see the twig we planted bear forth the golden fruit. The sad side is that we who have pioneered the way are soon to occupy the position of the majority of pioneers; that of the man who could not take advantage of the opportunities, and who could not because of the lack of transportation. Any man's activities in a pioneer locality are governed solely by supply and local demand. Now that we have transportation and opportunities we are old and inactive. It means in a sense, "teaching old dogs new tricks." We are proud of our records as parents, one is, that to our knowledge there never has been a native of this valley haled before a criminal court. It is still a land where right is right and wrong is wrong."

Jim Maloney Beats Jack Delaney in Heavy Bout

The Fighting Carpenter

The very name of Kid Starkey, is a guarantee of a hard and lively fight. Here is the tough carpenter, formerly of Chico, Calif., now of Klamath. He has appeared many times in local rings and will meet Callahan in the main event tomorrow night.

Starkey and Callahan Will Settle Old Score Tomorrow

Who will be the victor, the fighting carpenter as personified "Kid" Starkey or the fighting Irishman, as exemplified by Tim Callahan?

These two lightweights, both popular with the cash customers, will fight the main event of tomorrow night's boxing card at the American Legion hall.

Card of Favorites

To begin with, the card, arranged by Eddie Duback, matchmaker, is an array of favorites, from the main eventers down to the prelims. Sol Deane, whose great fight with Jack Crim, Indian mauler, is still fresh in the minds of the fans, and Wilbur Harrington, will fight the main event.

There is no love lost between the main eventers. It all dates back to their last meeting in which Callahan was awarded a hair-line decision from the tough carpenter.

Will Settle Issue

There were many who were dissatisfied with the decision in that bout and the flistic argument tomorrow will settle many arguments for all time to come.

Starkey is an old favorite of the local ring. His boring, slugging, and game performance in the ring have won for him hundreds of supporters in the Klamath country.

Starkey is a slugger, but argumenting his slugging has clever attack and is well screened defense.

Callahan Clever

Callahan, who has the longer reach, and is perhaps the cleverest of the two, will fight a battle of corner-attack, the same battle that won him the decision the last time the pair met.

Sol Deane and Harrington are two great favorites. Wilbur, who has taken as many as he received, is popular with the fans. Something about the Klamath Indian, tickles the boys in the right ribs. He is not as clever as some, but packs a great punch.

Deane, who is an old-timer, staged a great comeback against Crim during one card and won for himself a warm place in the hearts of the cash customers.
