appropriate name for a new variety of plum which was found on the Burbank Experiment grounds during the past season's survey of over nine hundred new varieties of plums which were originated by Luther Burbank and left unimproved at the time of his death.

This $2000 in prizes consists of the best selected fruit trees, shade trees or ornamental shrubs, roses, etc. The winners can specify whether they want fruit trees for orchards or ornamentals for beautifying their grounds. The company will have its experts make selection of best varieties suited to the locality of the winners. The $2000 values will be divided among the persons judged to have submitted the best and most appropriate names as follows: 1st prize, $600 value; 2nd prize, $300 value; 3rd prize, $200 value and nine additional prizes of $100 value each—making a total of twelve big prizes.

REED PREDICTS GREAT SUCCESS FOR DEMOCRATS

Missourian Returns Home From Speaking Tour Throughout West

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, March 6 (AP)—Full of optimism over democratic prospects in the coming election, Senator Reed of Missouri, turned home from the far west today and the pioneer presidential campaign of 1928. "There has not been a time since the first election of Woodrow Wilson," he told party leaders who gathered here, "when I have seen such a spirit of determination to win in part of democrats."

In his speech here before a huge crowd last night Senator Reed again made the theme of his address an attack on President Coolidge and republican "stand patterns," for their refusal to aid in the inquiry leading up to the cancellation of the naval oil reserve leases. He also asked for religious liberty and tolerance, denounced the world war debt settlements, deplored the "invasion" of state rights by the federal government, proposed a vast program for internal improvements and called for the driving out of Washington of the "rascals."

"Restoration of honesty to government," is the theme, he said, and in a talk with members of the democratic committee he warned that the party was split on prohibition and republicans would continue in office if the democrats were going to quarrel over this issue now.
