbed on the lips, giving an air of prosperity. Also a good excuse to act intoxicated.
Gold-tipped cigarettes with a sliding toothpick on the side, allowing one to pick his teeth invisibly in the best of society.
Tube of capicum. This can be rubbed on the neck before going to a dance to prevent the perspiration from wetting the collar.
A musical handkerchief, doing away with the harsh sounds while using it, giving, instead sweet tones with every blow.
A patent stooper for whiskey flasks, arranged so you get a very thin flow of liquor, at the same time giving the impression you are drinking a lot and have the capacity of a swamp hound.
Mustache cup attached to tea cups. Very sanitary and prevents chafing in winter.

FOR HER

Brass-lined Russian boots, very good for carrying gold fish on a rainy day.
Rubber hairnets. Won't break; merely stretch when caught on the buttons of a gentleman's sleeve.
Patent attachable eyelashes. Can be used as pins when not being worn.
Dinner glasses. So arranged that only the left side of the menu can be seen, the price list being invisible, giving the escort a 50-50 chance that she'll pick something cheap.
A book of favorite expressions as used by Robert Chambers' heroines. Very popular and much used. Enables the young thing to say the proper thing at the proper time. A good gift to go along with this would be a year's subscription to Whiz Bang. By reading this she can vary her conversation with a few risqué remarks at the proper place.
A course in Italian for co-eds. In case they ever meet Rudy Bandelino they can talk so the chic Wop can understand them.
White stockings to paste on runners in stockings, thus making them look like arrows.
—PURPLE FLASHES—

Take a "Buck" and go to "Purple Flashes."

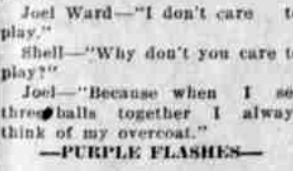

Take a "Buck" and go to "Purple Flashes."

One of the Pony Chorus in "The Jazzland Revue."

—PURPLE FLASHES—

Shell Montelius—"What would you say to a game of billiards?"
Joel Ward—"I don't care to play."
Shell—"Why don't you care to play?"
Joel—"Because when I see three balls together I always think of my overcoat."
—PURPLE FLASHES—

The Hula Hula Dancer in "The Eskimo Baby Revue."

—PURPLE FLASHES—

ON THE PORTLAND TRAIN
Porter—"Shall I brush you off?"
Andy Collier—"No; I'll step off in the usual manner."
—PURPLE FLASHES—

You'll get many a laugh from "Purple Flashes."

—PURPLE FLASHES—

Mrs. Doc. Powell—"Can you let me have a little money my dear?"
Doc—"Why certainly, about how little?"

"BILL"

Of all the "Bills" who have given aid,
To Make this show a wonder;
There's none so fair, none can compare,
None carries as much thunder;
None makes them stand upon their feet
And cheer, and yell, and holler,
As the one we paid for this ad,
That old "Bill"—"twenty Dollars"

AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK

Elks' Meat

IS OUR SPECIALTY

We are delivering to satisfied Elks every Day. Our steaks are as tender as a woman's heart.
P. S. We mean "some women's"

GET THE HABIT OF PHONING 68
KLAMATH PACKING CO'S
PALACE MARKET

MR. and MRS. "BILL"

We Hope you will see "Purple Flashes"

—and

when the curtain's on the big show and the jokes are laid to rest just remember we do automobile repairing, and our service is better

TEMPLAR MOTOR CO.

11th & Klamath

Nothing For The Babies!

Not Much For Ladies!

But EVERYTHING For Men!

McDONALD'S

617 MAIN

Billiards Pool Smokes Legal Drinks

CANADA DRY A SPECIALTY

We can wrap it up so your friends won't recognize it

More Power To You

Don't Miss "Purple Flashes" at the Pine Tree

FEBRUARY 24th and 25th

THE CALIFORNIA OREGON POWER COMPANY

OFFICES:

Medford, Grants Pass, Roseburg, Klamath Falls—Oregon
Yreka, Dunsmuir—California

Your Partners In Progress