

GOOD CARE SEES BETTER CARS

Occasional instances are found here cars 15 or 20 years old which have been remarkably preserved and are still operating. Of course, one today wishes to drive a car 20 years old, but the care which makes possible such a state of preservation can be applied to any car to keep it running perfectly and in presentable condition.

Early deterioration of the mechanism is in practically all cases due to lack of lubrication. Early development of rattles and squeaks shows that such parts as springs and shackles have been neglected. Oil in the engine, transmission and differential is not sufficient, for the moving parts of the chassis are wearing and turning at every bump of the road and, carrying several thousand pounds load, also demand their share of oil.

Systematic lubrication at authorized service stations at monthly intervals is desirable, or mechanics familiar with the car, will, in greasing it, also detect any adjustments which may be necessary. This in itself will save money and prevent trouble on the road.

The next essential in keeping a car young is to have it washed frequently. Aside from protecting the finish from the harmful results of accumulated dirt, it serves to facilitate inspection by making the chassis parts readily accessible. Rust which has begun to work loose is readily detected if parts are kept clean.

The life of fenders can be greatly increased if the underneath side is frequently cleaned and if it is painted once a year. It will give rust protection to the surface that is continually rubbed with water, sand and gravel while driving along the road.

ORMAN WINS OVER JAMES

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 12, (AP)—His Gorman, the pride of Hood River, fistiana knocked out Floyd James of Oakland, Oregon, after minutes of ferocious fighting in the scheduled 10 round main event of the fight card promoted by Herb Owen at the Armory last night. The battle was one of the greatest ever staged in a Eugene ring and the knockout came only after the two fighters had pounded each other with vicious rights and lefts through eight fast, hard rounds.

A contrast from the main event in style of fighting was the semi-windup which Bobby Lamarr, the 140 pound Silverton ace, won from Pat Pedalford, Roseburg, in six rounds by decision. The two boys were boxers rather than sluggers and they threw a wicked pair of gloves.

Mike Meel, the popular little University of Oregon boxer, and Orlando Farmer, fought four rounds to a draw in the special event. The four rounder was a great slugging bee and the toughest battle which Meel has yet been in.

No less sensation was the four round draw between Patsy Cohen of Albany and Hugh Cowart of (Continued on Page Seven)

KID STARKEY Who will meet Pep Webster in Klamath Falls in the 10-round Main Event.

Starkey claims his ruggedness and aggressive two-fisted attack should offset the clever ring knowledge on the crafty dusky Portland boy. Webster is without a doubt the most clever and ring smart boxer ever to appear in this city, and it takes an aggressive, relentless attack such as Starkey usually delivers out to his opponents to get over boys of Webster's caliber. Starkey says, I have always felt confident that I can take Webster and more so since I witnessed him box Calahan, and the fans will see some action when I meet this famous colored boy. G. LeBaron, matchmaker states: While I have a real main event in Starkey-Webster I will not be surprised of the six round semi-final between Harrington and Daly may steal the show as both boys are real shock punchers and it only takes one of either of their arms to end their act. Jimmy O'Neill, recent addition to Klamath Falls' string of maulers is showing some real class in his workouts at the Legion hall each evening and onlookers are of the opinion that Eddie Peck, S. P. switchman, has taken quite a job on his hands to try and trim Jimmy in their four round tilt.

Eddie is in fine condition and has nothing to say, only that I want to get started here and this is my chance.

The boys train every night at the Legion hall between 6 and 7 p. m. and the public is invited to attend.

From now on students and children 16 years and under will be admitted for 50c at the boxing programs, including the fight Oct. 18.

WHAT A ONE CENT SALE IS

It is a sale where you buy an item at the regular price, then another item of the same kind for one cent. As an illustration: The standard price of Klenzo Dental Creme is 50c, you buy a tube at this price, and by paying 1 cent more, 51 cents, you get two tubes. Every article in this sale is a high class standard piece of merchandise, just the same as is sold every day at the regular price.

This sale was developed by the United Drug Co. as an advertising plan. Rather than spend large sums of money in other ways to convince you of the merits of these goods, they are spending it on this sale in permitting us to sell you a full size package of high standard merchandise for 1 cent. It costs money to get new customers, but the sacrifice in profit is justified, knowing the goods will please you.
