Spanish Wood Chopper Drops Wills in 4th

NEW YORK, July 14. (AP)—Although he accomplished what only one man before him had done over a stretch of 17 years, Paulino Uzcundun, the Spanish woodchopper, still is as far away from the heavyweight throne as he was before he knocked out Harry Wills in the fourth round of a 15-round fight last night at Elbets field. After three rounds of lethargic sparring, Paulino brought a right hand blow on a direct line from his knees to the giant negro's chin and Wills rolled to the canvas. He was up at the count of 9, only to run into a volley of lefts and rights that put him under the lower rope where he lay supported on his elbows while Referee Lou Mazzolla counted him out. The Spaniard's victory availed him nothing, insofar as a title chance this year is concerned. He was dropped from Tex Rickard's heavyweight elimination tournament after Jack

Dempsey had refused to engage in more than one preliminary bout leading to a fight with Gene Tunney. Rickard's original intention was to match Uzcundun with Dempsey and have the winner meet the survivor of the Jack Sharkey-Jimmy Maloney test. Shunted out of this tournament, the bounding Basque cast aside a contract with Rickard to pick up the Wills opportunity.
