Bridge Held Today—
One of the most successful affairs held in this city for many months was that of this afternoon when the Business and Professional Women's Club presided as hostesses over a Chinese

Bridge Party at the library.
Fifty tables of bridge were in play and the prizes were Chinese novelties. Les Salling donated his Chinese decorations for the event which made the room attractive.

Wedded On Sunday—
After the Lenten days are past comes the days of weddings and social activities. Easter Sunday marked the wedding date of Mr. Edward Nelson Paterson and Miss Ruth Elizabeth Moore. Mrs. Paterson formerly resided in North Bend and with her husband will make her future home at Chilgoquin. The young couple were married at St. Paul's Episcopal church promptly at 2:30. The church was beautiful with Easter decorations. Mr. and Mrs. Brockinger and Mr. and Mrs. Tenbrook, the bride's mother and brother and the groom's mother were present at the ceremony which was performed by Rev. J. Henry Thomas.

Strong Team Represents O.A.C. in Middle West Relays

Through the efforts of the Pep committee, a campus organization, funds were raised among students, alumni, faculty, and townspeople of Corvallis to send an Oregon Aggie four-mile relay team to the Kansas relays at Lawrence April 23 and the Drake relays at Des Moines, Ia., April 30. The Oregonians won the feature event at Drake last year. Members of the team are from left—Edgar Wolfe, Antelope; Bay and Saxon, Portland; Coach Dad Butler; Royce Clayton (Captain), Portland; Francis Knifon and Percy Bell, Corvallis.

Barbecue And Outing—

Dr. and Mrs. E. Dietzsch and Dr. and Mrs. K. Burchard will be hosts and hostesses on Sunday to a crowd of local young people with a barbecue and outing on the Williamson river. The crowd plans to leave the city early in the morning and spend the entire day on the outing. More than 15 guests will enjoy the affair.

Mrs. Beckley Home—

Mrs. Nellie Beckley of the Hotel Mars returned this morning from a three weeks' visit in Long Beach and other southern points of California.

Loreman Is Back—

J. E. Loreman returned this morning from a fortnight's visit in Seattle and other northern points where he transacted business.

Called to Portland—

Paul Foster, official of the Swan Lake Moulding Company, was called suddenly to Portland today by the death of his sister, Miss Edith Foster. Miss Foster has been severely ill for some time.

Blackburn Announces Plan—

As a special Thursday night dance attraction, to continue until May 25th, Hal Blackburn and his band are offering cash prizes to the two couples winning a prize waltz. At the final night, a grand contest will be held, with all previous winners competing for a silver loving cup. Much interest is being evidenced in the contests which start next Thursday, and keen competition is anticipated.

Back From Portland—

J. E. Loreman returned this morning from Portland where he had been for the past few days making business arrangements for starting the drill in quest of the hard gold in the Bonanza hills. Mr. Loreman was optimistic about Portland saying things look better there than they have for years.

Loves to Get Over the Hill—

Old "Bill" Berry, the erstwhile insurance magnate who has written more insurance, adjusted more losses and knows human nature from an insurance standpoint better than the fellow who laid the cornerstone for present day insurance structures, is in the city. He never loses an opportunity to come to Klamath and admits when he finds a good business excuse he heads his machine this way with a great deal of joy, for he likes the town and he likes the people.

Enjoyed Evening—

The young people of the First Presbyterian church are finding much pleasure in the gatherings at the home of Rev. and Mrs. D. V. Haight on North Second where they gather once each two weeks. A group of young professional and business people spend the evening together there, enjoying a varied entertainment and topics of general interest. Next Tuesday evening they will center their thoughts on the short story.

Circles Met—

The Circles of the First Presbyterian church met on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Members of the Meriam Circle were at the home of Mrs. Charles Cosoboom at 202 Washington street. The Dorcas Circle met with Mrs. Roy La Prairie at 529 North Tenth. Mrs. C. E. Dennis was hostess to the Gleaners Circle at her home on First and Pine. Members of the Bethany Circle enjoyed the afternoon at the home of Mrs. Warren Hunt on Earl Pacific Terrace.

Official Brings Suit—

Two suits were filed late yesterday by Frank C. Bramwell, state bank superintendent, in line with the work of liquidating assets of the First State Savings bank of Klamath Falls. One against Richard Walsh and C. J. O'Connell seeks the recovery of $92.48 alleged due on a note executed May 20, 1921. Another, against Neil Campbell, seeks recovery of $130 alleged due on a note executed November 16, 1921. Attorneys fees of $50 are sought in each action.
