At the Liberty

Rex Beach's Alaskan thriller, "Winds of Chance", appearing at the Liberty Theatre for Thursday and Friday recalls many scenes of the early days on the Yukon and reminiscences of the gold rush days in the Alaskan frontier. Yet—the movie stars, who have enacted these scenes surely have a hard time of it now and then.

Take the case of pretty Viola Dana. She traveled 2,000 miles to British Columbia that she might fall in the icy waters of Seymour Gorge and be rescued by Victor McLaglen. And then the sun played a mean trick on her just as she fell off the barge—and had to do it all over again. Many hardships over the snow capped hills, endurance of the cold, blinding, blizzards, the hardships of camp life, conditions not usually found in the life of the movie colony, in order that these historical pictures may be made, is presented to you in this wonderful photoplay.

Tonight, Uncle Hiram, in his "Country Store" makes his first appearance in Klamath Falls. From

At the Pine Tree

They call him Europe's greatest actor—but he's not. Emil Jannings was born in little old New York!

The star of "Passion," "The Last Laugh," "Peter the Great," and a score of other spectacles, belongs to America as much as Richard Dix, Tom Meighan or any of the others.

And now—after many years, Jannings is coming to the land of his birth. In the meantime, they are releasing his latest Ufa production, "Variety," in which he is featured with Lya de Putli.

According to stories which have come across the seas, not even in any of the films mentioned above has Jannings played such a role. He is seen as giant Boss, foremost acrobat of the world. It is a part that's said to eclipse all the rest. "Variety" comes to the Pine Tree for two days beginning Thursday. You're advised not to miss it.

Remember that on Friday night the Amateur performances make their initial debut. As has already been announced, these attractions will be staged every other week at the Pine Tree, when you will have the opportunity to witness the talent of Klamath Falls and vicinity appear before the footlights.

Questions and Answers ON THE News and Herald's $6,000 Prize Campaign

Q—Are only Klamath News and Evening Herald subscribers allowed to enter the campaign?

A—No. The offer is open to all men and women over 16 years of age, except News and Herald employes.

Q—What must I do to get a prize?

A—Get subscriptions to the Klamath News or Evening Herald. Votes are given for every subscription payment. Subscriptions may be taken from old and new subscribers. Only votes are required to win, and those candidates having the largest number of votes at the end of the campaign will receive the prizes.

Q—How many votes are given on subscriptions?

A—It varies with the length of subscription. A person may subscribe for any period from three months to five years. A vote schedule is furnished to each candidate.

Q—Where may I get subscriptions? Am I limited to my own district?

A—You may get subscriptions ANYWHERE. Candidates are not limited to their own district.

Q—What can I win in The News and Herald's $6,000 prize campaign?

A—There are four automobiles. The automobiles are capital prizes and may be won by any candidate in the field. These cars are: $1,515 Buick Sedan, $1,005 Chrysler Sedan, $965 Essex Sedan, $849 Chevrolet Sedan.

Q—What else will be given away?

A—Two $300 Stromberg-Carlson radio sets, two $150 Stewart-Warner radio sets, two $75.00 cash awards, two $50 cash awards

Q—What do candidates get who do not win one of the above prizes?

A—In order that everybody may win, The News and Herald will pay ten percent cash commissions to each active candidate not a prize winner, on all new subscription money he or she turns in.

Q—But I have to work all day. When could I find time to gather votes?

A—The same is true of practically every candidate. Your spare time is enough. An hour or so a day is ample to get in touch with friends and acquaintances, and take their subscriptions. Use the telephone; write letters to out-of-town friends; see others during your spare time.

Q—What will it cost me?

A—Nothing whatever. There is no entry fee; no charge of any kind later. The prizes are free.

Q—When does the campaign start?

A—The campaign is now on. Nominations are now being received and voting is just starting.

Q—How long does the campaign continue?

A—Only a few short weeks. The campaign ends August 27.

Q—Why should I enter the campaign now? Wouldn't later on do just as well?

A—Now is by all means the best time to enter, especially because of the 100,000 extra vote offer.

Q—What is the 100,000 extra vote offer?

A—Every candidate who turns in a club of $20 worth of new Klamath News or Herald subscriptions will receive not only the regular votes on each subscription comprising the club, but a bonus of 100,000 EXTRA votes. Candidates are not limited to one club. Two clubs, for example, would earn 200,000 EXTRA votes. This special offer closes July 23. It will not be repeated and at no time after that will new subscriptions earn as many votes.

Q—How many votes will it take to win one of these prizes?

A—That is something no one can fortell. Nobody knows. It depends entirely on how many votes the candidates turn in. The prizes, of course, will be awarded to those having the most votes.

Q—How can I enter the campaign?

A—Sign your name and address on the nomination blank below, and mail or bring it to the Campaign Department of The News and Herald. It starts you off with 12,000 free votes, provided it is used promptly. Later on anyone who enters will get only 2,000 free votes as a nomination credit.
