LAST COLORED LIGHT PLACED

Firemen and Policemen Complete Arrangements for Christmas Fete

With the last colored light placed on the huge Christmas tree in front of the City Hall yesterday afternoon, through the courtesy of the California Oregon Power company, final arrangements for the fete on Friday night at 7 o'clock have been completed.

At this time the firemen and police force will be hosts to the kiddies of Klamath county, having worked for many weeks to make this one of the most enjoyable in the history of Klamath Falls.

Stockings crammed with candy and nuts as well as boxes of oranges and pop corn balls have arranged at the city hall where Santa will deliver them to hundreds of kiddies.

Should any little ones be left out, because they are unable to attend the ceremonies on that night, members of the police and fire departments will make an effort to reach them the following day, Saturday, providing their names and addresses are left at the City Hall.

Santa Claus will be on hand promptly at 7 o'clock. Rev. J. Henry Thomas of St. Paul's Episcopal church will deliver a brief address and the girls' quartette of the city schools will sing several Christmas carols.

Nurses On Vacations—

The Misses Louise Oakes, Morrison and Cates, all nurses at the Klamath General hospital left this morning for Vancouver, B. C. where they will spend the Christmas holidays with relatives and friends. They plan to resume their duties here within the coming two weeks.
