New Bakery Is In Business In Klamath Falls

Another step in the rapid developments of Klamath Falls comes with opening of the Home Bakery at 1114 Main street by Mr. and Mrs. David Schatz.

The bakery has been completely remodeled and a new line installed. The kitchen has been remodeled and huge ovens have been added to the improvements.

"So as to constantly have on hand, fresh pastries, we do our baking in the early afternoon," Mr. Schatz commented today when being complimented on the freshness of his supplies.

Albert Brownlee, Eugene Slayer, Is Pronounced Guilty

PORTLAND, Ore., April 1. (AP)—A verdict of guilty to a charge of first degree murder was returned by the circuit court jury here last night in the case of Albert Brownlee, charged with the murder of Eugene Hooker, postman.

Brownlee turned slightly pale when the verdict was read. He wiped his finger across his throat, and smiled. "It's kind of hard on me, isn't it, boys?" he said.

"The verdict would not have been the same if I had not been an ex-convict," he said later.

It pays to be on your guard against the flatterer. Remember when the cat purrs it always "meows" its claws.
