NEWS NOTES OF TENNANT

(Special to the Herald)
TENNANT, Calif., April 12.—The outstanding event of the week was the delightful 500 party given by Mesdames F. B. Willbanks and Matt Shepperd, at the Willbanks' home on A street Wednesday evening from 7 to 10 p. m. Six tables of 500 were in play during the evening. Mrs. R. B. Hawkins won first prize, Mrs. W. W. Seeler second and Mrs. Clay Parker the consolation. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and ferns. The hostesses served lovely refreshments.

Those who enjoyed this party were Mesdames Parker, Ford, Kline, Beeson, Miller, Bailey, Baughn, McMichaels, Hawkins H. M. and H. J. Templeton, Howard, D. and Y. Holdman, Buckley, Sandie, MacKay, McConnell, Craig, Marshall, Seeler, Burks and the hostesses Mesdames Willbanks and Shepperd.

Opera Success. The operetta, "The Toreadors," given Friday night by the school and some of the young people of the camp, in the Wildwood church building, was a wonderful success, from the two charming daughters, Benita and Juanita, of the old Don, down to the small children, every one did their parts exceedingly well and too much praise cannot be given them.

The dancing girls were entrancing, the chorus delightful, and the entire cast did themselves proud. Miss Elizabeth Ghoslin presided at the piano.

Rev. Russell Myers conducted the singing, and Jack Coll was stage manager. The Misses Dorothy Murphree and Clara Dollard were beautiful in their Spanish costumes, and sang the principal parts.

All the characters charmingly arrayed in Spanish and Toreador costumes.

The proceeds of the operetta are to defray the expenses of the high school annual.

Messrs. Lee Peachy and Reese Cargill left Tuesday by auto for a week's outing at San Francisco, Calif.

Mr. John Leback of the machine shop had the misfortune the first of the week to get one finger badly mashed.

Pastor to Take Fling at Channel

night for his home at Butte Falls, Oregon.

Mr. Jack Goddard of Weed, Calif., was in camp on business during the week.

Miss Latnell Covel, who has been attending high school at Sparks, Nevada, returned Thursday evening. Miss Covel is the daughter of Mrs. Alva Herod.

Mrs. Elmer Pritchett, who has been away for some time, returned Friday.

Snow fell Friday and Saturday to the depth of more than two feet, covering the landscape over with a mantle of white, making it necessary to take the snow plow out Saturday, so the mail could be taken out to the main line. The snow was so deep the men could not work in the woods or much of any place Saturday.

At The Pine Tree

A versatile bouquet of vaudeville magnets in a program consisting of fast and lively stppers, clever musicians, pleasing novelists, singers, and laughable comedians all at the Pine Tree theatre tonight and tomorrow.

The three Millards head the bill in a sensational dance offering with beautiful scenic effects, draperies, and fetching gowns that delight the female auditors and add much to this artistic dance show. Bird and Young, "The Two Saps," present a funny oddity that is a combination of song, talk, and dancing and contains bits of vaudeville to suit the masses. Le Gros and Anna offer "A Musical Divertissement," an article cycle of songs and music with a few lullabies.

Bill Mack, a singing and talking comedian, outside of his own specialty introduces each act on the bill with a comedy vein, as "Master of Ceremonies," something new and amusing in vaudeville. Foley & Cummings in "Up and Down" offer an athletic novelty done by two exceptionally clever acrobats. They handle each other with skill and ease that is surprising. Their torture chair trick is the last word in gymnastics and will prove a card.

The younger generation is enjoying a new mental freedom and resents all prohibitions, according to Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Andrews. In the next column there was an item about rouge pots dating back to 3000 B. C., being turned up in Ur.

You can have your private yacht

GIVE me a pipe and Prince Albert, and you can have your cabin-cruiser and your winter vacation. I won't envy you for a minute. In fact, I wouldn't trade places with anybody. I could even be happy on a desert island with a pipe and plenty of P. A.

You'll understand my enthusiasm for this prince of smokes the minute you open the tidy red tin and get a whiff of real tobacco. But that's only a starter. The taste more than lives up to the promise of the aroma. Tuck a load in your jimmy-pipe, light up, and see.

Cool, as a breeze from the forward deck is cool. Sweet, with a sweetness that doesn't tire. Mild as milk, yet with plenty of body to let you know you're smoking. P. A. is neither too heavy nor too light, which makes it the middle-weight champ, so far as I'm concerned.

Telling you about Prince Albert is one thing. Trying it in your pipe is another. You'll never know exactly what it is that holds millions of happy jimmy-pipers to this one brand until you make the personal test. When you do, you'll say I did you a favor in tipping you off.

P. A. is sold everywhere in its red tin, round and half-round tin tins, and round crystal clear tins with sponge container top, and others with every lot of bits and pouch recommended by the Prince Albert process.
