NAME OFFICERS OF COMMUNITY

R. E. Bradbury and Mrs.

Junior Class, Correspondents (Special to The Herald)

HENLEY, December 27.—Hans Nyland, president; R. E. Bradbury, vice president and Mrs. Van Myers, secretary and treasurer were the officers installed for the ensuing year at the last community meeting. At this time it was decided that the Central Community Club would sponsor an old time dance for New Year's eve. A committee of men will take charge of the supper. It is expected this dance will be the outstanding event of the season.
At the next regular meeting on January 7 a "kangaroo court" will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Dawson were Sunday visitors at the Frank Stewart home.

Mrs. Mary Cheyne and children and Miss Audrey McPherson visited the G. S. Thompson home Sunday.

Miss Elsie Hesaltine was the week-end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Short.

Mrs. W. F. Hilyard visited the R. C. Short home Sunday.

Phelps Lewis and Kelley Balentine were absent several days from school last week on account of illness.

Carl Dodson left Monday for Portland where he will receive medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Grem entertained Sunday evening with a dinner. Covers were laid for Mr.

and Mrs. K. G. Klahn, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Griffith and Dale West.

Miss Marie Munson plans to spend the Christmas holidays at her home in Everson, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Martin, of Marshfield, who have recently moved to Klamath Falls, were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wabbes Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Johnson entertained with a dinner Sunday.
The guests were Mr. and Mrs.
Vern McClellan and children of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob King spent Sunday at the V. F. Myers home.
The Misses Marjorie Reeder, Lucille Dawson and Dorothy Short, who have been attending Ashland Normal are home for their Christmas vacation.

Gladya Latta began teaching at Algoma this week.

Maxine Bradbury, Ralph and Clarence Hill of the University of Oregon are home for the holidays.

There will be a basketball practice game between the Klamath Cardinals and the Henley high school next Friday evening at the Henley gymnasium.

Elaine McClellan is visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McClellan.

Where to Hunt

Where is big game most plentiful in the entire United States?
My guess is Wyoming. In the Jackson Hole district.

In the possible bag are grizzly, cinnamon and black bear, a sure bet on bull elk, the only open moose hunting grounds in the U. S. A., big-horn sheep, white-tail and black-tail deer.

Coyote and badgers are numerous. The trout fishing in Bridger lake and streams adds to the pleasure also.

When better literature is suppressed, it will be read by Americans.

Home Luxury —Plus

By NEA Service

"The maximum of luxury in the minimum of space" might well be the slogan of "The Elton," a pleasant, brown-shingled home with light trimmings.

For "The Elton" seems to put into practice the belief that the man and woman of moderate means is deserving of all sorts of luxuries—spacious rooms that give a sense of peace, ample storage space and a living room at once noticeably long and well-planned.

Built-in book-cases from the fireplace to the end of the living room insure a cozy reading corner impregnable to outside disturbances.

Each of the three bed-rooms has a luxury all its own—a private dressing room. And opening off each dressing room is a roomy closet, which takes care of keeping clothes put away.

A double linen closet, spacious bath, a breakfast nook downstairs and two very attractive porches all enhance "The Elton's" appeal. And it costs only $4,500 to $5,500.

For further information about "The Elton," write the Standard Home Company, Colorado Bldg., Washington, D. C.

Style note—Christmas packages of bottled liquor should be decorated with lilies instead of holly.

Scolded, Slays

After he had been reprimanded for failure to attend school regularly, Andrew Dyken (above), 15-year-old St. Clairsville (O.) boy, mas with his mother. He will

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hawkins and Daughter, Harmony, left Friday by auto for Bandon, Oregon, and spent Christmas with Mrs.
Hawkins' mother, Mrs. Cora Bentzen.

C. D. Brown received word Monday that his mother was critically ill at her home in Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Brown left the same evening by auto for Riparia, Wash.

Harry Doyle, foreman at the machine shop, left Tuesday for Los Angeles, Calif., to join Mrs.
Doyle. They will spend the holidays with relatives and friends, returning about the first.

Herbert Nesbitt left Tuesday morning for San Francisco, Calif.
Rumor has it that Mr. Nesbitt will return after the holidays with a bride. More about this later.

HOLLOW TILE HOMES

The home built of Hollow Tile is everything that a home should be. There is no danger of warping, cracking or shrinking to permit leaks of cold air or dampness into the home.

Hollow Tile may be finished in several different ways. A facig of stucco or brick may be used, or the wall may be built with a finished wall of face tile.

Hollow Tile—the most economical form of permanent construction.
