Welcome, Hardy Soldiers, Welcome

Tomorrow Klamath Falls opens her gates of hospitality, opens wide her heart, to welcome the boys who at the call of President McKinley went forward to fight Spain in a battle for humanity.

You are welcome, oh men of this nation, to anything this city has or can obtain for you.

The debt of gratitude this nation owes you remains firmly emblazoned on the minds of many of us. We remember when the nation was torn for months over the sinking of the Maine; we remember when President McKinley hesitated as any good president would do, in plunging his country into war, and how the nation as a whole arose and demanded that Spain be driven from the Orient.

Then it was that you boys answered the call for volunteers, then it was that you shouldered the old army rifle, went into the drilling camps, later to go to the Presidio, then on the transports to Manila. We remember full well the horse meat you ate, the hardships you endured.

When Dewey sank the Spanish fleet in Manila bay it was but the starter. There were those who said, "Steam away, Admiral Dewey, your opponents have been whipped, their fleet has been sunk, so why not come home?"

But the army of the United States said, "No, there is a human problem to be solved. We cannot let our nation be a party to leaving the islands defenseless."

And with that feeling in your hearts you went forth to organize, discipline and police the Philippines.

Many of you are not young any more; many of you are suffering today from the hardships of that war, but you have suffered in many silences; You have been good soldiers from the start to the present time.

And now that you have chosen our city for your state reunion and convention, let us repeat with firm emphasis that Klamath Falls extends to you that cordial greeting which is only prompted by earnest love and sincere admiration for the soldiers of the Spanish-American war.

Fortunately styles do not decree that clothes be discarded in keeping with the rising temperature.

Where there's a will there's usually a willingness.

One Week More of 100,000 Extra Votes==ENTER NOW!

Greatest Vote Opportunity Closes July 23rd.

Eager to get the best possible start in their efforts to win automobiles, radio sets and cash prizes, candidates in The News' and Herald's great $6,000 prize campaign are looking forward with high expectations to a busy week of club building. Every $20 club of new subscriptions turned in this week, and not later than 9 p. m. Saturday, July 23rd, means a bonus of 100,000 votes in addition to all regular votes.

Anyone considering entering should do so NOW. To enter the News-Herald's campaign now means a gain of 30,000 free votes which later entrants will not receive. The nomination credit of 12,000 free votes now given each new candidate will be reduced to 2,000 votes and the 20,000 free vote offer on the first subscription turned in will be withdrawn entirely later on.

The bonus offer closing Saturday night is positively the largest vote offer that will be made. New subscriptions will never again yield as many votes as now. And votes are what every candidate is after, for votes alone will win the four automobiles and other prizes to be given by The News and Herald. The campaign itself does not end, of course, until August 27th. But even that date is not far distant, and well directed effort now is of the utmost importance. Almost before one knows it the day will be here when the $1,515 Buick Sedan, the $1,005 Chrysler Sedan, the $965 Essex Sedan, the $849 Chevrolet Sedan and many other valuable prizes will be turned over to their new owners. Many others will receive prizes for their participation in the campaign.

Is your name in the list of candidates published today? Only a few subscriptions would get you a good standing the published list.

Promptly at 9 o'clock next Saturday night the 100,000 extra vote offer will close. All $20 clubs must be in at that time.

However, in order that candidates living outside of Klamath Falls may have the same length of time to work on the extra vote offer, new subscriptions may be mailed as late as next Saturday, providing that letters containing remittances bear a postmark not later than 9 p. m., July 23. Voting is just getting under way. Make every effort to get at least one $20 club this week. Get two if possible—three—for never again will so many extra votes be given.

This is the week in which to DO YOUR BEST!

The names as they appear today include all nominations received up to noon Saturday. The votes as shown do not necessarily include all votes earned, as subscriptions are subjected to verification.

Vote Value of Subscriptions Payable in Advance

The subscription rates of The Klamath Falls Morning News and The Klamath Falls Evening Herald are shown below, together with the regular amount of votes allowed on each subscription payment. The votes shown here apply on both Old and New subscriptions.
