

BRIEF NEWS OF KLAMATH

Items of Interest Concerning Residents of the Great Klamath Basin. If You Have News for This Department, Your Courtesy in Calling 88 Will Be Appreciated

Mr. and Mrs. Faught Here—

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Faught and daughter, Miss Neva, visited in the city yesterday enroute home to Modesto, California, from Seattle, where they have spent the past couple of weeks. Mr. Faught is former principal of the Klamath county high school and for the past two years has been principal of Modesto high and superintendent of Modesto public schools. Mr. and Mrs. Faught expressed pleasure at Klamath's growth and Mr. Faught stated "I am not surprised at Klamath's growth as I always expected it. I always knew this city would grow and I believe it has, yet a long way to go." Miss Neva is an accomplished young musician and a popular member of the Modesto social set.

Moving Soon—

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wimmer plan to move into their new home at 800 Roseway Drive within the coming fortnight. The home is nearing completion and will be counted among the most attractive homes of that vicinity.

Returns From South—

Mrs. Laura Moore Turpen has returned from a three weeks' visit in southern California. While away, Mrs. Turpen visited in San Cruz, San Jose, Antioch and other points of interest. She visited with her daughter, Mrs. R. L. Court at Antioch, California.

Returned to Medford—

Mrs. Fred Garich has returned to Medford, where she is submitting to medical attention. Her condition shows slight improvement.

Klamath Flower Shop for Flowers—

Floral designs, quality will, service. 824 Main street. Phone 283. —adv.

Here on Business—

Florence Oliver, formerly of this city and now residing in Dorris where she has a cafe, was in the city yesterday on business.

Here From Dunsmuir—

J. G. Ferguson of Dunsmuir is a business visitor in the city today. He is among the hotel guests at the Arcade.

From Tennant—

Ed Nelson transacted business in the city today from his home at Tennant.

Butler From South—

B. L. Butler, resident of Dunsmuir, is here on a brief business visit today.

For Insurance—

See Jas. H. Driscoll. Williams Bldg.—Adv.

Sale—

Queen Esther Club of the Methodist church will hold a fruit sale at Miller's Market, Sat., July 15. 15

Expert Prescriptionists—

Forbes Pure Drugs.

Visiting With Mother—

Mrs. R. L. Court and daughter, Helen, have arrived from Antioch, California, and are the house guests of Mrs. Court's mother, Mrs. Laura Moore Turpen. The visitors plan to be here for at least three weeks. Mrs. Court has visited here on numerous occasions and her friends will welcome her return visit.

Arriving for Convention—

Captain Patrick W. Kelley, state commander and Grant E. Getchell, state adjutant, of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Oregon, will be in attendance at the Spanish War Veterans' convention here next week. The guests have made reservations at the hotel Willard.

Northey Returnings—

M. Northey, manager of the Golden Rule shoe department, is planning to return home tomorrow from San Francisco, where he went 10 days ago with Mrs. Northey who submitted to a major operation at Lane's hospital. It will be some time before she will be able to return home, however her condition is reported as favorable.

Mrs. Amberg Leaving—

Mrs. Edith Amberg of the California-Oregon Power company plans to leave this coming week for a two-weeks' vacation in Seattle and other northern points with friends. Enroute north Mrs. Amberg will visit for a short time in Medford with her parents and her small daughter.

Brant is Back—

At Brant has returned from a week's vacation in Portland and Coos Bay points with friends. He has resumed his duties as county court reporter. During his trip, which he made by motor, Brant covered more than 1,000 miles.

Bill's For Flowers—

and Floral designs. Phone 1118.—Adv.

Mrs. Knight Improves—

Friends of Mrs. Homer D. Knight will be pleased to learn she is rapidly recovering from an operation which she submitted to some days ago at the Klamath Valley hospital.

Here From Astoria—

Mr. and Mrs. Leo H. Merick and baby of Astoria are brief visitors in the city. They are guests at the hotel Arcade during their stay here.

Merchants Asked to Help—

An appeal to merchants to display their street flags from Sunday until Wednesday evening to give the city a patriotic appearance during the Spanish War Veterans' convention has been made by the local committee.

To Return Soon—

After having spent the past three weeks in Bend with relatives and friends, Miss Lydia Von Berthelsdorf is expected home this week-end. While in Bend a number of delightful affairs were given in her honor.

At Vandenberg Home—

Mrs. Maud McCawley of Portland, is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Vandenberg and plans to remain here for at least three weeks. The northern visitor is a sister of Mrs. Vandenberg and while here a year ago visiting made many friends who will welcome her return visit. A number of informal affairs have been planned in her honor during her stay in the city.

At Peyton Home—

Mrs. L. C. Ady of Walport is the house guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Peyton. During the past week Mrs. Ady visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bailey of Merrill. For many years she made her home in Merrill, where she served as postmistress. Her many friends welcome her visit.

Daughter Born—

Announcement cards telling of the arrival of a baby daughter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Benight of Yuba City, California, have been received here. Mrs. Benight was formerly Miss Helen Brown of Merrill, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brown. The little one has been named "Betty Lee."

Left for Medford—

Hoping that the change in climate will prove beneficial to their daughter's health, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Colwell have moved to Medford. Mr. Colwell returned to his home in Merrill the middle of the week. Mrs. Colwell will remain in the valley for an indefinite time.

Come To Linkhaven—

Quiet, cool, restful place. Good home cooking. Phone 762. 569 Conger.—Adv.

Rose Specials—

$2.50 value, $1.95. Mode Shop, 822 Main.—Adv.

To Rocky Point—

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wimmer plan to spend the week-end at Rocky Point on an outing and fishing trip.

Auction Sale—of high grade jewelry, 216 Main St. See display ad on page 7.

Ill at Home—

McKinley Barbour of the local postal department is confined to his home today suffering with an attack of illness.

Boston Beauty Shoppe—announces Mrs. Audra Myer as expert marcel operator. Winters Bldg.

Expert Prescriptionists—

Forbes Pure Drugs.

Many Tourists Arriving—

At an early hour this afternoon, the record for the past week of more than fifty tourists registering at the Triple A booth of the chamber of commerce was about to set a new mark. Cars from California continued to lead all other states and scores of these tourists were enroute to Crater lake. Among those registering up until one o'clock were: C. B. Weaver, Sutter, Calif.; P. C. Brown, San Francisco; Eugene Mariett, Los Angeles; Dr. C. H. Curtis, Los Angeles; C. E. Gibbs, San Francisco; L. P. Dunne, Vallejo; Bert B. Reed, Glendale; Louise Reed, Glendale; Fred W. Townsley, Los Angeles; Rose Burnett, Orville; Byron E. Emery, Sutter; H. G. McKay, Elk Grove; W. E. Day, Stockton; John Oliver, Los Angeles; G. L. Bussard, Sacramento; Ed Knoll, Clarkburg; Theo. Kent, San Francisco; J. M. Keys, Montague; P. Clifford, San Jose; Marie Phelps, Anderson; H. H. Clemons, Dorris; L. F. White, Merced; H. H. Couchman, Los Angeles; H. H. Keown, Yuba City; Frank L. Watson, Hampshire; H. W. Hubottom, San Francisco; Sidney Williams, Oakland; Earl Brook, Los Angeles and Ralph Culter, Oakland.

Word of Death—

Word has been received here telling of the sudden death of Miss Edith Wight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Wight of Portland. The Wights formerly made their home in Merrill where Mr. Wight taught in the high school for a number of years. Their many friends will learn of their bereavement with much regret.

Mrs. Willis Returned—

Mrs. Leland Willis and daughter, Sharon Lee, returned home to Lakeview on Wednesday after a fortnight's visit here with relatives and friends. Mrs. Willis spent the past few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi McDonald, at Langell Valley.

First Trip—

On his first trip into the Klamath Basin of which he had heard so much, W. P. Powers, Portland, freight and passenger agent for the Burlington railroad, arrived in Klamath Falls last night. Mr. Powers made the trip by motor and took the time to visit Crater lake. He said he was amazed at the beauty of the Klamath country.

Sale—

The Ladies of Immanuel Baptist church will conduct an all-day cooked food sale, Saturday, July 16, at Stone's Grocery on Main, between 7th and 8th streets.—Adv. 15

Returned From Portland—

Attorney and Mrs. David R. Vandenberg have returned from Portland, where they spent several days transacting business. They made the trip by motor.

Left for Oklahoma—

Rev. and Mrs. Hulet and son, William, have been called to Oklahoma by the sudden death of Mrs. Hulet's mother. They left on Wednesday.

From Lakeview—

Mrs. Irma White and son, Norman Junior, of Lakeview, spent Thursday here with friends and returned home this morning. They were among the hotel guests at the Willard.

Dress Specials—

For $19.75 Saturday only. Mode Shop, 822 Main.—Adv.

Canton Picnic—

The Canton and Crater Auxiliary will hold the annual picnic at Crooked Creek hatchery on Sunday, according to announcement made this afternoon. Visiting members in the city are extended a cordial invitation to attend.

From Eugene—

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Crandall are here on a brief visit from their home at Eugene.

In From Bonanza—

Jack McCartie of Bonanza transacted business in the city this forenoon.

Death of Heroes.
ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 15. (AP)—In silk-lined coffins of cedar underneath a tombstone of Italian marble lie Lucky, fox terrier, and Rags, Irish terrier, once waifs, who died the death of heroes. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hendrick were away from home when the house got afire with baby asleep. Lucky and Rags at baby's side barked and barked as the flames spread. Neighbors rescued the baby. Lucky and Rags perished.

THE PINE TREE
TONIGHT ONLY
The Moroni Olson Players in
"Mr. Pim Passes By"
A Comedy in Three Acts
The "Passer-By" creates many confusing situations in the home of quiet British country gentleman.
Reserved Seats
Loges $1.75, House $1.50
Balcony 75c
Phone 8

AT THE LIBERTY
Last Times Today
"Range Buzzards"
Starring
PETE MORRISON and LIGHTNING
A wild, hard ridin' Western!
SPECIAL SATURDAY
For the Kiddies
A FREE GIFT to Each Boy and Girl attending the Matinee

Pay Day Special

1/2 Off on all STRAW HATS

Special price on all summer underwear

SUITS 1/4 OFF—1/4 OFF ON ALL LUGGAGE

1-4 Off on Flannel Trousers
$3.50 Caps for $1.85

Beck's Manstore
"IF MEN WEAR IT - WE HAVE IT"
KLAMATH FALLS - WOODBURN, ORE.

Santford & Co

426 Main St.

Klamath Brand Fancy Creamery Butter, lb.38

Fancy Rogue River New Potatoes, lb.05

Coffee—Cheap

Our saving made possible by our large buying power—buying large quantities of coffee for our various stores is surely passed on to you in the prices quoted below which are our regular every day prices—good any day in the week.

Hills Red Can Coffee, lb.46

M-J-B Coffee, lb.46

Schillings Coffee, lb.46

Folgers Golden Gate Coffee, lb.46

Golden West Coffee, lb.46

Hills Blue Can Brand Coffee, lb.40

Fancy Coffee in bulk, lb.35

Maxwell House Coffee, lb.46

Save your vacation with a Kodak

Spend your vacation and save it too—that's what you do with a Kodak along. Think how much fun you'll get from vacation pictures next winter.

Stop at our Kodak counter before you leave on your trip. We'll show you how easily the Kodaks work and help you pick out the right one.

Autographic Kodaks from $5 up

Gurrin's for Drugs
PORTLAND AND KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

What Could Be Nicer than one of our delicious cakes for that Sunday

DESSERT
SATURDAY'S SPECIAL

Pineapple Squares
40c each

Sixth St. Bakery

126 So. 6th Street—Phone 621-W

"For Goodness Sake, Eat Better Bread"