WHAT IT TELLS.

About You!

How do you stand in the world of business—is your credit record all that it ought to be? Whatever its status, you alone are responsible. Every one intends to pay his bills promptly. Most people carry out the intention. Some, however, "put off" and become slow pay. Some experience temporary financial difficulty and frankly talk it over with the merchant who extended credit, promising payment. The fact that you "promise to pay"

is sufficient assurance to your merchant that you at least want to pay your bills when they become due. There is a great deal of satisfaction in knowing that your credit standing rates high. When your bills are paid, your mind is at rest. . . . you can look the world in the eye and smile all the while. If you're in arrears, catch up as soon as you can. . . . and from then on pay up promptly.
