Over the Plate, Sunday

Look out for Sunday—don't make any engagements in the afternoon, for that is the day you will help to decide whether Klamath Falls is to have base ball this year, or whether it is going to be a dud and blow up.

The stage is set and players are named. The organization is good and the whole thing depends on the Sunday opener as to whether the show will go on throughout the season.

A good opening crowd, a good showing of base ball enthusiasm, a rousing crowd of boosting, clamoring American citizens all combine to make the kickoff good. Otherwise we are out of luck for the base ball spirit will dwindle and die.

The band is going to be out with their springtime melodies and the big parade will loosen up the community for good, clean fun.

Be ready for the Sunday afternoon event and add your presence to the gathering base ball fans.

No doubt children of 1890 had "individuality," also, but the neighbors thought it cussedness.

Fable: After winning the beauty contest she was a great help to her mother about the house.

It works out all right. Families with no children usually have a dog to occupy the back seat.

It isn't an orthodox apartment if you have room for two guests at once without putting out the cat.

Neighbors are people who live so close to you that they don't insult one another except in whispers.

First thing the early bird seems to get is the lawn mower.

TAXI PASSENGER TELLS OF SHOTS

The officers were seeking boosters they were on the wrong track, but to continue their action to the point of shooting tires off of cars that are hauling the public on the main street of an American city is to my mind going too far.

"The liquor question is serious, I will admit, and I am not in sympathy with illicit liquor peddlers; but I sometimes think a pint of liquor in the hands of a Swede is not nearly such an evil as officers who seem to have completely lost their judgment and go shooting around the city worse than a bunch of Diamond Dicks in a wild west show."

Mr. Ahlstrom is in the general insurance business in Klamath Falls. He formerly lived in Lakeview where he was postmaster and ran a general store for many years. He was also at one time in the sheep business in Lake county.

Marshfield Pioneer Is Called By Death

MARSHFIELD, Ore., May 13, (AP)—Ernest W. Herman, 55, brother of Ringer Hermann, Roseburg pioneer, died early today near his ranch home at Broadbent, the coroner's report saying that death was due to suicide. Hermann's son Eugene, was reported to have said he thought he heard his father say as he was dying: "I've taken poison."

Illness of his wife was said to have caused Hermann to be despondent. An autopsy was being made today.

Ringer Hermann, the brother, who died recently, was congressman from Oregon for many years, and later commissioner of the general land office.

Woman Suicides; Reason Obscure

SALEM, May 13, (AP)—With her throat slashed from ear to ear, Mrs. Dora Moser faces death today in her home at Hoskins, southwest of Independence. Her husband, Bayless Moser, part owner of the Kings Valley Sawmill, found her on the floor of their bedroom at five o'clock this morning with a safety razor blade in her hand. A physician summoned immediately closed the severed artery but no hopes is held for her recovery.

OILING OF ROADS TO START SOON

coat of oil with squeegee top on the heavy, between Algoma and Williamson river. But from Williamson river north, only two light coats will be placed.
"The highway north of Williamson river bridge is not in good enough condition for the heavy coat. The light coat will be a great help and the heavy will undoubtedly be placed next year."

Light Coat First
"After the light coat is placed on the Algoma-Crescent section, the oiling crew will return and place the heavy on the Williamson-River-Algoma section. After that is completed, the re-oiling of the Algoma-Klamath Falls section (a heavy coat with squeegee), will be started; and finally the re-oiling of the Klamath Falls-Keno section of the Ashland Klamath Falls highway.

"The state highway department earnestly asks for the cooperation of the motoring public. We will station men at each end of the oiling projects to warn motorists to proceed slowly and to not jam on their brakes on the oiled portion; but all the warning we can do will go for naught if the public does not show a disposition to cooperate."

Asked whether or not the Klamath Falls-Lakeview junction section of The Dalles-California highway would be re-oiled, Mr. Seeley said he had received no word from his chief Charles W. Wanzer, division engineer, Bend.

Fine Production Gaining; Demand Drops Slightly

NEW YORK, May 13, (AP)—An increase in production and declines in shipments and new business in the soft wood lumber industry is indicated in the reports to the National Lumber Manufacturers Association for week ended May 4 compared with the week before. Decreases in all three items are shown in comparison with a year ago. Hardwood operations gained in production with shipments and new business about the same as the week before but production was 30 per cent lower than a year ago, doubtless due to the Mississippi valley floods, while shipments and new business showed notable gains. Unfilled orders of 177 southern pine and west coast mills were 523,313,371 feet, against 528,308,829 the previous week.

Seek Unseating Of Coos Bay Directors

MARSHFIELD, Ore., May 13, (AP)—Recall petitions were in circulation here today by members of the Citizens' League in an attempt to unseat Mrs. Frances H. Peck and C. P. Huntington, hold-over directors of the Marshfield school district. Charges against the two directors recite that they have not taken the minority members of the school board into their confidence in school policies nor been in harmony on the board of directors.

Clatsop "Wild Man" Taken By Citizens

ASTORIA, Ore., May 13, (AP)—Authorities today were trying to ascertain the identity of the Wallaski Wisp, a raggedy recluse, who has been living in the wilds of Clatsop county for four years. The elusive "wild man" was captured last night by two men out hunting for dogs. Though in excellent physical condition, the "Wisp" had lost his memory, and could give no account of his life previous to his experience in the woods near here. All he could explain was that he had been a soldier. He had been living principally on milk taken from cows. Officers were trying to determine whether he was a demented veteran who escaped from the veterans' hospital at American Lake in December, 1924.

MISS MCCOY HOSTESS
Dorothy McCoy was hostess at a lovely dinner Monday, May 2, at the home of Mrs. Haight. The table was beautifully decorated in pastel shades. The guests were: Bessie Rumer, Thelma Grizzle, Ethel Carlson, Etta Mathers, Eivira Call, Mary Hunt, Anna Selzer, and Alice Harvey.
