PORTLAND WINS AGAIN; SEATTLE GIVES UP GAME

Errors Ends Pitching
Duel, Oaks vs. Angels;
S.F. Scuttles Senators

Hollywood used four pitchers in a vain effort to stop the slugging Portland Beavers, who won their second straight from the cellarites, 10 to 6. The Beavers collected 15 hits for a total of 25 bases. Batteries: Tomlin and Yelle; Fullerton, Halvey, Jacobs, McCabe and Murphy.

Entering the last of the ninth inning on the short end of a 7 to 3 score, the Missions broke out with a series of base hits that enabled them to score five times and beat Seattle for the second consecutive time, 5 to 7. Batteries: Brandt, Graham and Jenkins; Schmidt; Barfoot, Dumovich and Walters; Whitney.

Bill Piercey of the Angels and George Boehler of the Oaks hooked up in a beautiful pitching duel at Oakland that ended only when Weiss, Los Angeles outfielder, dropped a fly in the ninth with the bases full, allowing the Angels to win, 1 to 0.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 5. (AP)—Fred Lonhart, Elk, Wash., light heavyweight, won a ten round decision over Mickey Rockson, Boise, Idaho. Al Walthers, Ohio middleweight, knocked out Walter Cleghorn, Seattle, in the seventh round of a scheduled ten round bout.

CHARGE DISMISSED

A charge of reckless driving preferred against Axel Holmberg, was dismissed yesterday by Justice of the Peace W. B. Barnes at the recommendation of the district attorney's office. Holmberg, it is said, had crashed into a car driven by William Hayden. Authorities said that Holmberg had agreed to pay the damage done to the Hayden car.

NEW MUSICIAN TO PRESIDE AT THEATRE ORGAN

Miss Wanda Hinkle Will Supply During Absence
Of D. Herrick

Music lovers of Klamath Falls will be interested to learn of the appearance of Miss Wanda Hinkle, graduate of the American Conservatory of Music at Chicago at The Pine Tree, commencing Saturday. Miss Hinkle will preside at the pipe organ for three weeks during the absence of D. Herrick, who is planning his vacation.

Miss Hinkle comes to the local play house, highly recommended from scores of the leading theatres throughout the north west where she has appeared on a concert tour.

The picture program under Miss Hinkle will consist of the latest style in music settings and picture interpretations. It will be a pleasure for Miss Hinkle to give any request numbers now on old which patrons of the theatre desire to hear.

Miss Hinkle recently completed a tour of Pantones as a concert pianist and has appeared on Lyceum and Ellision White for several years.

"I feel confident Miss Hinkle will have a treat in store for residents of this city, for she comes to me highly recommended," Mr. Poole stated today.

Telephone Girl To Take Special Health Training

To receive a course in health instructions which the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company has recently placed in its service for the benefit of all telephone girls, Mrs. Fay De Spain of the local office left on Sunday for Portland.

After completing her course in instructions, Mrs. De Spain will return to Klamath Falls where she will instruct the local girls as well as those of Grants Pass.

The course requires so many hours of instruction each day, and takes in all forms of athletics for women.

K. F. WOMAN IS PRIZE WINNER

Mrs. Bert C. Thomas
Only Woman to Place
In Contest

With Mrs. Bert C. Thomas receiving second honorable mention in the art and literature contest of the General Federation of Women's clubs, Klamath Falls holds honors for the entire state of Oregon. Mrs. Thomas, wife of Attorney Thomas and prominent in social and musical circles of this city, is the only woman in the entire state to receive an award.

The following clipping from The Oregonian tells of the award made Mrs. Thomas:

"A prize of $25 and second honorable mention has been awarded Mrs. Bert C. Thomas of Klamath Falls in the $100 music, art and literature contest of the General Federation of Women's clubs. Mrs. Thomas' award is in the music division.

"Thousands of women from all parts of the United States entered the contest. Mrs. Thomas being the only woman in the entire state of Oregon to receive an award. She is a member of the Klamath Falls Women's Literary club. The best list of 100 records for phonograph or piano was the subject of the music division contest.

This summons is published in the Evening Herald, a daily newspaper printed, published, and circulated daily at Klamath Falls, Klamath County, Oregon, by order of the Honorable A. L. Leavitt, Judge of the Circuit Court for Klamath County, Oregon, dated April 27th, 1927, the first publication thereof to be on the 28th day of April, 1927, and the last publication to be made on the 9th day of June, 1927.

"My teachers, Trabello and Richard Bartelemey, all impressed upon me the solemn warning that I must always treat my throat as a delicate instrument. Yet every artist is under constant strain. Sometimes we get real relaxation in smoking a cigarette. I prefer Lucky Strikes—which both protects the throat and gives real enjoyment."

Mary Garden

When in New York you are cordially invited to see how Lucky Strikes are made at our exhibit, corner Broadway and 45th St.

You, too, will find that Lucky Strikes are mild and mellow—the finest cigarettes you ever smoked, made of the finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—"It's toasted"—no harshness, not a bit of bite
