RAILROAD NEWS ON THE SHASTA

(The following news review of the Shasta Division is taken from the Southern Pacific magazine.)

Division Engineer J. A. Given and wife, Cyril Beaughan, assistant lease and right-of-way agent, and wife, and D. H. Parker, assistant engineer, composed a party from Dunsmuir, en route to New York, where they sailed to Paris to attend the American Legion convention. Before their departure, they were the guests of the local American Legion post, who gave them a farewell dinner in their honor at Castle Crags. At the train, the ladies were presented with gifts of flowers by their many friends, who wished them a safe voyage and a safe return. They expect to return November 1.

Trainmaster J. J. Sullivan has been appointed master of the 61st engineering battalion (railway) relieving Superintendent Mack of the Sacramento division, who relinquished the assignment account of press of other duties. Several of our employees availed themselves of the deer-hunting season, which opened September 1. Among those who were successful in bringing in specimens of their prowess are hunters: Wore, Disputcher, "Freight," Lebourveau, Electrician C. C. Spencer, "Shag," Darby, "Nate," Russell, P. P. Wherry, C. B. Wharton of the motive power department, and G. S. Whitson of the water service department.

On account of the growing importance of the Klamath Falls territory, the city ticket office at Klamath Falls occupied by District Freight and Passenger Agent J. J. Miller is being enlarged and remodeled.

On September 13, District Freight and Passenger Agent J. J. Miller held another monthly meeting in Klamath Falls for agents and station employees in Klamath Falls and vicinity. The meeting at which forty employees appeared, was devoted largely to the subject, "Courtesy and Service to our Patrons," which was taken up at length in a round-table discussion. Assistant Freight Traffic Manager J. H. Mulchay and Assistant Passenger Traffic Manager J. M. Scott of Portland, District Freight and Passenger Agent A. S. Rosenbaum of Medford, and Assistant Superintendent T. J. Foley each made short addresses to the gathering.

M. A. Wallace, chief dispatcher of the Shasta Division, was in the city, where he was engaged in time-table revision.

G. M. Taylor, assistant division engineer, is taking care of the duties of Division Engineer Given.
