Miss Propst Hurt

As Glass Crashes;
Foot is Badly Cut

Miss Evelyn Propst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Propst, suffered a serious and painful injury this morning, when a gallon glass jar crashed on her right foot, severing a vein and cutting a deep gash across the instep. Several stitches were taken to close the deep wound.

With her mother, Miss Evelyn was on the way to her grandmother's, Mrs. R. A. Emmitt, when in some unknown manner the jar she was carrying, which was filled with formaldehyde, slipped from her hands, striking her directly over the instep.

She was taken to the home of Judge and Mrs. R. A. Emmitt where she was reported as resting comfortably.
