

NEWS IN BRIEF

Henley High School to Open—

Vacation days end this week for students of the Henley high school district and present indications point for the largest enrollment in the history of the school. It is important that all prospective students be in attendance the first day when the schedule for the year will be outlined. The same teachers will be in charge as last year. Mrs. Leming, who devoted half of her time last year to the grammar school work will give full time to the high school this year. English and dramatics will be under the direction of Mrs. Leming. Holken, the coach, will be in charge of history, geography and biology. O. A. Schultz, the principal, will have classes in science, commercial law and mathematics.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Left—

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Miller and daughter, Elizabeth Ann, of 308 Roseway Drive left today for an extended trip of three months. Mrs. Miller and daughter will accompany Mr. Miller as far as Reno, Nevada, where he will transact business in the interests of the Western Life Insurance company. Mrs. Miller after visiting there for a time will leave for Omaha, Nebraska, where she will visit for at least three months with her parents.

New Steel Flume—

A new steel flume will be laid by the Klamath Irrigation district to replace the wooden flume which is past eight years of age but is failing to hold up under use, according to H. D. Newell, local chief of the reclamation service. The flume will be 90 feet long, constructed of steel and suspended on steel trusses of the same length. It will be located near the Rex Ford ranch close to Olene.

Watch for Fire—

Hunters are advised that they must be careful with fire on the Lower Klamath Lake when hunting. The land is past and a lighted cigarette will set it on fire. At a meeting of the grazing association yesterday request was made that an effort be made to stop the practice hunters are engaging in when they throw cigarettes in the lake bed or set fires in the early morning.

Lumberman Arrives—

Erwin Towle of the Towle-Campbell Lumber company at Sprague River arrived in the city yesterday from Oshkosh, Wis., and will visit here indefinitely with Elmer H. Smith, manager. H. R. Hookman, also interested in the Sprague River plant, accompanied Mr. Towle. They are guests at the Hotel Willard while here.
