

BRIEF NEWS OF KLAMATH

Items of interest concerning residents of the great Klamath Basin. If you have news for this department, your courtesy in calling 88 will be appreciated.

Lytle's Going South—

Dr. W. H. Lytle of Salem, accompanied by his charming wife, are among the prominent visitors in Klamath Falls. This marks Mrs. Lytle's first trip to Klamath Falls and she is greatly impressed with the city and surrounding country. In Oregon politics and particularly Salem, Mrs. Lytle is one of the most active ladies interested in state affairs. It is said of her that she knows more people in public life in Oregon than any other person, and her gracious manner is always in evidence. She is a sister of Mrs. Robert N. Stanfield, wife of ex-senator Stanfield. Dr. Lytle is state veterinarian and it was with regrets their friends learned they were leaving this afternoon for San Francisco. While here they were guests at the Hotel Hall.
