Slater's Entertain—
One of the most delightful dinners of the week was that of Friday evening over which Mr. and Mrs. Jack Slater presided at their home on Huron. At the conclusion of the dinner the guests enjoyed bridge. Dr. E. D. Lamb held high score and Mrs. W. D. Miller received the consolation. Covers were laid for; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bubb, Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Lamb and the host and hostess.

For Luck Luncheon—
Mrs. Fred Dunbar and Mrs. Jack Slater entertained at the Slater home on Tuesday with a one o'clock pot luck luncheon, followed with several hours of bridge. At the close of the afternoon play, Mrs. Gary Conrad held high score. Second high went to Mrs. W. D. Miller and consolation to Mrs. E. D. Lamb. Those who enjoyed the afternoon were: Mesdames E. O. Lamb, Gary Conrad, W. D. Miller, J. Hardin Carter, R. E. Deweese, Paul McKinley Noel, E. M. Bubb, Charles Moore, C. K. Knowles, Glen Jester, Fred Dunbar and Jack Slater.

Buster Brown Contest—
Of more than passing interest to school children is the contest being conducted by The Buster Brown Shoe store. The contest proves the skill of the boys and girls by means of writing good resolutions, which they are asked to make up and submit to M. L. Stroad, the local manager. Few rules are necessary, but the good points of the Buster Brown shoes are essential. Other rules can be obtained by calling at the local store.

Miller Returning Home—
J. J. Miller, district freight and passenger agent of The Southern Pacific is expected home this evening from San Francisco where he attended the graduation exercises of the nurses of St. Francis Hospital. The exercises were held in the Gold Room of the hotel Palace. Miss Alice Miller, daughter of Mr. Miller, Miss Deena Molatore and Miss Mildred Stevens were local young women who graduated with the class of 45.

House Party Planned—
A number of local young people of The First Presbyterian church are making plans to attend the house-party at Grants Pass from June 27 to July 4, according to announcements made today. An enjoyable program is being arranged with sports, clever entertainments and a number of class gatherings.

Meeting In Medford—
A Presbyterian is to be held in Medford, taking in May 15, 16 and 17 according to an announcement from The First Presbyterian church today. The latest news from the "far flung battle line" will be given to women attending the meetings.
