

BRIEF NEWS OF KLAMATH

Items of interest concerning residents of the great Klamath Basin. If you have news for this department, your courtesy in calling 88 will be appreciated.

Underwood in Portland—

"It's mighty nice," says C. H. Underwood of Klamath Falls, "the way we can get on the train at home at 10:20 at night and be here in the morning, and leave Portland at night and be in Klamath Falls in time for breakfast. There is no time lost and we have a full day for business in the city. This is a great improvement over the old way, when it spoiled a couple of days to come or go. In Klamath Falls there is development going right along and the town is prosperous and busy. Everyone is talking railroads and we look to see Klamath Falls grow into one of the big cities of the Pacific coast."—Oregonian.

Arrived From Bend—

Mrs. Paul Woerner accompanied by her son and brother-in-law, just recently from Germany, motored over from Bend today to join Dr. Woerner, prominent Bend physician who is here during the clinic, which is being held at Klamath Agency. They plan to remain over the week end, when Dr. Woerner will return home with them. While in Klamath Falls they are hotel guests at the Kern.

Visiting Relatives—

Mrs. Carl Tucker and two daughters of Baker, Oregon, and Mr. and Mrs. George Meserve and daughters of La Grande arrived in the city a few days ago for a visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. Tucker and Mrs. Meserve are sisters of Mrs. W. H. McPherson and Carl and John Schubert of this city. Mr. Meserve has returned to La Grande but his family will remain here for some time.

Hogs Shipped Out—

Another shipment of hogs from the Klamath basin—three car loads from the Liskey ranch—gave evidence yesterday of the gradual rise of this industry in the Klamath basin. With exceptional feeding conditions in Tule lake, the farm occupation is gradually increasing in importance.

Here From Lakeview—

Mr. and Mrs. F. Zim Baldwin, prominent residents of Lakeview are here for a short visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. Baldwin is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. Leonard.

Upton Sees Future—

"We'll be having trains go through Bend from Spokane to Hollywood before long," smiled Jay H. Upton, who is an arrival at the Imperial from Deschutes county. "The development of the line south to Klamath Falls means much to Bend and among other things it will give passengers going through an opportunity to see what a good place Bend is in which to locate and invest."—Oregonian.

Returned From Junction—

Lynn Sablin, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, accompanied by Mrs. Sablin returned today from the Southern Oregon Tourists Bureau where Mr. Sablin transacted business with F. G. Lucas, caretaker at the Junction. Mr. Sablin took considerable data regarding Klamath Falls and the entire county to the Junction, which Mr. Lucas will distribute to tourists.

Ant Demonstration—

Quick and effective way to exterminate ants was to have been explained to Langell Valley farmers this afternoon by C. A. Henderson, county agent. Several farms of the district have ant hills which, while not constituting a menace to crops, have proved a nuisance. Poison is used in control work.

Canal Breaks—

Repairing of a small break in the main canal of the Klamath Irrigation district was under way today by engineers of the reclamation service. The break, the first of the season, did not result in serious damage.

At De Lap Home—

Henry Farrar, well known resident of Myrtle Creek, and his son, recently from Idaho are enjoying a short visit here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. De Lap. Mr. Farrar is a brother of Mrs. De Lap.

Sportsmen Meet Monday—

Report from the state sportsmen's association meeting will be given Monday night by O. D. Matthews at the monthly meeting of the Klamath Sportsmen's association. A report will also be made by Nate Otterbein.

Wedding Soon—

Dr. and Mrs. George I. Wright of this city have received an invitation to the wedding of Miss Charlotte Delight Vanderlip to Norton Cosway, both of New York City. The wedding will take place at Beachwood, Scarborough on the Hudson, the palatial summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Vanderlip, parents of the bride-elect, on June twenty-seventh. The groom-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Conway, are life long friends of Dr. and Mrs. Wright. Just last winter they motored south to visit with Mr. Conway, president of the Continental Canning company, who was visiting briefly in San Francisco. The bride-elect's father is president of the National City Bank of New York City, the largest bank in the world. Cards issued with the wedding invitations tell of a special train to be chartered to Scarborough on the Hudson from New York City for guests attending the wedding.

Mrs. Northey Ill—

Friends of Mrs. M. Northey will regret to learn she has been taken to the Klamath Valley hospital for medical treatment where she will be forced to remain for at least two weeks. Mrs. Northey has been in poor health for the past several months. Her condition is showing some improvement. She is the wife of M. Northey, manager of the shoe department of the Golden Rule store.

Dr. and Mrs. Wright Home—

Dr. and Mrs. George I. Wright and daughter Henrietta, accompanied by Mrs. C. P. Mason and daughter Helen, have returned home from a delightful visit to the Marble Caves and other points of interest in the northern district.
