

At The Pine Tree

Another brilliant array of high class artists will be seen on the vaudeville bill at the Pine Tree tonight. This bill is headed by the four big stars who are known as "The Four Blue Girls."

Frank Robb, a dapper chap dressed in an eccentric manner, offers a musical comedy which he calls "Convincing High Class."

Gene and King offer a musical specialty of singing and talking that will furnish ample entertainment.

Miss Margaret Austin, delightful and vivacious presents an exceptional bit of entertainment called a "Bundle of Personality." She renders a musical cycle of violin selections.

"Franklin Brothers are known throughout the vaudeville world as two of America's cleverest equilibrista and will present specialties that will make the audience hold its breath throughout the entire act."

On the stage Bessie Love is featured in Alice Hegahn Rice's popular story, "Lovey Mary." It's good entertainment.

We take almost as much pleasure in the success of some people as we do in our own.

Weather
The Cyclo-Strafograph at Underwood's Pharmacy shows the barometric pressure slightly lower today and while no marked disturbance is probable some cloudiness will go down follow. Forecast for next 24 hours: Partly cloudy with continued moderate temperatures. Not so cold tonight.

The Tyco's recording thermometer registered maximum and minimum temperatures today as follows:
High.....64 Low.....27

Fremont Bridge To Be Finished In Short Time

"Between April 1 and April 5." This was the answer of Joe Rocco, contractor, when asked how soon the Fremont bridge spanning Link River would be completed. Rocco holds the contract for the bridge construction.

Travel on the bridge will await the completion of the approaches on both sides of the river. J. H. Vincy, contractor has a large crew working on the fills.

Man Has Narrow Escape In S. P. Yards Yesterday

Seizing the rods of a box car which started to roll, just as he crawled beneath a freight train in the local S. P. yards, James Hill of 1923 Wantland avenue saved himself from possible fatal injuries.

As a result of the accident, Hill was dragged for a distance of more than 100 feet before the train was stopped. A severe cut on the heel, believed to have been received when his foot was under the car wheel proved the most serious injury Hill encountered.

Stockton Box Co. Buys Local Plant

With a bid of $90,000—the amount of the judgment against the company—the Stockton Box company of Stockton, Calif., late yesterday afternoon purchased the Shasta View Lumber and Box company plant on south Sixth street at a mortgage foreclosure sale held from the front steps of the county court house.

Wallace McCamant, Portland, represented the California concern, which with the firm of Tarter, Webster and Johnstone held the judgment against the plant.

The plant will be leased and eventually sold to some operator, it was said.

The plant was formerly operated by Marion, Wilbur and Preston Nine.

Women Charged With Fighting
Mrs. Carol Haney and Mrs. Carrie Vincy will appear before Justice Barnes this afternoon to tell the story of a feminine pugilistic combat, said to have been engaged in by the two ladies. The Justice had the court room "dolled up" for the occasion. He did not put up lace curtains to the windows, but if ladies insist on entering his court to adjust their differences he probably will do that later.

At The Liberty
Instead of grease-paint make-up Billy Sullivan, appearing in the new production, "Speed Crazy," used ordinary grease and it proved to be equally effective. The role presents the versatile player as a young country garage mechanic who, after facing almost impossible difficulties, wins not only a race, but a girl and a comfortable fortune.

"Speed Crazy" is at the Liberty theatre today.

George Brodland has joined the sales service of L. O. Arena and will devote his time this summer to convincing prospective automobile buyers that the Chevrolet is the proper car for them to buy.

Ball Movement Need Of Help

Will civic organizations get behind the Klamath Falls baseball team and by their combined effort definitely assure a semi-professional team which would contend this season for the championship of southern Oregon?

This is the question on the lips of hundreds of baseball fans who are anxiously awaiting some action.

Already one civic organization has shown a disposition to help in the baseball movement. It is the Lions club, but this organization will not sponsor such an undertaking alone.

A plea will probably be made in the near future to members of the chamber of commerce, Kiwanis club and Rotary club for combined support of the semi-professional team.

"I have no doubt but what the Lions club will go ahead and do their share if other clubs join hands with us in the movement," one prominent member of the Lions club said today.

Once there was an artist who had a model wife.

State Sanitary Engineer Visits

George McDaniel, state sanitary engineer, Portland, conferred today with C. C. Kennedy, San Francisco sewage engineer on plans and specifications for the proposed $300,000 sewer system that will be constructed in Klamath Falls this year.

"Inasmuch as the state health board must pass on all plans, it was thought best that I should confer with Mr. Kennedy before he drew his plans in order that he could be apprised of the ideas of the state health department," Mr. McDaniel commented.

Mr. McDaniel arrived last night.

Fair Buildings To Be Repainted

Bids for the repainting of county fair buildings will be opened Saturday April 2, according to announcement today by Mrs. L. Parker, secretary of the board.

The work will be one of the first concrete moves taken by the county fair board in preparation for the Fall carnival in which the county fair and the Labor Day celebrations will be held at the same time, September 2 to 5, inclusive.
