Bears Awake at Lake—

Warm, spring sunshine during the last two weeks lured several of the 22 "lame" wild bears of Crater Lake lodge vicinity from their winter sleep. When John Mabon, lodge caretaker, returned after spending a few weeks vacation in Ashland, he found they had climbed a snowdrift, broken through a third floor window of the lodge and raided his larder. The springtime breakfast enjoyed by the bears consisted of seven hams, six sides of bacon, a sack of sugar and a box of crackers. The lodge was in a state of disorder and according to Mabon, the bears had apparently enjoyed a morning nap in his bed. The bears had been "holed-up" since last November and Mabon was anxious to return to the lodge, expecting they would come out in the near future.

Girls Canvass Town
For Municipal Band

Boost Your Band.
Scores of attractive girls of the younger set canvassed the business district today, selling tickets, the proceeds to be used in financing summer concerts.

Up until the present time, F. Selak, director of the band, has financed the concerts and evidence of what the band means to the community was brought out yesterday, when 3 members played at the base ball game. The men appeared in public without a single rehearsal, which proves what material is available in Klamath Falls.

The band has been organized, through the untiring efforts of a number of local business men. Tom Dillon of the hotel Willard has been appointed as manager. Roy Patrick, secretary; Jack Dennis, treasurer and F. Selak, director.

Legion Dance to Be Held Tuesday

Of paramount interest on the social calendar this week is the dancing party of Tuesday evening when members of the American Legion, the auxiliary and their friends will gather at Legion hall.

Hal Blackburn and his band will provide the dance music. Dancing will be enjoyed from nine until midnight. Light refreshments have been prepared by the auxiliary.

Prior to the dance, the legion and auxiliary will hold separate business meetings.

Powerful Dramas
of Real Life

WHAT is more fascinating, more thrilling, than the adventure of life itself? What characters are more real, more convincing, than the people we see around us every day?

Every human heart has its story—a story of love, self-sacrifice, temptation, struggle, of triumph or defeat in the face of forces both seen and unseen. Such stories have a quality of dramatic interest that are unrivaled on the stage or in the novel of imaginary happenings. And it is such narratives that True Story Magazine offers to its readers month after month.

For example, there are 19 powerful, heart-stirring real-life revelations in True Story Magazine for June. Now on all newsstands. Don't miss it. Get your copy today.
