SEATTLE HITS BALL HARD BUT FINALLY LOSES

Ex-Dentist Shuts Out Hollywood; Homers Win for Missions

(By the Associated Press)
Tomlin kept 12 Seattle hits well scattered while his mates bunched their nine safeties at opportune moments and Portland defeated Seattle 4-2. Batteries: Tomlin and Almsmith; Teachout, Nance and Borreani, Parker.

Wayne Wright, foremost dentist of Big Stone Gap, not only shut out Hollywood with seven scattered hits, but batted a home run to help the Angels to a 5-0 win, their second straight over the Stars. Hood also hit for the circuit, his drive coming with two men on. Batteries: Fullerton and Bassler; Wright and Hannah.

Home runs by Hufft and McDaniel and seven-hit pitching by Herman Pillette sent the Seals down to a 4-0 defeat in the second game of their series with the Missions. Batteries: Pillette and Whitney; May, Mills and Sprins.

Caveney's sensational stop of French's liner in the ninth choked off a Senator rally and enabled the Oaks to make it two straight from Sacramento 4-2. French's drive came two away and the bases full and had it got past the Oak third baseman, probably would have won a Senator win. Batteries: Hasty, Gould and Lombardi; Shes and Koehler.

Cross Country Race Will End Saturday Eve

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., May 24. (AP)—Another 37 mile lap was in store for C. C. Pyle's transcontinental buion derbyists today, bringing them to Suffern, N. Y., only two days' run from the finish in Madison Square Garden. Tomorrow's lap will take them to Passaic, N. J., and Saturday will see them at the end of their long trek from Los Angeles to New York. Andy Payne, Claremore, Okla., farm boy, who is firmly entrenched in the lead increased his margin over John Salo of Passaic to 17 hours, 25 minutes, 7 seconds in yesterday's lap from Liberty, N. Y., to Middletown. Ed Gardner, Seattle negro, who holds eighth place, took the lead yesterday, finishing in 6:02:59 and gaining a firmer hold on his position.

Salo, held back by a chafed foot, came in 18th for the day in 9:27:03, nearly two hours behind Payne.

Allan Currier, Rogue River, Ore., 16:37:35, with elapsed time 763:26:35.

Hornsby Made New Pilot of Boston Braves

BOSTON, May 24. (AP)—Regers Hornsby, traded to the Boston Braves in a sensational deal early this spring, today was the manager of the team by virtue of the resignation of Jack Slatery, who stepped out after little more than a month of road management.

President Emil E. Fuchs, who, in a statement describing the change said: "We shall continue our efforts to build a fighting and winning team for Boston."

Slatery, who came to the Braves from Boston college where he was coach after a long career in big league baseball, will continue with the club in another capacity but at the same salary. His contract has a year to run.

Baseball writers said that Hornsby needed much persuasion to take over the helm and that rumors of "undermining" which had been current when he was sent here from New York had influenced him to such an extent that he told President Fuchs he would rather be traded to some other club than to seem to have forced Slatery out. Fuchs assured him that the change was inevitable.

Slatery succeeded Dave Bancroft as manager last November.

BUSHY GRAHAM ATTAINS TITLE

Early Lead of Schwartz Overcome by Battering in Last Two Rounds

NEW YORK, May 24. (AP)—Bushy Graham, flaring haired phantom from Utica, N. Y., today perched on the bantam-weight throne that had been vacant in this state since Charley (Phil) Rosenberg forfeited the 118-pound championship over a year ago.

Although he whipped Corporal Izzy Schwartz, little champion of New York flyweights in a 15-round match at Ebbets field last night to gain the crown, the honor that came of battling on even terms was not his. Instead a goodly share of the honors went to the spunky little corporal, forced to fight as a flyweight and outwitted by a margin of 6½ pounds.

Throughout the first 10 rounds Schwartz, boxing like a little major, won three rounds and held his bigger foe even in two others. But as the fight wore on, and Bushy made every use of his weight advantage, Izzy tired and fell under the grueling pace.

ATHLETICS AND YANKEES WILL OPEN UP TODAY

Connie Mack's Sluggers Pointed for New York Americans

(By the Associated Press)
After a fattening on the rest of the league for a month, the Yankees and the Athletics today begin a hand-to-hand struggle. The encounter starts with a double-header in Shibe Park. Another double meeting is on the card tomorrow and a single game on Saturday.

Connie Mack is lying in wait for the Huggins henchmen with Robert Moses Grove, Rube Walberg and Ossie Orvill, his south-paw sharpshooters, as well as the veteran John J. Rea and Eddie Rommel, who fire from the right.

The Yankees prepared themselves yesterday for the start of their sterner battle by shading the Red Sox, 2 to 1, to make it three out of four from Bill Carrigan's bristling warriors.

Philadelphia Wins.
The Athletics closed their practice session by outpointing the Senators for the fourth consecutive time. One William Shores held Washington to four hits and won 4 to 2.

A triple play featured the afternoon in Chicago as the vanishing Americans of Cleveland fell further from the running. The White Sox won their second straight—4 to 3 in 10 innings.

The Browns handed the Tigers a rude jolt, 5 to 3, but then the Tigers long ago became accustomed to jolts, rude or otherwise.

The fighting on the National League front was marked by Cincinnati's fourth straight victory out of five over the not-very-bold Pirates, 4 to 3, and the even division of a double-header between the Giants and the Robins, in Brooklyn, 4 to 3 and 4 to 0.

caught the little fellow with a volley of left and right smashes to the head that dropped Izzy in the clouds of resin dust their flashing feet had stirred. With blood streaming from his nose, his lips smashed and right ear twice the normal size, Schwartz barely managed to reach his feet at the count of nine.

Throughout the final session, only the courageous heart of the flyweight kept him erect. Bushy caught him time and again with both hands to the head. Izzy's wound's increased, but he summoned all his caginess and lasted till the final gong. He was a badly battered warrior at the close.

Just before the Florida West Coast championships at the Belvoir Country club, McDonald Smith told me about a golfer who actually made a "hole-in-one" twice during single round.

"There's a lot of hole-in-one stories going the rounds," said Mac, "but none can beat the one in which Aleck Duffy played the hero."

"Duffy came to this country from Scotland and was from Carnoustie, the birthplace of my brothers, Aleck and Willie and myself."

"When he pulled his great feat he was attached to a club at Portland, Ore. Going out for a round one afternoon with some club members, he played a hole in one. Before the 18 holes were finished he shot another one."

"A hole-in-one twice in a single round! How many men, living or dead, have accomplished a similar stunt? Not many, eh?"

With Glenna Collett playing in the British women's golf championship, the chances of an American victory in one of the foreign classics are considerably increased.

Miss Collett is without doubt a great player in any kind of great company and for this reason it is not to her discredit to guess that she will have less competition than Walter Hagen, Jim Barnes, Gene Sarazen, Bill Mehlhorn and Tommy Armour will have in the men's open.

Cecil Leitch and Joyce Wethered, the two greatest golfers in England, are not entered in the women's championship and the most formidable opponent Miss Collett will have is Miss. Simone Thion de la Chaume, the charming French girl.

Miss Collett is just out of a very successful winter season in Florida and it is only fair to assume that her chances for victory would be even, perhaps, if the two great British stars were in the tournament.

Miss Wethered is universally recognized as the greatest woman player in the world, a flegion of

HUNTER, BROOKS BADLY BEATEN

AUTRELL, France, May 24. (A. P.)—Ronald Boyd and W. E. Robson, Argentina, defeated the American-Australian team of Francis T. Hunter and Norman W. Brooks in the international hard court tennis champions today, 6-4, 6-3, 6-5, 6-1. Hunter and Boyd dextranged terrific drives across the net, while Robson and Brooks provided excellent finesse at lobbing.

Dempsey outsmarted Kearns, but it took a game man to do it. Those familiar with the inside of the case know that Kearns wanted a settlement and thought his threat of "exposures" would force Rickard to settle. But Dempsey's wife wouldn't stand for a settlement and Dempsey had some exposures to throw back. No real dirt was thrown, if there was any to be thrown, and Dempsey's case was won when his lawyers won the argument for a jury trial. Try and swing that Dempsey for anything in a jury trial.

Last American Eliminated in Golf Tourney

PRESTWICK, Scotland, May 24. (AP)—Douglas Grant, sole surviving American in the British amateur golf championship, was eliminated today by A. B. MacCallum, young Scottish physician of Wolverhampton, two up. The American amateur, who is a resident of England, and MacCallum were all square at the turn and the play was close throughout. Then at the 17th, MacCallum holed a chip to go one up.

With the match hanging on the last hole, Grant's putt knocked MacCallum's ball which was sitting on the edge of the cup into the hole, giving the Scotchman a birdie and the match.
