

Sid Terris May Gain Title If He Continues His Pace

By Edward J. Neil
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Sid Terris, long touted as New York's candidate to succeed Benny Leonard on the lightweight throne, has tried one full-strength right-hand punch with surprising results. So surprising were they that he now bids fair to realize his big ambition. At present he leads the pack "hot on the trail" of the champion, Sammy Mandell, the Rockford Sheik.

For the past two years, the speedy New York pride of the East Side Ghetto, has flashed a brilliant display of boxing skill and ring technique in his rise to title-contending position. But his bid for supreme honors in the 135-pound division always has been taken with a bit of flintic "salt."

Ring sharps have accused the Ghetto boy of "dancing" his way past formidable opponents, content to "jab and run" to earn a verdict. They said he wilted under body punishment, had little or no finishing power in his right hand, and was not overstocked with ability to take a soaking and return to the fray with head up and fists flying.

Two fights within three months have changed all that. The first, a bitter ten-round victory over Billy Wallace, heavy-

E. H. PIKE WINS SILVER TROPHY

Lake of Woods Swim Made in 40 Minutes; Contest Today

Swimming across Lake of the Woods Sunday in 40 minutes flat, E. H. Pike, superintendent of the Pelican Bay Lumber company, holds the record so far this season for the swim which covers a distance of one and one-half miles.

Mrs. Pearl Martin, who had offered a trophy for the best time made, presented Mr. Pike with a silver cup.

The time made has aroused interest among a number of the summer guests at the lake who will enter into a contest this afternoon. Included in those entered are: Miss Cora Willis, Marshfield; Mrs. McCallan, Ashland; Mrs. Nichols, San Francisco and Mrs. Parisaurd of Ashland. Mrs. Martin, with a party of friends will follow the swimmers across the lake in her motor boat.

Seventy cars visited the resort on Sunday, where hundreds of visitors spent the day with those having summer homes at the lake.

Pitcher Dave Danforth, now with New Orleans, continues to be the mystery man of baseball. Since Dave broke into the American league with the Philadelphia Athletics, he has been a thorn in the side of opposing clubs, regardless of the leagues in which he has played, and a member of the Chicago White Sox and the St. Louis Browns. His selection as one of the pitchers immediately started plenty of arguments. The rival players instead of trying to hit the ball as Danforth pitched attempted to learn what trickery he resorted to in throwing a fast ball past them.

It is impossible to convince any batter, either in the majors or minors, that Danforth didn't get the break on his ball through doctoring it. They all insist he is a magician, not a pitcher. Yet, no one ever authentically exposed his methods of alleged trickery, although scores of nations have been offered.

Danforth achieved his greatest success as a pitcher solely through the use of a fast ball that elusively dodged the swing of the batsmen. It was said he loaded the seams, loosened the cover, roughened the ball with the nail on the thumb of his pitching hand, which he kept saw-edged, also that he picked his pitching hand with a solution that enabled him better to grip the ball.

None of these things were ever proved and today Danforth, who has slipped some, is still pitching winning ball in the Southern Association.

Once used 65 new balls in a game he pitched against New York to prevent alleged doctoring. He lost that game 3-1 but allowed only three hits. A triple by Bob Meusel of the Yankees followed three bases on balls.

Home Runs Common as Dirt In Pioneer Baseball Games

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Aug. 3. (P)—If Babe Ruth thinks he's making home run records in these summer days of 1927, he ought to turn back history's pages and take a look at the score sheets of Iowa teams which played the national pastime 60 years ago.

In the days when Base Ball was two words, a home run was the merest incident. The boys got as many as 27 in one game. Nor do newspaper archives indicate that there were any cries of "Take him out!" in that historic pitchers' battle at the Iowa tournament at Burlington in October, 1867, when the Mount Pleasant Hawk-Eyes won the state championship from the Burlington Westerns.

The score by innings:
Hawk-Eyes 4 21 29 0 3 18 15 25
Westerns 2 16 3 5 4 0 9 3
Totals: Hawk-Eyes, 115; Westerns, 42.

The game was called in the eighth on account of darkness.

The facts are told in the Palimpsest, publication of the Iowa State Historical Society.

In that golden age the pitchers lobbed the ball up to the plate, and masks, gloves and pro-

How to Protect the Throat When Smoking

What 9651* Doctors say on this subject

The signed statements of intelligent men and women whose voices are to them what the hands of the day laborer are to him—the means indispensable to livelihood or success in life—are convincing. Actors and actresses, great singers, men conspicuous in public life, radio announcers, testify that they like LUCKY STRIKE cigarettes because of their finer flavor and because they do not irritate the throat.

Before such statements by laymen were published, questions had been addressed to a number of physicians in various sections of the United States—many of them leading physicians—and some replies had been received. The following is the result of the questionnaire:

Q1—In your judgment is the heat treatment or toasting process applied to tobaccos previously aged and cured, likely to free the cigarette from irritation to the throat?

9651 doctors answered this question "YES".

Q2—Do you think from your experience with LUCKY STRIKE cigarettes that they are less irritating to sensitive or tender throats than other cigarettes, whatever the reason?

11,105 doctors answered this question "YES".

Titta Ruffo, Noted Metropolitan Star, writes:

"Like scores of others whose everything is their voice and a clear throat, I, when I smoke, prefer the toasted cigarette—Lucky Strike."

BRAVES CLEAN UP ON PIRATES

Boston Takes Three In Row; White Sox and Philadelphia Split

Long a stumbling block for potential champions, the Boston Braves have just completed the job of cleaning up a three game series with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Kent Greenfield, a cast-off, pitched Boston to a 6-2 victory over the Pirates yesterday and this incident, coupled with the Chicago Cubs' 6-2 win over Philadelphia, put Donie Bush's club one and one half games out of first place.

The Giants finished up their series in St. Louis by dropping one to the Cardinals 6-2.

Cincinnati took both ends of a double header from the Brooklyn Dodgers 3-1 and 5-4.

Walter Johnson's 20th anniversary in major league baseball was celebrated at Washington, where the Detroit Tigers won out in a 9th inning rally 7-6.

The Chicago White Sox and Philadelphia broke even in a twin bill. The Sox won the opener, 7-4, with Ted Lyons on the mound. Coccarone's homer broke up the second contest in the 12th inning. Philadelphia getting a 6-5 decision.

Stewart pitched St. Louis to a 3-2 win over Boston in the opening game of a double bill and Hal White blanked the Missourians in the windup, 3-0.

It's great managing the same ball club for 25 years says John McGraw of the Giants. But Mr. Bill Carrigan of the Red Sox, we hear will have none of it.

At that the professional golf situation could be worse. Supposing Bobby Jones had been born twins?
