KLAMATH RANCH BRINGS $21,000

Tassey Stewart Disposes of Holdings Through Klamath Realtor Recently

POE VALLEY, June 29—Through a deal closed this past week, the ranch holdings of Tassey Stewart of this district were sold at a consideration of $21,000. The deal was closed through Earl McFall, real estate dealer of Klamath Falls. Name of the new owner of the large ranch was not learned. The deal included the grain and stock and it is the intentions of the new owner to divide the ground into small farms and improve it to be placed for sale. The crop on the Stewart ranch is reported to be one of the finest in this section this year.

Clarence "Shorty" McFall, Postmaster at Olene, plans to leave for Medford tomorrow where he will receive medical attention for his limb which has been crippled for many years. It is hoped the series of treatments he plans to take will enable him to walk without the aid of crutches.

Francis Fruer, prominent rancher of this district and Miss Margaret Tallman of Merrill were married in Klamath Falls last Saturday noon. The popular couple will reside at the ranch home of the groom.

Mrs. Louis Pappas, sister of Mrs. Mattie McFall, is enjoying a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McFall.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fruer were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Fruer at luncheon on Monday.

Through a deal closed this week, the Janieson and the old Jacobs ranches were sold to Mr. Davis who plans to plant a large crop of potatoes. The land brought $30.00 an acre, according to information. The deal was closed through Earl McFall of Klamath Falls.
