Back From Fishing Trip—

W. H. Perkins and family returned Saturday evening from Diamond Lake where they spent most of last week on an outing. After several weeks of dullness, the fishing has revived at this famous trout resort, and limit catches were being made nearly every day, according to Mr. Perkins. The new three-room cottages have added greatly to the charm of Diamond Lake as a vacation resort, these cottages being completely furnished, with screened-in sleeping porches and all other conveniences.
