Here From Medford—

Mr. and Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger, Sr., of Medford, were visitors in the city yesterday on a combined business and pleasure trip. They were the guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger, Jr., of the McCarthy apartments. Mr. Steiger is one of the prominent lumber men of the Pacific coast.

Hot Weather Encountered—

"It seems good to be back in Klamath Falls and local people should not complain of the heat," E. W. Vannice of the Golden Rule Store remarked this morning upon his return from a fortnight's visit throughout the northern section of the state. At The Dalles, where he visited with his family, they encountered weather 100 degrees in the shade.

Winks to Leave—

Bill Winks, one of the best known lumbermen of the coast, who spends considerable time in Klamath Falls in the interests of his work, expects to leave for California within the coming few days. Mr. Winks will later visit the eastern markets. During his stay here Mr. Winks makes the Hotel Hall his home.
