

Fighters Trained Down to Fine Edge for Card Tonight At Scandia Hall, 8:30 P. M.

With all the battlers trained down to a fighting edge, hundreds of enthusiastic Klamath fight fans are eagerly awaiting the going which sends the fighters at each other in the Scandia hall tonight.

Both Kid Starkey and Johnny Fugate who fight the main event predict victory over the knockout route.

"I'll try my best to stow him away as soon after the opening going as possible," was Starkey's word from training quarters.

"Starkey's due for a fall on the pugilistic ladder tonight, and it will be at my hands," Fugate remarked when queried on what he thought his chances were.

Billy Huff and Mike Daly are also keyed up to high pitch for their six round semi-windup. Daly hopes to kill Huff's ambitions to stage a comeback. He will fight an aggressive battle and will probably aim at the Indian battler's midriff, which is his weakest spot. Huff is clever and will attempt to pack Daly at long range, it is believed.

Jimmy O'Neil and Eddie Peck are all set for another milling battle in which they will attempt to steal the show from the main events, even as they did the last card. Both boys have a host of friends who will be on hand to root for their favorites. The fights will be staged in Scandia hall.

Medford Plans To Meet Best Portland Team

MEDFORD, Ore., Nov. 22. (P)—Permission has been granted by the state high school athletic association to the Medford high school football team for a post season game, with the winner of the Grant-Washington high school of Portland game Thanksgiving.

The Medford team offers to play the Portland team in this city or Portland, on their own terms, Saturday, December 3.

It is expected that the Portland school will make a decision the last of the week.

The Medford team has a 185 line, a 165 pound backfield and has this season scored 296 points to its opponents' 18, including victories over the Oregon Frosh and Chemawa Indians.

CHOCKTOOT ARRESTED.

On his usual monthly drunk, Jerry Chocktoot was arrested by police officers last night on the corner of Sixth and Main. When brought before Police Judge Lem Gahagen this morning to answer to the charge of being drunk, he was fined $25.00 or 12 days in jail. Unable to pay the fine he was returned to his cell where he spent the night.

HERE'S DIET SOLUTION.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22. (AP)—If you wish to reduce make your breakfast your heaviest meal. If you wish to increase weight have a hearty dinner. This is the prescription of Frederick Hoelzel after 500 days of experimental fasting at the University of Chicago.

Joe Turnesa, whom Walter Hagen in the finals for the professional golf title, nosed out for the championship, is a good sport.

"The better player won the match and I have no all to offer," was the Turnesa expressed himself.

"It wasn't a case of the breaks deciding the match, Hagen simply played superior golf and deserved to win. Whatever breaks that came his way, he was entitled to for he made them."

"You are not playing an ordinary golfer when you face Hagen, rather he is more like a machine. Mistakes do not seem to bother him in the least. When he errs, his sole thought is how he can make up the round thus lost."

"No golfer needs to feel disgraced when he takes a trimming from Walter Hagen."

TURNESA ASSETS.

IT IS NO DISGRACE TO LOSE TO HAGEN.

Trojans Leave To Meet Noted Rockne Eleven

U. S. C. and Notre Dame Will Clash Saturday In Chicago

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 22. (P)—The high scoring football juggernaut of the University of Southern California, yet to be stopped, embarks tonight upon the greatest of its seasons undertakings.

Saturday the Trojan aridron machine, moulded by Howard Jones, from material that included only a veteran or two, will pit itself against Notre Dame in intercollegiate combat at Soldier Field, Chicago.

Thirty-three Trojan footballers, entraining at 5 o'clock for the midwest, will take with them a record that is marred only by a tie, that with Stanford by a score of 13 to 13, and a searing slate that is the highest on the coast.

The flashiest, most brilliant Trojan of them all will not be among the thirty-three making the trip. Don "Beau" Williams, superlative quarterback charger, will be held in a hospital here with a fractured vertebrae. But the loss of this important cog in Troy's offensive strength served only as a spur to the other warriors who emanated a grim, determined air of confidence, inspired by Williams' own words.

"Beat them, fellows, then come back and get me and we'll beat Washington next week."

CHANGED FIGHT OF LINE.

Glancing over the list of players in the Princeton squad who were eligible for the Yale game, I find the names of 15 sophomores and as many juniors.

While Princeton was far from a one-man team, as a matter of fact the Tiger lineup was one of the best all-around combinations I have seen this year. It seems to me that the moment Center Howe passed from the aridron, the Princeton line lost much of its power.

I am told that Howe, badly used up in the Ohio State game, wasn't physically fit to engage in a single scrimmage prior to the Yale game. In that contest, he was pitted against the best center I have seen in action this season, Charlesworth.

Until he was forced out because of injuries with about 12 minutes to play, Howe held his own, despite the fact Charlesworth was pressing every minute. Fatigue more than injuries finally forced Coach Roper to withdraw Howe from the game.

How he hated to go. He fought off five or six Tigers who sought to induce him to depart from the field and it was not until the officials stepped into the picture that he consented to go.

Was Costly to Tigers.

Physically unfit to play, for he staggered to the sidelines as would a drunken man, Howe showed the fighting spirit every inch of the way, several times turning his head to where the teams were lined up as if debating as to whether or not he would return.

As he neared the lines he removed his headgear and tossed it aside in disgust and disappointment. Howe wanted to remain in that game until the finish.

I have since wondered if the picture of Howe as he left the field didn't have its effect on the Princeton team. Certainly the Tigers' play deteriorated after he retired.

While the forward pass, Haben to Flashwick, was the scoring play that actually beat Princeton, I will always think the passing of Howe from the game to the sidelines was equally costly to the Tigers' chances.

Watch those sophomore Tigers next year. Princeton is due for another great team.

A western center cut his lip but went right back into the line. Lucky for the coach—we mean that he didn't cut his.

BILLY EVANS Says

Sophs Lacked Poise.

A few hours before the Princeton-Yale game I chatted with a former Princeton star, close to Bill Roper. In reply to my query as to how he doped the outcome, he said:

"Princeton has a great team, but if the game is close and it is hard pressed to hold a score lead, it may prove unequal to the occasion. Not because of lack of courage, but rather poise."

"The Princeton team is largely made up of sophomores. Few of them have ever faced Yale. It will be a terrific strain for most of the youngsters and it is only natural that they may suffer from lack of experience in the final stages if the score is close."

After the game was over and Yale had won in the closing minutes of play, I vividly recalled the comments of the Tiger star of six years back.

NO, I'm not going to be married. Neither have I fallen heir to a lot of money. But I have discovered the one tobacco that makes a pipe come through a thousand per cent—Prince Albert!

Yes, Sir, Prince Albert—the world's largest-selling brand. I was sitting with a fellow-commuter the other morning, when he was filling his pipe from a bright-red tin. I got a whiff of that tobacco and said: "Do you mind if I borrow a load?" He passed the tin over, and I filled up and lighted up.

I never tasted anything so good in my life. It was wonderfully cool and sweet, with a mildness I had never met before in a pipe-tobacco. Mild, as I say, yet it had that rich, rare body that put satisfaction into every pull. What a taste!

I could
