

NEWS IN BRIEF

Mrs. Wagner Singing—

Friends of Mrs. Mary Boyd Wagner will be interested to learn that she is back in her home in New York City and is broadcasting over radio station WCGU four times each week. Her own composition, "Dear Little Home of the West," is meeting with much favor over the eastern station. Miss Eleanor, her daughter who spent the winter months here with her mother, has entered the conservatory of music to further her study of piano. She is an accomplished young musician and while enjoying her study of music is anxious to return to Klamath Falls, despite her being an eastern girl. Mrs. Wagner writes relatives and friends in Klamath Falls that the weather has been cold and miserable during the past month in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis Coming—

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Davis of Roseburg are expected to arrive in Klamath Falls on Saturday and will spend the week-end here with their daughter, Miss Mildred Davis, assistant to Earl C. Reynolds of the chamber of commerce. Mr. and Mrs. Davis are making the trip via motor.

Bridge Party Announced—

The ladies of the Mooseheart lodge have announced a bridge and "500" card party to be held at Moose hall on Monday evening, April 16. The play will start at eight o'clock. Gentlemen are invited to attend with the ladies. Reservations are being made through Mrs. I. Andrew Towey and Mrs. Clyde Thompson. It is planned to have at least 30 tables in play.

Returned to Valley—

Eugene O'Grady, popular young fighter, returned to his home in Ashland today. O'Grady and Joe Blackwell of Eugene fought the main event on the Chillicothe fight card last evening. The fighters went 10 rounds to a draw.

Methodist Choir to Bonanza—

Members of the choir of the First Methodist church will leave the city at six o'clock this evening for Bonanza where they will render a special musical program of Easter music for the people of the Bonanza community. The program will be presented at the Community hall.

Methodist Sale Saturday—

The Ladies Aid of the First Methodist church have completed arrangements for the fancy work and cooked food Easter sale which they will hold in the building next to the Pine Tree theater on Saturday.

Mastins Have Daughter—

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mastin of Klamath Falls are the happy parents of a baby girl, born this morning at the Klamath Valley hospital.

Eastern Star Club Tomorrow—

All members of the Eastern Star Social club are asked to attend the meeting scheduled for 2:30 o'clock on Friday afternoon at Masonic hall. At this time a number of important business matters will be brought up for discussion.

Mr. and Mrs. Hancock Home—

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hancock have returned home from Portland, where they transacted business during the past week. They were accompanied north by Mrs. C. B. Harding who will return the last of the week with Mr. Harding who is north transacting business in the interests of the Great Northern railroad.

Health Report Told—

According to the weekly health report filed with the office of the state department of health, Klamath Falls has had five communicable diseases during the past week.

Mrs. Hackler in City—

Mrs. William Hackler of Fort Klamath as included among the out of town business visitors in the city on Wednesday.

From Fort Klamath—

Mr. Edward Hoyt of Fort Klamath spent Wednesday in the city shopping and visiting with friends.

Camp Fire Girls Met—

The Apaya Campfire Girls held a ceremonial meeting at the club house on Wednesday evening. Eileen Hargrove, Elva Nelson, Zoa Butler, Dorothy Ackerman, and Marjorie Cheyne attended their first ceremonial meeting. Angela McDonald became a wood-gatherer, the first rank in campfire work. Margaret Dunnington, Ruth McNeely and Angela McDonald received their beads for doing honors.

Visited From Sprague River—

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Perdue of Sprague River spent Wednesday in Klamath Falls on business.

Miller From Chillicothe—

E. S. Miller of Chillicothe returned home this morning after transacting business here on Wednesday.

Visiting From Bend—

The Misses Marie and Anna Haines of Bend are visiting in Klamath Falls for a short time. They are registered among the guests at the Hotel Arcade.

Southwick's Returned Home—

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Southwick of the Klamath Fish Hatchery returned home today with their infant daughter after spending the past few days here where the child has been receiving medical attention. Mr. Southwick is superintendent of the fish hatchery.

Dance Well Attended—

The Eastern Star Social club dance held last evening at the Winter Garden proved one of the most enjoyable and most successful of the season. The Jack Bowring orchestra provided the dance music.

Visiting at O. S. C.—

Miss Ruth Cofer plans to leave tonight for O. S. C., where she will spend the week-end as the house guest of Miss Dehila Hawkins.

De Molay Quartet—

A quartet composed of Ellis Truelove, Lee Pruitt, Joe Evans and Herbert Graham has been organized in the Order of De Molay. The boys will make their first appearance at the installation on Thursday evening.

Home From California—

Miss Dorothy Dunham, popular member of the younger set of this city has returned home from a two months' visit in southern California with relatives and friends. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dunham of this city.

Idaho Visitor Here—

R. Carlson of Dover, Idaho, is in Klamath Falls today, looking over business prospects.

Bend Visitor Here—

Miss Dorothy Jarrett of Bend, is spending a few days here visiting and shopping.

Mrs. Gunn Leaving—

Mrs. G. I. Gunn plans to leave on Sunday for Willow Springs, Missouri, where she will remain indefinitely visiting with relatives and friends.

Wallace on Business—

C. J. Wallace, auditor of the Southern Pacific with headquarters in Dunsmuir is in the city today on official business.

To Visit in South—

Miss Olga M. Cardwell of 329 Washington and M. Grace H. Skinner of 629 North Third street are spending a week in San Francisco visiting friends and shopping.

Miller Returned Home—

J. J. Miller, district freight and passenger agent of The Southern Pacific is home from San Francisco, where he has been for the past several days on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Met Last Evening—

The neighbors of the Woodcraft held a most enjoyable meeting at the lodge rooms last evening. Following the regular lodge session a social hour with refreshments was enjoyed.

Motorist to Malin Today—

Mr. and Mrs. W. Paul Johnson spent the day at Malin, where Mr. Johnson transacted business. Friends of Mrs. Johnson will be interested to learn she is rapidly recovering from her long siege of illness and is able to be out each day.

Ahlstrom's to Lakeview—

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ahlstrom and daughter, Miss Fern, of this city, will leave tomorrow for Lakeview, to spend a week on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Darrow Club to Meet—

Members of the Darrow club will meet at the home of Mrs. L. V. Henry at 801 Martin street on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All members of the club are asked to attend.

For results see Herald Class Ad.

A GREAT Opportunity for

FRIDAY and SATURDAY

HOW—

No. 1

It's easy—all you need do is select any pair of hose in the house priced at $1.50 or over and you get an extra pair for one cent from a lot that will be found on an aisle table. The extra or one cent pair are first class merchandise, a well-known brand from our regular stock and are not cheap hosiery that were shipped in for the occasion. Thrifty women will select several pairs owing to the great saving it means to buy on either this Friday or Saturday.

HOSIERY SALE

Get in Line

for this

GREAT HOSE SALE

WHY—

No. 2

A sale offered just in a time that will be most appreciated—two days before Easter. Be sure to come early as the quantity is limited. You'll find all colors and sizes represented at the opening, but such an offering is sure to be taken advantage of by hundreds. Our advice is come early—take your choice and be completely satisfied. Extra sales people have been added to aid in serving you.

AN EXTRA PAIR FOR ONE CENT

These two offerings end at 8:30 o'clock Saturday night.

An Extra Pair for One Cent—Buy One and Get Two

EASTER HATS ARE FREE

FREE

THE HOW

No. 1

To the purchaser of any dress ranging in price from $12.95 to $17.50 we are giving you, free, your choice of any hat in lots 100, 200 and 300.

No. 2

To the purchaser of any dress ranging in price from $18.50 and upwards we are giving you, free, your choice of any hat in lots 400 and 500.

Be the first here in the morning to make a selection

Note—These hats are our regular stock.

FREE

THE WHY

It's your last chance to get an Easter hat absolutely free—Reduce the cost of your outfit by shopping here. Hundreds of thrifty shoppers have already taken advantage of this great offering—it's an offering that is seldom possible to make. Some of the most beautiful hats and frocks still remain for your selection—they're absolutely the newest for Spring and again we say—Hurry—come early as this great offering closes

LAST CHANCE

FRIDAY and SATURDAY

An E & W Store

"Economists in Distribution"

FUNERAL NOTICES

ALICE SHIPMAN

Mrs. Alice Shipman, wife of the late T. R. Shipman, passed away at her late residence, 425 Plum street Thursday morning at 2:45 o'clock, following an illness of one week duration. Mrs. Shipman was born at Bedford, Indiana, January 3, 1851 and aged 77 years 3 months and 2 days at the time of her demise. She was a member of the Eastern Star lodge of Craig, Neb. She leaves to mourn her passing two daughters, Mrs. Ahlenon Prell of Powell, Neb., and Mrs. Elizabeth A. Harding of this city, two sons, William R. Shipman of this city and Thomas Vernon Shipman of John Day, Ore. The remains are in the slumber room of the Earl Whitlock funeral home, Pine avenue at Sixth, where friends may call.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock at the Klamath Temple, with Rev. Guy De Vries officiating. Commitment services will be held and vault entombment made in the family plot in Linkville cemetery. The remains are in the slumber room of the Earl Whitlock funeral home, Pine avenue at Sixth, where friends may call.

AUTO INJURIES FATAL TO OLD STATE PIONEER

PORTLAND, Ore., April 5. (A.P.)—John Leader, 70, veteran of Indian wars, died yesterday at a hospital from head injuries suffered March 28 when he was struck by a car operated by Mrs. G. A. Kingsley. Mrs. Kingsley was not held.

CHARLES MACK ON NEWS STAFF COLLEGE PAPER

OREGON STATE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, April 5.—Charles Mack of Klamath Falls, sophomore in commerce, was appointed a member of the news staff on the Harbinger by Jack Foley, editor of the paper. The Harbinger is the student's daily publication at Oregon State college.

CORRECTION

A table showing bank clearings during the month of March during the past five years was inverted in order in the Herald last night. The Herald takes this means of reprinting the table so that its readers can see the remarkable strides made in business since 1924.

Following are the corrected figures:

Year	March Clearings
1928	$1,563,843.36
1927	1,347,937.25
1926	1,412,687.39
1925	1,009,256.24
1924	843,681.70

LAMB IS BORN WITH 2 HEADS

A freak lamb, having two perfectly shaped heads, four eyes, two mouths, two noses but only two ears, is on display in the main window of Connolly Brothers, on Main and Tenth, today.

The animal comes from the Davis Brothers' sheep ranch near Malin and has been mounted for display. When but 24 hours old it died.

While the monstrosity is causing much comment by pedestrians along Main street, stockmen declare it not unusual to find such freaks among large flocks of sheep.

DIARY BRINGS 10,500 POUNDS

LONDON, April 5. (A.P.)—Dr. Abraham Rosebach, of Philadelphia, paid 10,500 pounds sterling at auction for the Ward diary, dated 1629 to 1681. The diary was kept by the vicar of Stratford-on-Avon and is valuable for its reference to Shakespeare.

A Small Deposit makes your ice-box a FRIGIDAIRE

Have the Frigidaire cooling unit installed in your ice-box. Once this is done, there's no more ice to buy. Foods are kept fresh and wholesome. The health of your family is protected. Learn how a small deposit and easy terms put this equipment in your home.

Peoples Electric Store

E. H. JEFFERSON Phone 974 Klamath Falls, Ore.

PRODUCT OF GENERAL MOTORS

BON MARCHE

419 Main Street

EASTER HATS

$3.50 to $12.50

Misses Hats from

$2.75 to $5.00

Children's $1.95 to $3.00

M. E. McCormick