PERMIT GRANTED

At the recommendation of the police committee, permit was granted to Gertrude Teague to operate the Cascade rooms—formerly the Scandia rooms—on Ninth and Walnut streets at a council meeting Monday night.

Formal acceptance of the bid of Dunn and Baker for the paving of south Sixth street from Commercial street to the viaduct was consummated when an ordinance to that effect was passed by the city council. Work will begin in the near future.

By asking for permission to blast within the city limits, Peter Bour started the ball rolling towards new and more stringent regulations governing blasting. To not only protect itself but property owners, the council and mayor held that a bond should be put up to protect potential property damage and personal injury.

Alec Pardue was appointed city patrolman to replace Lee Craft who will devote most of his time to dairy inspection work.

At the Liberty

Rex Beach's thrilling novel of the Alaskan gold rush has finally been brought to the screen. Frank Lloyd, who gave us "The Sea Hawk" and other fine screen dramas, was the producer as well as director. It opened at the Liberty theatre yesterday.

Dealing with the romance and the struggle that was the gold rush to the Yukon in 1897 and 1898, "Winds of Chance" presents the first accurate and big conception of the event that brought thousands of eager men and women into the Arctic to face untold hardships in their lust for the precious ore.

Peach has long held first position among the fictionists of Alaska's frontier days and in "Winds of Chance" his best known characters are brought together in a closely woven adventure in the procession up the Yukon to Dawson City and the gold country.

At the Pine Tree

Drama of the most intense sort ran rampant at the Pine Tree last evening. Never has any one film stirred an audience to such a high pitch of enthusiasm as did the Ufa picture "Variety."

Emil Jannings is the only member of this German production known to American film patrons. It he had never done anything else, Jannings would always be remembered because of his remarkable performance in "Variety."

Tonight, eight acts of "Amateur Vaudeville" will appear before the theatre goers of Klamath Falls.

A number of young artists have been assembled to present their of-
