

BRIEF NEWS OF KLAMATH

Items of Interest Concerning Residents of the Great Klamath Basin. If You Have News for This Department, Your Courtesy in Calling 89 Will Be Appreciated

Mrs. Houston Home—

Friends of Mrs. Fred Houston will be interested to learn she has returned from Los Angeles where she has been for some weeks, recovering from a serious attack of illness and is now able to be about. Mrs. Houston was accompanied home by her mother, Mrs. Mary Nelson and sister, Mrs. Ora Coffey, of Los Angeles, who plan to remain here for several weeks. Much of their time here will be spent at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Houston at Lake n' the Woods. The party plans to leave for the summer home on Saturday.

At Lambert Home—

Mr. and Mrs. George Stocum of Courdesport, Pennsylvania, are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lambert. Mrs. Stocum and Mr. Lambert are brother and sister and are enjoying their first visit in more than 20 years. The Stocums plan to remain here for at least a week before returning home. Mr. Stocum is District Manager of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company and has been attending the convention recently held in Seattle.

Leaving Sunday—

J. F. Maguire, Sr., accompanied by his sister, Miss Margaret Maguire, Mrs. Gertrude Brown and her daughter, Miss Geraldine and Gertrude and John Maguire, his two children, plan to leave on Sunday for Seaside, Oregon, where they will enjoy the month of July. Mrs. Brown and daughter will visit for a short time in Portland enroute to Seattle from their home in San Francisco. They have been house guests at the Maguire home for the past ten days.

Troop Organized—

Another troop of Boy Scouts will be organized within the near future to be affiliated with The First Christian church. This will bring the enrollment up to 14 troops. Merle Swanson, who recently returned from Pasadena Junior college where he has taken an active part in scout work, will preside as scout master of the troop, according to B. Hievin, scout executive.

Left For South—

J. W. Vehawn, accompanied by his niece, Mrs. Jesse Price left on yesterday afternoon's train for Los Angeles, California. Mrs. Price was called here by the death of her brother, Thomas Vehawn, whose remains were sent to Lewiston, Idaho, this morning. Mr. Vehawn plans to locate in Los Angeles after having lived here for the past two years with Mr. and Mrs. T. Johnson.

To The Lake—

A party of local folks including Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Boatman, Larry Fitzgerald, E. G. Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith and Dr. and Mrs. Rhinehart of Chiloquin, plan to leave Saturday for Diamond Lake where they will spend the holidays, returning home on Monday evening.

To Attend Picnic—

A party of local folks including Mr. and Mrs. John Houston, Mr. and Mrs. M. Martin, Arthur Ferrier and Marshall Reeves are planning to motor to Nimrod Inn on the McKenzie Pass tomorrow where they will attend the annual picnic of the Mutual Benefit. Mr. Houston is district manager. The party plans to return on Monday evening.

Asked To Decorate—

Members of the Fourth of July committee are urging that all residents and merchants make an effort to decorate their homes and places of business during the holidays.

From Merrill—

Mrs. Walter Robinson and daughter, Miss Lois, were Thursday visitors in the city from their home at Merrill.

Quality Hats in various straws at greatly reduced prices. Justin & Montgomery—Adv.

Mrs. Schaupp Home—

Mrs. Arthur W. Schaupp has returned home from an extended visit in northern points with relatives and friends.

Hosiery Special—

Just received a new shipment of Arrowhead hosiery, $1.00 per pair. Mode Shop (formerly MI-Lady Shoppe), 822 Main—Adv. 30-1

From Worden—

Mrs. F. T. Nelson of Worden spent yesterday here shopping and visiting for a brief time with friends.

Expert Prescriptionists—

Forbes Pure Drugs.

Entertained Last Evening—

Miss Francis Humphrey, bride-elect of this month, whose marriage to Paul Keller of Portland has been announced, was feted at a bridge and shower on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lindley on Lindley Heights. Mrs. Cecil Matt and Miss Joan Perry presided as joint hostesses. More than twenty close friends of Miss Humphrey enjoyed the evening.

From Langell Valley—

That people of Langell Valley were highly pleased at the return shown on the Road Bond election was told by G. P. Keller, prominent farmer of that district, who spent Thursday in the city on business.

Resumes Position—

Albert E. May of Moe's store, was able to resume his position yesterday after an illness of several days at the family home. While still in a weakened condition, Mr. May is slowly improving.

From Kirk—

E. J. Sweeney, logging engineer is spending the holidays in the city with friends from Kirk. Mr. Sweeney is stopping at the hotel Arcade.

Visiting From Yakima—

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Edwards and children of Yakima, Washington, are guests in the city over the week end. The family is stopping at the hotel Arcade.

From Cottage Grove—

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Robinson of Cottage Grove are spending a few days here with friends. They are among the guests at the Hotel Hall.

Portland Visitor—

Forrest Cobb, of Portland, arrived here this morning to transact business here for several days. Mr. Cobb is stopping at the Hall.

Mrs. Downing Here—

Mrs. H. M. Downing is enjoying a brief visit here with friends from her home at Ivan.

From Medford—

I. K. Traylor of Medford arrived in the city yesterday to transact business here for a brief time. Mr. Traylor is stopping at the Hall while here.

Going North—

T. B. Malarky, editor of the Evening Herald, will spend the holidays in Portland with relatives and friends.

HBI's For Flowers—and Floral designs. Phone 1118.—Adv.

CHICKEN DINNER
July 3rd and 4th at FOREST INN
Near the Fair Grounds
Pineridge, Oregon

Margaret Bowness High—

Fourteen women of the Beames Golf and Country Club took part in the Ladder Qualifying tournament yesterday morning. Miss Margaret Bowness held high score with a 52; Mrs. Henriette Quinn, second with 56; and Mrs. G. A. Krause placed third with 55. Others taking part in the tournament were: Mrs. Frank Bowness, Mrs. Horace Bridgeford, Mrs. C. I. Roberts, Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mrs. Will Baldwin, Mrs. J. M. Bedford, Mrs. Edward H. Pike, Mrs. Horace Manning, Mrs. T. P. Henderson, Mrs. Claud Davis and Mrs. Oscar Smith.

Next Thursday the Midron tournament will be played and beginning then a prize will be offered for high score. The prize will be a Krotzfield golf ball.

Leaving Soon—

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Akers plan to leave within the next few days for Eugene where they will make their future home. Mr. Akers recently disposed of his interests in the Grey Goose to Lot Beattie. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Akers will regret to learn of their departure for the north, the change found necessary on account of the poor health Mrs. Akers has had since coming here to make her home.

Visiting Dr. Barr—

John H. Barr of Kansas City, Missouri, and Miss Anna Barr of Salem arrived in the city today from Santa Barbara, California, where they have been visiting and were joined by Dr. H. W. Barr. The party plan to leave tomorrow morning for Salem where they will spend the holidays.

Children in Parade—

Scores of children of this city will enter the parade on July Fourth, for which a number of prizes will be awarded for the most clever costumes. Monte Hamaker at the Hamaker Motor company will give out further information on the parade.

Condition Improves—

Miss Loretta Webber is rapidly recovering from a minor operation which she submitted to at the Klamath Valley Hospital on Wednesday. She will resume her position at Moe's Store after the holidays.

In Chiloquin—

M. L. Johnson, local real estate and insurance man, is in Chiloquin on business today.

Expert Prescriptionists—

Forbes Pure Drugs.

Shows Increase—

Bank clearings for the month of June, 1927, showed an increase over June, 1926, of $120,559.46. In June 1926, the total reached $1,829,616.75, while this year reached $1,949,576.71.

By Methodist ladies at Millers Market, Saturday, July 2, 1927. Adv. 30-2

Obituary

JOSEPH ROUNDTREE, JUNIOR.
Funeral services for Joseph Roundtree, Junior, will be held on Saturday afternoon at three o'clock at the Earl Whitlock Funeral Home, Pine Avenue at Sixth. Rev. Frank L. Wemett, pastor of the First Methodist church, will officiate. Interment will be in Linkville cemetery. Friends are respectfully invited to attend.

YELLOW CAB PHONE 1111

Trips to Pelican City, Ship-pington, Altamont 75c. City trips, 25c and up.

At The LIBERTY LAST TIMES TODAY

LEO MALONEY
in
"The Outlaw Express"
A Thrilling, Daring Western!
—
Saturday Special
TOM MIX
in
"THE YANKEE SENOR"

Santford & Co.

426 Main Street

Local Fresh Eggs, dozen .25

Fancy Iowa Sweet Corn .12

Coffee—Cheap

Do you really think we are selling you Coffee cheap? If you do give us your patronage to enable us to continue buying large quantities and we will not only keep the price down but we will make it cheaper.

Fancy Coffee in Bulk, lb. .35

Hills Blue Can Brand Coffee, lb. .40

M. J. B. Coffee, lb. .46

Hills Red Can Coffee, lb. .46

Schillings Coffee, lb. .46

Golden West Coffee, lb. .46

Folgers Golden Gate Coffee, lb. .46

Coles Leaving—

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cole plan to leave on Sunday morning for Medford where they will spend the holidays with friends.

To Rocky Point—

Mr. and Mrs. Albert May and family plan to enjoy the holidays at Rocky Point, leaving here on Sunday morning.

Legal Notices

NOTICE
Is hereby given that the partnership of W. H. Clark and A. J. Warner, doing business under the assumed name of ACE TIRE SHOP The Ace Tire Shop will be owned and conducted in the future by A. J. Warner who has purchased the interest of said W. H. Clark, including the outstanding accounts, and assuming the outstanding indebtedness of the firm.
Dated this 30th day of June 1927.
A. J. WARNER,
W. H. CLARK.
1-8-15

NOTICE
Great Northern Railway Company hereby gives notice that on the 25th day of June, 1927, it filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington, D. C., its application for a certificate that the present and future public convenience and necessity require the construction by it of a line of railroad extending from a point at or near the north switch of the Southern Pacific company at Klamath Falls, southerly and southeasterly along the west side of the Link River to the terminal property now owned by the Oregon Trunk Railway, south of Klamath Falls, all in Klamath County, Oregon.
(signed)
GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY. 1-8-15

NOTICE
Oregon Trunk Railway and Great Northern Railway Company hereby give notice that on the 25th day of June, 1927, they filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington, D. C., their joint supplemental application asking (1) that the Oregon Trunk Railway may be relieved of obligation to construct the line of railroad from Bend by way of Paunina to Klamath Falls as authorized in the Commissioner's order of May 3, 1926, in Finance Docket No. 4819, and (2) that a certificate be issued to the Great Northern Railway Company that the present and future public convenience and necessity require (a) the acquisition by that Company of undivided three-fourths interest in and operation of the railroad of the Shevlin-Hixon Company extending from Bend southerly and southerly for a distance of approximately 25 miles, (b) the construction of an extension of the railroad of the Shevlin-Hixon Company to a point of connection with the so called Natron line of the Southern Pacific Company at or near Paunina, and (c) that the Great Northern Railway Company operate under trackage rights over the line of the Southern Pacific Company between Paunina and Klamath Falls, all in Deschutes and Klamath Counties, Oregon.
(signed)
OREGON TRUNK RAILWAY COMPANY. 1-8-15

Pine Tree Theatre
LAST TIMES TODAY
"PARISIAN LOVE"
Featuring
CLARA BOW
The Little Red-Headed Star of "IT," as "Marie," the Apache Girl.
It's a Typical Clara Bow Picture!

The Polly Shoppe
133 South 9th St.
Opposite Postoffice

Just Arrived new assortment of Dresses
for the 4th of July

New Ribbon Flowers and many other beautiful selections.

It Will Pay You to See Us.

The Modern Housewife shops with care. She shows discrimination in her choice of foods, and thus recognizes the better qualities of

"Better Bread"

Although every customer may not insist on "Better Bread," those who do find that it meets their requirements with unvarying satisfaction. If you have been looking for a bread of steadily good quality, it is likely that "Better Bread" will more than meet your expectation.

When ordering bread from your grocer, Just say—

"Better Bread"

Sixth St. Bakery
126 So. 6th Street.
"For Goodness Sake, Eat Better Bread"