

CLASSIFIED AD RATES

Per word each insertion, 2 cents; per week 10% discount; per two weeks 15% discount; per month 20% discount. All classified ads must be cash. Minimum per advertisement 25 cents.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADIO SERVICE—All kinds of radio service, repairing, etc. Parts and sets for sale. Phone 1357-M, 1719 Menloway. Can save you money. 423-123.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Office suite in Willets Bldg. Call 351-R. 2-6t

ROOMS—Furnace heat. $20 Lincoln. 35-26t

FOR RENT—Furnished apartment. St. Francis Apartments. 928 Oak St. 3-6t

FOR RENT—Four room partly furnished house. Large garage. Inquire 1237 East St. 4-6t

FOR RENT—Two-room furnished house, woodshed, garage. 120 Oregon Ave. high way. Call 927 Jefferson. 4-6t

FOR RENT—Two room partly furnished house. $12.50. Phone 544-J. 423 Plum Ave. 4-6t

FOR RENT—Apartments at Esplanade Court. Phone 794-W. 12-26t

FOR RENT—Sleeping room with garage. 340 North 9th St. 6-6t

FOR RENT—Steam heated apt. furnished. 123 North 6th St. Phone 916-W. 6-6t

FOR RENT—Small new 2-room house, close in, on payment. Partly furnished. 1125 East St. Phone 1037-W. 6-2t

FOR RENT—Cozy apartments. 58 Main St. Furnished apartments with bath and laundry trays. Low rents. 4-6t

FOR RENT—New, completely furnished apt. Steam heat, garage. Rex Arms Apts. Phone 1116. 12-26t

FOR RENT—Storage space in good warehouse. Martin's Fruit and Produce. 535 Spring St. 31-9t

FOR RENT—New, completely furnished apartments. Steam heat, garage. Rex Arms. Phone 1116. 12-26t

FOR RENT—Furnished room, furnace heat, one block from Main St. 125 Pine. Phone 806. 7-1t

FOR RENT—First class furnished apt. Steam heat. McCarthy Apartments, 630 Pine St. Phone 800. d7-tf

FOR RENT—Modern house, four rooms and bath, garage, unfurnished. On Nevada Ave. $25 per month to permanent tenant. House is not for sale. Call Buick Garage. Phone 42. 5-6t

FOR RENT—We can save you big money at the Arcade Hotel Apartments, furnished completely, electric ranges, linen, dishes and telephones; or rooms with private baths at real cut rates to permanent guests. Arcade. M9-J9

WANTED

WANTED—Work as housekeeper or chambermaid. 1302 Oregon Ave. 5-3t

WANTED—First class automobile mechanic. Apply Buick Garage. 5-6t

WANTED—Room and board in private home. Home privileges. Must be close to Main. Address Box R. M. care Herald. 29-6t

For Sale—Automobiles

FOR SALE—1926 Ford Roadster. This car is in fine condition. Run about 5000 miles. A dandy buy. $175

1—1925 Olds Coach. This is some buy. Run less than 3000 miles. $725

1—1922 Ford Touring. $45

1—1923 Ford Roadster. $45

1—Buick 6 Touring. A good car for the money. $175

1—Buick 6 Touring. An extra cheap car. $85

Come down to the Roy Call Auto Co., at 727 Commercial St., to get the best buys. Liberal terms.

ROY CALL AUTO CO. 727 Commercial St. Phone 335. 6-4t

FOR SALE—We have moved all our cars off the used car lot at 8th and Pine St. They are now located at the Roy Call Auto Co., Garage, 727 Commercial St., Klamath Falls, Ore.

THIS IS THE ORIGINAL HOME OF GOOD USED CARS.

We have many popular makes in late model used cars to offer you. Come down and look them over.

The following is a partial list of what we have on hand:

1—1927 Whippet 6 Sedan, like new. $675

1—1927 Ford Roadster, wire wheels, spare tire, bumpers. $390

1—1927 Ford Coupe, bumpers, spare tire, run to go. $350

1—1927 Essex Super Coupe, a dandy buy. $625

1—1927 Nash Coach. This car run less than 3000 miles. $725

1—1926 Ford Coupe, a good buy. $475

1—1924 Ford Touring, fine condition. $100

1—1927 Pontiac Coupe, just like new. $625

1—1927 Whippet Roadster, rumble seat, fine shape. $465

1—1927 Chrysler Roadster, rumble seat, bumpers, fine shape. $565

These cars are priced to sell. You can buy them on terms with a 12-month contract.

ROY CALL AUTO CO. 727 Commercial St. See Walt Abbey. Used Car Man.

Phone 335 6-4t

NEW TODAY

FOR RENT—Modern furnished three-room apartment. Steam heat. One block from Main St., corner Cedar and Pine. Phone 516. 7-4t

FOR RENT—Houses, two, three and four rooms, furnished. Prices right. C. Dick, 220 Main. 7-11t

BARGAIN DAY—All kinds of goods. Have a look in. We have just what you want. C. Dick, 220 Main. 7-11t

FOR SALE—Beautiful silk dress. Also coat with fur collar and cuffs. Arcade Apartments, No. 295. 7-11t

LOST—Two new tires, mounted. Between Medford and Klamath Falls. Return to News office or forward to C. F. Carpenter, Medford, Ore. 7-11t

FOR SALE—Snap. $75 down, $25 month. Four-room modern house, hook, built-in kitchen. On pavement. Price $2500. Inquire 1818 Portland St. 7-11t

ENTIRE RABBITRY FOR SALE—Belgian Hares and Chinchillas. All first class stock. One or all. Must sell, leaving town. Will sacrifice. R. L. Carrie, 615 Donald St. 7-6t

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has filed with the State Banking Board of Oregon application for license to engage in the business of making loans of money or of making loans in the pawnbrokerage business, under the provisions of sections 6308-6321, inclusive, Oregon Laws.

S. J. CARLISLE, 1004 Main Street, Klamath Falls, Ore. D31-J7-14

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Dry fir and pine wood. Phone 598-W. d7-7t

FOR SALE—Maytag washer, $75. 619 California Ave. 5-3t

FOR SALE—Dry fir and pine. $10.00 cord. Phone 934-W. d10-26t

FOR SALE—Oak dining extension table, chairs. 527 Pine St. 4-6t

FOR SALE OR TRADE—Two young bull calves. Eligible to register, from heavy producing cows. Ticker and Loomis, Lantrell Valley, Ore. 6-3t

FOR SALE—125 tons rye hay. Good feed grounds. Water and house free. James Hickman, Malin, Ore. 5-6t

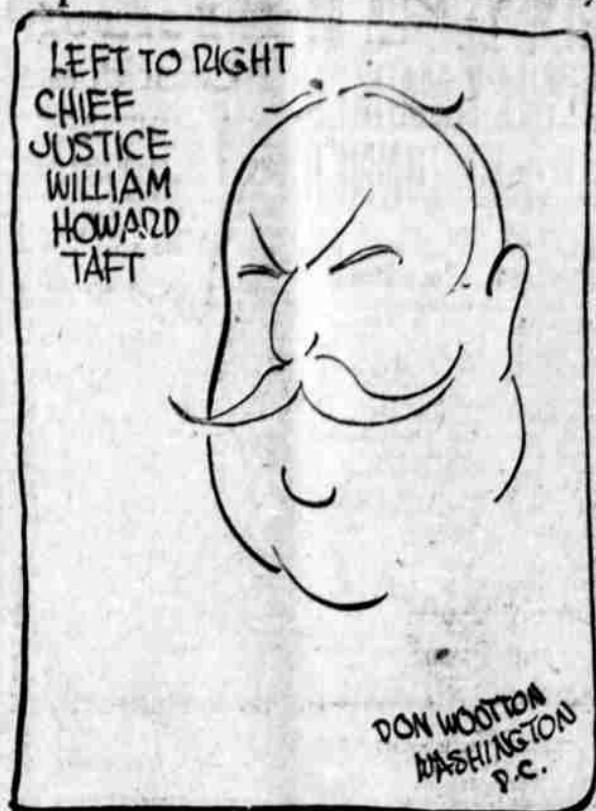

FOR SALE—Used furniture: stoves, ranges, washing machines, sewing machines for sale or rent; lowest price; easy terms. Klamath Furniture Co., 1011 Main St. 19-1t

Distance doesn't always lend enchantment. All some people ever see of opportunity is the tail light.

INSURE IN SURE INSURANCE

Through The Walton, Wright Company 615 Klamath Ave.

Supreme Court Not So Gloomy

CRACKLING LOG FIRE HELPS BRIGHTEN UP THE ROOM

By RODNEY DUTCHER NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Any one who has seen the Supreme Court in session may regard the justices as cold and austere gentlemen, but these nine venerables are not as cold as you might think.

In the sacred precincts behind that great bench, which take the shape of a lobby where the court may sneak back for a drink—of water—or to consult precedents, burn two wood fires. Artfully concealed behind two large screens at either of the exposed ends of the lobby, which stretches the width of the courtroom, they cannot be seen from the body of the court room beyond which ordinary persons may not penetrate.

The hidden fireplaces are kept in action partly for warmth and partly for ventilation. Sometimes, no doubt—though your correspondent never has heard it—the wood crackles with a loud pop audible in the courtroom. Inexplicable to any but justices and attaches of the court.

The furnishing of the private lobby behind the rear partition of the dias seating the nine justices is quite simple. A bookcase holds 272 bound volumes containing all previous decisions of the court, and a table has water ready for the thirsty justice.

A door through the partition and onto the dias is used as an entry to the bench by Chief Justice Taft and Justices Holmes and Van Devanter. Three others step up onto the bench from the right and the others, after passing through the lobby from the left.

Who knows Senator James A. Reed's middle name? Not that

Calvin Coolidge managed to get along in life without any middle name at all. Thomas Woodrow Wilson moved faster after he made his middle name his first name.

Politicians have generally been careful about parting their names in the middle. Such efforts are regarded as fatal in the rugged west, but some easterners have survived. Senator James Thomas Hefflin is J. Thomas and sometimes even Thomas J.; Congressman Abram Platt Andrew of Massachusetts became A. Platt and James Zachary Spearling of New Orleans, a better than average congressman, is J. Zach. The only governor guilty of that sort of business is A. (Arthur) Harry Moore of New Jersey.

Cabinet members include Andrew William Mellon, Dwight Filley Davis, James John Davis, John Garibaldi Sargent, Curtis Dwyer, William Harry Stewart, New and William Marion Jardine.

In Congress there are Senators Henry Fountain Ashurst, William Edgar Borah, Charles Linna McNary, Woodbridge Wagner, Claude Augustus Swanson, Guy Despard Goff, and Parinford McLendel Simmons, and Representatives Leonidas Carstarphen Dyer, James Ambrose Gallivan, John Hoses Kerr, Charles Laban Abernethy and Frank Llewellyn Bowman.

All prizes for foresightfulness, however, go to the parents of Senator Brookhart of Iowa. As they had gazed into a crystal which told them accurately the future career of their baby, they named him Smith Wildman Brookhart.

It is a matter of tremendous import at this time, but Reed is a candidate for his party's presidential nomination, and to have a president whose middle name was a secret from his inquisitive countrymen would be unthinkable, wouldn't it? The Congressional Directory and Who's Who are ignorant and inquiry at the great Missouriian's office was met by refusal to give it. In the absence of the senator himself it was said very politely that the senator regarded his middle name as his own private business and he never used it, anyway.

Well, if Reed is nominated, someone will dig it up for sure. Middle names of other possibilities have been exposed to the world—Alfred Emanuel Smith, Albert Cabell Ritchie, Herbert Clark Hoover, Frank Orren Lowden, Charles Gates Dawes, Frank Bartlette Willis, and so on. None of the candidates has such a juicy middle name as the late President Warren Gamaliel Harding—inasmuch as Senator David Ignatius Walsh is not a candidate—unless it's Reed.

Of course, Reed may have a very common, ordinary middle name such as Aloysius, Adoniram, Abijah or Abaalam, and on the other hand it might be some such intricate name as Asarelah, Archelaus, Abasuerus or Adonibeech.

Calvin Coolidge managed to get along in life without any middle name at all. Thomas Woodrow Wilson moved faster after he made his middle name his first name.

Politicians have generally been careful about parting their names in the middle. Such efforts are regarded as fatal in the rugged west, but some easterners have survived. Senator James Thomas Hefflin is J. Thomas and sometimes even Thomas J.; Congressman Abram Platt Andrew of Massachusetts became A. Platt and James Zachary Spearling of New Orleans, a better than average congressman, is J. Zach. The only governor guilty of that sort of business is A. (Arthur) Harry Moore of New Jersey.

Cabinet members include Andrew William Mellon, Dwight Filley Davis, James John Davis, John Garibaldi Sargent, Curtis Dwyer, William Harry Stewart, New and William Marion Jardine.

In Congress there are Senators Henry Fountain Ashurst, William Edgar Borah, Charles Linna McNary, Woodbridge Wagner, Claude Augustus Swanson, Guy Despard Goff, and Parinford McLendel Simmons, and Representatives Leonidas Carstarphen Dyer, James Ambrose Gallivan, John Hoses Kerr, Charles Laban Abernethy and Frank Llewellyn Bowman.

All prizes for foresightfulness, however, go to the parents of Senator Brookhart of Iowa. As they had gazed into a crystal which told them accurately the future career of their baby, they named him Smith Wildman Brookhart.

It is a matter of tremendous import at this time, but Reed is a candidate for his party's presidential nomination, and to have a president whose middle name was a secret from his inquisitive countrymen would be unthinkable, wouldn't it? The Congressional Directory and Who's Who are ignorant and inquiry at the great Missouriian's office was met by refusal to give it. In the absence of the senator himself it was said very politely that the senator regarded his middle name as his own private business and he never used it, anyway.

Well, if Reed is nominated, someone will dig it up for sure. Middle names of other possibilities have been exposed to the world—Alfred Emanuel Smith, Albert Cabell Ritchie, Herbert Clark Hoover, Frank Orren Lowden, Charles Gates Dawes, Frank Bartlette Willis, and so on. None of the candidates has such a juicy middle name as the late President Warren Gamaliel Harding—inasmuch as Senator David Ignatius Walsh is not a candidate—unless it's Reed.

Of course, Reed may have a very common, ordinary middle name such as Aloysius, Adoniram, Abijah or Abaalam, and on the other hand it might be some such intricate name as Asarelah, Archelaus, Abasuerus or Adonibeech.

Calvin Coolidge managed to get along in life without any middle name at all. Thomas Woodrow Wilson moved faster after he made his middle name his first name.

Politicians have generally been careful about parting their names in the middle. Such efforts are regarded as fatal in the rugged west, but some easterners have survived. Senator James Thomas Hefflin is J. Thomas and sometimes even Thomas J.; Congressman Abram Platt Andrew of Massachusetts became A. Platt and James Zachary Spearling of New Orleans, a better than average congressman, is J. Zach. The only governor guilty of that sort of business is A. (Arthur) Harry Moore of New Jersey.

Cabinet members include Andrew William Mellon, Dwight Filley Davis, James John Davis, John Garibaldi Sargent, Curtis Dwyer, William Harry Stewart, New and William Marion Jardine.

In Congress there are Senators Henry Fountain Ashurst, William Edgar Borah, Charles Linna McNary, Woodbridge Wagner, Claude Augustus Swanson, Guy Despard Goff, and Parinford McLendel Simmons, and Representatives Leonidas Carstarphen Dyer, James Ambrose Gallivan, John Hoses Kerr, Charles Laban Abernethy and Frank Llewellyn Bowman.

All prizes for foresightfulness, however, go to the parents of Senator Brookhart of Iowa. As they had gazed into a crystal which told them accurately the future career of their baby, they named him Smith Wildman Brookhart.

It is a matter of tremendous import at this time, but Reed is a candidate for his party's presidential nomination, and to have a president whose middle name was a secret from his inquisitive countrymen would be unthinkable, wouldn't it? The Congressional Directory and Who's Who are ignorant and inquiry at the great Missouriian's office was met by refusal to give it. In the absence of the senator himself it was said very politely that the senator regarded his middle name as his own private business and he never used it, anyway.

Well, if Reed is nominated, someone will dig it up for sure. Middle names of other possibilities have been exposed to the world—Alfred Emanuel Smith, Albert Cabell Ritchie, Herbert Clark Hoover, Frank Orren Lowden, Charles Gates Dawes, Frank Bartlette Willis, and so on. None of the candidates has such a juicy middle name as the late President Warren Gamaliel Harding—inasmuch as Senator David Ignatius Walsh is not a candidate—unless it's Reed.

Of course, Reed may have a very common, ordinary middle name such as Aloysius, Adoniram, Abijah or Abaalam, and on the other hand it might be some such intricate name as Asarelah, Archelaus, Abasuerus or Adonibeech.

Calvin Coolidge managed to get along in life without any middle name at all. Thomas Woodrow Wilson moved faster after he made his middle name his first name.

Politicians have generally been careful about parting their names in the middle. Such efforts are regarded as fatal in the rugged west, but some easterners have survived. Senator James Thomas Hefflin is J. Thomas and sometimes even Thomas J.; Congressman Abram Platt Andrew of Massachusetts became A. Platt and James Zachary Spearling of New Orleans, a better than average congressman, is J. Zach. The only governor guilty of that sort of business is A. (Arthur) Harry Moore of New Jersey.

Cabinet members include Andrew William Mellon, Dwight Filley Davis, James John Davis, John Garibaldi Sargent, Curtis Dwyer, William Harry Stewart, New and William Marion Jardine.

In Congress there are Senators Henry Fountain Ashurst, William Edgar Borah, Charles Linna McNary, Woodbridge Wagner, Claude Augustus Swanson, Guy Despard Goff, and Parinford McLendel Simmons, and Representatives Leonidas Carstarphen Dyer, James Ambrose Gallivan, John Hoses Kerr, Charles Laban Abernethy and Frank Llewellyn Bowman.

All prizes for foresightfulness, however, go to the parents of Senator Brookhart of Iowa. As they had gazed into a crystal which told them accurately the future career of their baby, they named him Smith Wildman Brookhart.

It is a matter of tremendous import at this time, but Reed is a candidate for his party's presidential nomination, and to have a president whose middle name was a secret from his inquisitive countrymen would be unthinkable, wouldn't it? The Congressional Directory and Who's Who are ignorant and inquiry at the great Missouriian's office was met by refusal to give it. In the absence of the senator himself it was said very politely that the senator regarded his middle name as his own private business and he never used it, anyway.

Well, if Reed is nominated, someone will dig it up for sure. Middle names of other possibilities have been exposed to the world—Alfred Emanuel Smith, Albert Cabell Ritchie, Herbert Clark Hoover, Frank Orren Lowden, Charles Gates Dawes, Frank Bartlette Willis, and so on. None of the candidates has such a juicy middle name as the late President Warren Gamaliel Harding—inasmuch as Senator David Ignatius Walsh is not a candidate—unless it's Reed.

Of course, Reed may have a very common, ordinary middle name such as Aloysius, Adoniram, Abijah or Abaalam, and on the other hand it might be some such intricate name as Asarelah, Archelaus, Abasuerus or Adonibeech.

Calvin Coolidge managed to get along in life without any middle name at all. Thomas Woodrow Wilson moved faster after he made his middle name his first name.

Politicians have generally been careful about parting their names in the middle. Such efforts are regarded as fatal in the rugged west, but some easterners have survived. Senator James Thomas Hefflin is J. Thomas and sometimes even Thomas J.; Congressman Abram Platt Andrew of Massachusetts became A. Platt and James Zachary Spearling of New Orleans, a better than average congressman, is J. Zach. The only governor guilty of that sort of business is A. (Arthur) Harry Moore of New Jersey.

Cabinet members include Andrew William Mellon, Dwight Filley Davis, James John Davis, John Garibaldi Sargent, Curtis Dwyer, William Harry Stewart, New and William Marion Jardine.

In Congress there are Senators Henry Fountain Ashurst, William Edgar Borah, Charles Linna McNary, Woodbridge Wagner, Claude Augustus Swanson, Guy Despard Goff, and Parinford McLendel Simmons, and Representatives Leonidas Carstarphen Dyer, James Ambrose Gallivan, John Hoses Kerr, Charles Laban Abernethy and Frank Llewellyn Bowman.

All prizes for foresightfulness, however, go to the parents of Senator Brookhart of Iowa. As they had gazed into a crystal which told them accurately the future career of their baby, they named him Smith Wildman Brookhart.

It is a matter of tremendous import at this time, but Reed is a candidate for his party's presidential nomination, and to have a president whose middle name was a secret from his inquisitive countrymen would be unthinkable, wouldn't it? The Congressional Directory and Who's Who are ignorant and inquiry at the great Missouriian's office was met by refusal to give it. In the absence of the senator himself it was said very politely that the senator regarded his middle name as his own private business and he never used it, anyway.

Well, if Reed is nominated, someone will dig it up for sure. Middle names of other possibilities have been exposed to the world—Alfred Emanuel Smith, Albert Cabell Ritchie, Herbert Clark Hoover, Frank Orren Lowden, Charles Gates Dawes, Frank Bartlette Willis, and so on. None of the candidates has such a juicy middle name as the late President Warren Gamaliel Harding—inasmuch as Senator David Ignatius Walsh is not a candidate—unless it's Reed.

confirmation by said court, the following described real property of said estate, to-wit: Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 in Block 25, Terminal City, in Klamath County, Oregon.

Dated December 17, 1927. WILLIAM GANONG, Guardian of John Albert Elder and Mary Mildred Elder.

D17-24-31-J7-14

NOTICE TO CREDITORS. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, by order of the County Court of Klamath County, Oregon, has been appointed Administrator of the estate of Lucille Young, deceased, and has qualified.

All persons having claims against the said estate are required to present them, with the proper vouchers, within six months from the date of this notice to the said administrator at his office in Klamath Falls, Oregon, in said County of Klamath. Dated this first publication December 7th, 1927.

JAMES M. JONES, Administrator of the estate of Lucille Young, deceased. D. E. Fletcher, attorney. Dec. 7-Jan. 7, Inc.

Klamath Falls Lodge Directory

LODGE, FRATERNAL, NOTICE	LOYAL ORDER OF MOOSE
B. P. O. ELKS Meet Thursday evening. Visiting members welcome.	Meet every Thursday, 7:30 L. O. O. M. Moose Hall, Klamath Falls. GEO. OGLE, Dic.
ELKS TEMPLE, 3rd and Main OLIVER SPIKER, Exalted Ruler F. D. McMillan, Secretary	KLAMATH LODGE NO. 77 A. F. and A. M. Stated Communications 2nd and 4th Mondays Visiting Brothers Welcome LOOMIS BUILDING
NEIGHBORS OF WOODCRAFT Meets first and third Wednesdays each month in L. O. O. F. Bldg. Fannie M. Thompson, Clerk. 416 N. 9th. S15-30

Klamath Falls Professional Cards and Business Directory

AUTOMOBILE DEALERS	CHIROPRACTOR
Repair Work Battery Service Tires—Nash, Oakland Pontiac, Packard R. R. K. GARAGE 831 Klamath Next to Postoffice. Phone 212	DR. C. NORVALL Graduate of Palmer and Pacific College Fourteen years experience We remove the cause of disease Klamath Falls Phone 879 127 S. Seventh
AUTOMOBILE TIRES	DENTISTRY
Bring in your worn tires—get 5,000 miles more at ½ usual cost	M. E. COOPER Dentist Room 205 Poole Bldg. Phone 1117
ACE TIRE SHOP	General Practice of Dentistry
Guaranteed vulcanizing 115 So. 11th St. Phone 843-J Re-treads	DR. PHILIP COLE 518 Main
AUTO REPAIR	Over Moe's Store—Phone 589 Open Evenings by Appointment
Smith's Repair Shop Guaranteed Auto Repairing Cars called for and delivered South 6th St. Phone 603-W
BEAUTY PARLORS	EMPLOYMENT AGENCY
Expert Operators, Individual booths, violet ray, marcelling, hair tinting	KLAMATH EMPLOYMENT OFFICE Employment for workers in every trade—mills, railway and farms
BOSTON BEAUTY SHOP	James Ryan, Prop. 6th and Main Phone 187
Glennna Warren
BUILDING MATERIALS	MUSIC STUDIO
SWAN LAKE MOULDING CO. Quality Building Material South 6th St. Phone 759	We can handle a few more students for piano study. Classical and popular music. Beginners and advance.
CHURCHES	Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Dicky 1313 Lookout Phone 756
SACRED HEART CHURCH Eighth and High Sts., Rev. A. F. Looser, Rev. C. B. Feige. Sunday masses at 6:30, 8:00 and 10:30. Evening devotions at 7:30. Week-day mass at 8 a. m. Merrill, 1st and 3rd Sundays at 10:30. All are cordially welcome at our services.
CIVIL ENGINEERS	OPTICIAN
J. C. CLEGHORN Civil Engineer and Surveyor 219 High Street	GLASSES Eyes Examined, Fitted and the Glasses Ground in our own factory to suit your individual requirements. Broken Lenses Replaced
C. C. KELLEY Consulting Civil Engineer Underwood Bldg. Phone 1075	DR. GOBLE'S 709 MAIN STREET Repairs Quick Service
CHIROPRACTORS	PAINTS, WALL PAPER
DR. GLEN MOORE Palmer Graduate Chronic and Nervous Disease New Melrose Block, 325 Main Phone 1278 Opposite Court House	Wall Paper, Paints, Enamels Brushes F. R. OLDS Across from Postoffice Phone 43 Everything a Paint Store Keeps
DENTISTS	PATTERSON'S PAINT STORE 625 So. 6th St. Phone 593-J
DR. E. G. WISECARVER Dentistry X-Ray Service Underwood Bldg. Phone 64

Mom'n Pop

Ready for Business

By Taylor

