crease in price of Indian reservation timber land.

In three years, the price for the best units jumped over $2 a thousand.

Eight dollars is the peak price, but will undoubtedly be beaten in the near future when other good units are opened.

Must Be Confirmed
Although Mr. Bray's bid was the best, it is necessary to follow the form of having the sale confirmed by the Indian office in Washington, D. C. Until Secretary of the Interior Burke, through his representatives places his stamp of approval, the sale cannot properly be said to be consummated.

Evacuation of the Bortholmeville section was conducted throughout last night by boats and overland, and there were no fears of loss of life.

Surf boats and barges were at the scene today to care for any who might still be in the section. The course of the waters, as charted by engineers, would take them through five parishes, affecting 150,000 persons, covering an area of 1,873 square miles, or 1,198,720 acres.

FORECLOSING ON TRACT STARTED

Twenty-Nine Defendants Named in Suit Brought By Portland Capitalist

Twenty-nine defendants are named in a suit which has been filed by R. H. Ellis, Portland capitalist, foreclosing on a mortgage held on Altamont ranch tracts and Altamont Small farms.

Mr. Ellis alleges in his complaint that A. L. Wishard executed a promissory note for $17,000 September 15, 1926 and that he had defaulted on the note, necessitating foreclosure.

The tract is located south of Klamath Falls. Most of the defendants are those who have bought tracts in the area on contract and claim an interest. Defendants named are as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Wishard, Walter Surber, Charles H. Stewart, First National bank, Frank Lawrence, A. E. Gumm, Harry Gumm, Corinne Carr, Ben Olson, G. B. Donald, C.

E. Sackett, J. H. Caldwell, S. E. Emison, R. W. Browning, P. E. Richards, O. L. Holloway, C. A. Bundy, P. W. Christensen, J. L. Alexander, C. L. Wright, G. W. Stockford, Mrs. Nelson, J. H. Jones, S. E. Salo, E. F. Grapton, E. B. McKay.

Lozman Returns—
J. E. Lozman, geologist, returned Thursday from Portland where he spent several days on business. Mr. Lozman reports business conditions good in the north.

At Robertson Home—
Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gray and daughter, Miss Dorris of Grants Pass will be the week end house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Aaron Robertson at 231 North Ninth. Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Robertson are sisters.

NEWARK, N. J., May 13, (AP)—
Mrs. Theodore Hoffman was puzzled when she got a postcard telling of the birth of a second granddaughter at Houndbrook, 25 miles away. "Why should they name the baby the same as their other daughter?" she asked. Then she looked at the card again. It was postmarked December 25, 1915.

LONDON, May 13, (AP)—
Stamps bearing an up-to-date likeness of the Prince of Wales are being made for New Foundland. Current issues picture him as a curly headed baby or a naval cadet. The empire's oldest colony is the only one to have the heir to the throne on its mail.

NEW YORK, May 13, (AP)—
The latest marathon craze is black bottoming by the mile. Margaret Miller, 18, has been awarded a silver cup at a dance hall. When she stopped a pedometer registered 39.5 miles.

Everyone seems willing to cancel war debts owed the United States—except the United States.

A man sent President Coolidge two lion cubs, however, we haven't seen any pictures of Mr. Coolidge in a cage with them. Mussolini's example notwithstanding.
