Wills Missed Chance. Gene Tunney, before he was a champion, challenged Harry Wills for a fight but was turned down by Wills.

Jones Missed This One. The only major golf title Bobby Jones has never won is the British amateur title.

Praise Betty Nuthall. Helen Wills thinks that Betty Nuthall, the English girl star, has a splendid future in tennis.

Says Wagner is Greatest. Honus Wagner was the greatest baseball player of all times, in the opinion of John McGraw.

To Play in Big Meet. Johnny Goodman, who won the recent trans-Mississippi golf tournament, will play in the national amateur meet in August.

Mrs. McPherson didn't have anything when I joined her," Mrs. Kennedy said, "and it was my money which financed our work through all these years which ultimately brought sister to the leadership of the greatest individual church in America.

"When we started we agreed to go fifty-fifty on everything we made during the ensuing years and it is upon that agreement that I want to settle."

Between services yesterday Mrs. McPherson told reporters she was willing to meet her mother and effect a settlement at any time Mrs. Kennedy desired. She refused to discuss her publication, however, the terms which she was ready to offer her mother.

Calculations Upset. Professor Malladra last night did not expect the lava to overflow the valley, although he predicted correctly that it would surpass the geologic mark at a level of 1,073 meters, constructed by the military geographic institute. He believed the flow would go no further than Butola, in the "Valley of Hell," but the continued violent activity of the volcano after midnight upset his calculations.

Likes Fight in Bucky. Heinle Wagner, now Boston Red Sox coach, says he likes the fighting spirit of Bucky Harris.

League Leaders Maintain Hold at Top of Ladder in Big Leagues

They are still waiting for one of the National League leaders to crack but the first day of August found the select group of three making way for another serious contender—the Giants—while the Pittsburgh Pirates were idle yesterday the Chicago Cubs moved to within a half game of the leadership. The McCarthy Bruins slammed the ball to all corners of Wrigley field and downed Philadelphia 12-5.

The Cardinals, by trimming the Cardinals, made it four out of five games for the road trip to date. McGraw's club put on a typical late inning rally to beat the Red Birds, 7-4.

When the Cincinnati Reds broke even in a double header with Brooklyn they ran their winning mark to 18 victories in the last 20 starts. Cincinnati kept a half game ahead of the Dodgers. The Ohioans took the opener, 5-2, and dropped the second, 5-2.

Washington set back the Detroit Tigers, 7-2, in the only game played in the American League.

The hole which broke open July 29, at the base of the eruptive cone, and which on Saturday seemed to have fallen into inactivity, permitting members of my staff to approach close enough to photograph it, at noon today (Sunday) suddenly began to spout flowing lava with great vigor, creating again the broad, quick stream of the first day of the present awakening of the volcano."

Bewhiskered Man Afraid to Sleep

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Aug. 1. (AP)—August Tollaire is afraid to go to sleep except behind a locked door for fear somebody will mutilate his whiskers.

He admits frankly that he dedicated his life to his beard and his beard to the motion pictures in return for a fat living. He admits just as frankly that "there are people who would cut off my beard, hence I never sleep on the film sets and at night I never go to bed without first making sure all the doors and windows are locked."

Tollaire rents himself and his beard out for parts on the silver screen that require dignity and chin grandeur.

He denied the report that he gave his whiskers a daily drink of milk.

"That," he said gravely, "is not quite true. I wash my beard each week, in soap and water and on Sunday in milk."

"A beard like mine is as much trouble as a child. I must spend at least two hours a day combing it, washing it and keeping it properly trained."

"I have turned down offers for work in screen comedies many times because it was wished that my beard be cut for a joke. Whoever could see something funny in that also could see fun in cutting one's throat."

GOLF BOOSTED

AVALON, Santa Catalina Island, Aug. 1. (AP)—Many an inspiring fisherman will take up golf when he learns that R. C. Grey, brother of Zane Grey, novelist, has hung a new record here with a fish weighing 58 1/2 pounds. It was a broadbill swordfish, topping the best previous by 6 1/2 pounds.

Oaks Take Mission Into Camp; Sacramento Takes Double Bill

(By The Associated Press) San Francisco made it seven out of eight from Portland by trimming the Beavers twice, 13-5 and 9-8. Four Portland flyers received a terrific punishment in the morning game, but the Seals had to come from behind in the second encounter to win. Trailing 8-4 in the ninth, they drove Kinney and Couch off the mound and scored five runs to push over a victory.

Batteries: Couch, Hughes, French, Ponder and Shandling; Turpin and Melica. Second game, Kinney, Couch, Yerkes and Yelke; Kuntz, May, Moudy and Rego.

The Oaks took the Missions into camp twice by scores of 14-4 and 6-0. Batteries: Holling, Ludolph and Wales; Gould and Boel. Second game: Welmer, Bryan and Whittney; Cooper and Noel.

Sacramento administered a twin loking to the Hollywood Stars 4-3 and 1-0. Batteries: Jacobs, Murphy and Howard; Racha, Keefe and Koehler. Second game: Fullerton and Agnew; Kallio and Severid.

The muchly trounced Angels suddenly came to life and hopped on the Seattle pitchers for a double killing, 8-2 and 11-4, sending the Indians down into third place. Batteries: Edwards, Nance and Schmidt; Peters and Hannah. Second game: Brandt and Jenkins; Weathersby and Sandberg.

PEAR PICKERS ARE DEFEATED

One of the features of the game was the playing of Lorenzo and Williams, third base man and second baseman respectively, who filled the gaps in the infield left by the resignation of Duback and Baysnes. Williams got two hits, one of which was a long home run; Lorenzo cracked out three hits, one of which was a sizzling two-bagger.
