Supporting the Fair

Now is the time to show your loyalty to the entire county by giving your support to the fair. The board of directors are working overtime to give to the community a show worth while. Each member has his heart in the work and he is working from every angle to get exhibits. We heard a conversation the other day when a fair director was pleading and begging for a livestock exhibit.

This should not be necessary. Everyone ought to have interest in the county fair sufficient to be anxious to bring in the livestock and produce without pleading.

A new pavilion is being erected on the grounds and the fair grounds plant is to be one of the best in the west. Nothing is being spared to make this a permanent feature of Klamath Basin life.

But, you can erect all the buildings you can think of, you can have the best track in the Pacific Northwest and if the local spirit is not strong in support of the fair it will perish.

There will be sufficient who are interested to have a good fair, but why not have one hundred per cent interest in this undertaking. It is one of the very best things that the county can have.

Automobile accidents on the highways continue to increase. Up will go the rate of insurance one of these days, and it seems to be high enough right now.

On your Sunday drives go to Tale lake and see the grain fields. It will be an inspiration to you and you will think more of your country.

Arrange to entertain the fire chiefs on their way home from the Portland convention. They are a good bunch of fellows and Klamath Falls is their kind of a town.

Don't slump down because it is August. September will soon be here and August is the month to start the fall business.

Get the stock ready for the county fair. It is the show window and the county has the good stuff to show.

How's your potatoes looking? is a favorite greeting these days.

Not long until school opens. Every boy in town can tell you exactly the date.

9 O'CLOCK TONIGHT

LAST DAY

TO GET 90,000 EXTRA VOTES

Big Double Offer in News-Herald's $6,000 Prize Campaign Will Soon be Over. 90,000 Extra Votes Closes at 9 Tonight—$200 Extra Gold Prizes Closes in One Week. Race for 4 Automobiles and Other Prizes has Less Than Month To Go!

Today is the last day of the largest remaining extra vote offer in The Klamath News and Evening Herald's $6,000 prize campaign. One more week to win $200 in Extra Gold Prizes.

New subscriptions to apply on this double offer must be turned in or mailed by 9 o'clock tonight. Out-of-town candidates have the privilege of mailing their subscriptions, which will give them just as much time to get new subscriptions as city candidates will have. All remittances post-marked not later than 9 o'clock tonight will apply on the double offer. 90,000 extra votes tonight and $200 in gold one week from tonight.

For every $20 club of new subscriptions turned in today a special ballot will be given good for 90,000 extra votes. No future offer will yield this number of votes, not even during the final week of the campaign. Only two extra vote offers are yet to come before the campaign closes August 27th, and both of them are less votes than can be had now.

To the candidate who turns in the highest amount of new subscription payments during this last 90,000 extra vote period and including the week ending August 13th, an extra prize of $100 will be given; second highest will receive $60 and third highest $40. This is in addition to extra votes given on $20 clubs of new subscriptions.

Never again will there be an opportunity to get so many votes with which to win an automobile or one of the other awards. The News and Herald's great prize event is fast drawing to a close—less than a month to go. So do your best TODAY.
