National Guardsmen Travel in Pullmans

SALEM, Ore., June 13. (UP)—Oregon National guardsmen, journeying to summer encampments, this year are traveling in a manner "fitting for soldiers and gentlemen."

In past years, common tourist cars have transported the state troops but up-to-date Pullmans are being used this summer, upon authorization received from the war department.

Several of the buildings at Camp Clatsop have been improved at a cost of approximately $15,000.

FAVOR BID.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 13. (AP) The bureau of public roads office here announced today that it had recommended award of a contract for construction of the Galice bridge in the Siskiyou national forest near Grants Pass to J. J. Badraun of Portland. His bid of $27,939.58 was the lowest of five submitted.

Too many boys are training for the white collar jobs, says a professor. Well, somebody has to do that kind of mental labor.

A girl won a national oratorical contest. It's nice to know the ladies are learning to talk a little.
