SAN FRANCISCO JUST SHORT ON RALLY IN NINTH

Portland Noses Out Victor, 6 to 5; Stars Drop Senators, 6 to 1

(By the Associated Press)

Portland pounded Elmer Jacobs hard for five innings, and added another run off May in the sixth, giving them the necessary margin with which to stave off the Seals' ninth inning rally which fell one run short. The score was 6-5, Bert Cole receiving credit for the victory. Batteries, Jacobs, May, Ferguson and Sprinz, Vargas; Cole, Tomlin and Ainsmith.

Gordon Rhodes had the Senators well tamed, limiting them to six hits as the Stars again dropped them for a loss, 6-1. The losers contributed four errors to help swell the Stars' run total. Batteries: Kallio, Singleton and Koehler; Rhodes and Bassler.

Seattle Nicks Angels.

Splendid relief work by Clyde Nance, who stepped in to blank Los Angeles from the third to the tenth, enabled Seattle to nose out the Angels in extra frames, 5-4. Cunningham and Plitt allowed the Indians but six hits, but they came at opportune moments. Batteries: Cunningham, Plitt and Hannah; Bryan, Nance and Parker.

Despite the fact that Bill Hughes whiffed nine Oaks in six innings, the champions had no trouble bunching hits off him in several frames annd the Bells bowed once more to the Oaks, 7-5. Boehler on the hill for the winners, disposed of seven Bells on strikes. Batteries: Boehler and Lombardi; Hughes, Martin, Nelson and Baldwin.

Cross Country Racers to Be Paid Tonight

NEW YORK, June 1. (AP)—C. C. Pyle, who will promote most anything, gives New York something new tonight—a 26-hour team running race with some of his transcontinental foot racers as the competitors.

The race is scheduled to start at Madison Square Garden at 9 p. m. and close at 11 o'clock Saturday night. The make-up of the teams has not been announced but Pyle says some of those who finished well up in the standings on the cross country grind will be entered.

The promoter, incidentally, reiterates that Andrew Payne, of Claremore, Okla., and the other nine runners in the money on the Los Angeles to New York jaunt will receive their share of the $48,500 prize money at 8 o'clock tonight.

Team's Spirit Revived; Fast Practice Held

The spirit of the horsehide has been revived in Klamath Falls and the national game of baseball is not to be shut out in this city. This was assured Wednesday night when an enthusiastic meeting was held in the chamber of commerce rooms and the Pelican baseball squad completely reorganized.

Under the new officials, who were elected Wednesday night, the outlook is good for a winning team this season. Klamath Falls has some wonderful material to build up a fast team, and many ball players who have not been seen in uniform this year have expressed their willingness to play under the management of the new officers.

The Pelican squad turned out en masse last night for practice and worked out for two hours, most of this time being spent in hitting practice. The team will practice every evening for the remainder of the week.

The Pelicans will meet Dunsmuir here Sunday in the third game of the Oregon-California league.

SHE MISSED HER BOYS.

LEBANON, Ky., June 1.—Mrs. Mary Hundley hadn't seen her nine sons for nearly 30 years. She became seriously ill recently and the "boys" were notified. They rushed to her bedside, several coming from distant cities. Her illness immediately had a turn for the better and doctors promised she would regain her health.

Ruth Sets Goal for Home Runs At 63 for Year

By AL DEMAREE
(Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)

"You're going to do a lot of walking today, Al," said Babe Ruth one morning this spring at the Yankees' camp. "We're going to play a golf hole today for every home run I hope and expect to hit this year."

When we finally staggered into the club house we had played 63 holes of golf.

"That's the goal I'll set for myself this year," said Babe, "although of course I'll naturally be satisfied with 61 homers, just enough to break my record."

Although he was stiff and sore from exploring the rough and sand traps of 63 holes, the Babe was in great spirits afterwards and sang Irish songs all the way into the hotel.

"You know, Al," he explained, "my mother was Irish and I always loved Irish songs. My biggest regret in life has been the fact that she died before I began to make big money and is not alive today to share in my present prosperity."

PIRATES STOP LOSING STREAK

Yankees Continue Monotonous Winning Streak; Babe Ruth Gets 19th

(By the Associated Press)

The Pittsburgh Pirates, national league champions last year, have checked their losing streak at least temporarily.

With their infield still a makeshift affair, the Foundering Corsairs, harrassed at every turn, pulled themselves together at Forbes field yesterday and nosed out the St. Louis Cards 4 to 3. That victory checked the Pirates run of defeats at six in a row and sent the Cards to fourth place in the standings.

Gorge Sisler hit his first National league home run as the Braves made it four in a row from the downtrodden Phillies, 9 to 4. All told, Sisler contributed three of the Braves' 13 hits off three Phil hurlers.

The news along the American league front was much as usual. The New York Yanks played with four utility men in the lineup but shut out the Washington Senators anyway, 4 to 0, Babe Ruth getting his 19th homer of the season.

Cleveland took its third straight beating from the oncoming Detroit Tigers 9 to 4. Shaute and Buckeye were pounded for sixteen hits while Gibson pitched effectively for the Tigers.

The St. Louis Browns and Chicago White Sox ended all square in their double header at St. Louis. The Sox galloping away with an easy 7 to 2 victory in the first.

In the night cap, Schulte's home run in the tenth gave the Browns an even break on the day 2 to 1.

AN EXPENSIVE KISS.

CINCINNATI, June 1.—A barber of this city has found that some stolen kisses are very expensive. Miss Beulah Bentler, manicurist in the shop of Charles H. Leggett, has filed suit for $5,000 charging her employer with having kissed her without consent. He pulled her head back, she says, as he would a customer who wanted a shave, and planted a kiss smack on her lips.

ODDS ON CHAMP THREE TO ONE

Tommy Loughran and Pete Latzo Will Clash in 15 Round Bout

NEW YORK, June 1. (AP)—Weather permitting, Tommy Loughran will put his light heavyweight crown on his head at Ebbets field tonight and let Pete Latzo, Scranton coal miner, try to knock it off in 15 rounds. The battle originally was scheduled for Wednesday but rain knocked those plans into a cocked hat.

Forced to weigh in again today, Loughran and Latzo went back to their training stunts yesterday in an effort to keep down to the class limit of 175 pounds. Loughran worked out at a local gymnasium while the challenger took on a couple of sparring partners at his camp in Pompton Lakes, N. J.

The champion barely made the limit at the first weighing in Wednesday afternoon, just scaling 175 pounds. Latzo weighed 169½.

HOOKS AND SLIDES

Passing Out the 'Okays.

Charley Paddock is O. K. with the members of which believed apparently that for acting the star role in "The Olympic Hero," a movie, and going around the circuit making personal appearances with the reel, he is getting no money. And isn't thinking of getting any serious wage for his services.

So, in a manner satisfactory to the American committee, at least, another of those pesky amateur problems has been disposed of and Paddock can be certified to the officials at Amsterdam as an O. K. young man.

It remains to be seen if those European guardians of "clean sport will accept as satisfactory the disposition of the Paddock case made by the home folks. But, don't worry, he will get their O. K.

* * *

Want Their "Pad-dock."

Even where the sanctityt of amateurism is at stake there is the angle of gate receipts that must be considered and "Charlot Paddock" is one of the very best cards in Europe. They will want their "Charlot" fans in Amsterdam.

The commercial value to European meets of having big American names to advertise was realized as long back as 1920 when the International Olympic Committee besought the American committee in real prayers to send Ted Meredith over with the team.

* * *

Want Ted and Rugby, Too.

Ted, of course, was willing to go with the team but he knew he couldn't run in fast company any more, but he went through the motions of running and everyone seemed to be satisfied.

The rugby matches of the 1924 games in Paris were about to be a complete flop when the French officials cabled to the United States demanding the the Americans send over a team to put some life into the competition.

They refused to take no for an answer even when the American officials pointed out that rugby was no longer played in this country and there was no such thing as a rugby team available.

The committee finally got a bunch of former Stanford boys together on the coast and sent them to Paris—and they won the title. The interest that they put in the competition also returned a profit on what would have been a big losing promotion.

* * *

What, No Beer!

Already in their promotion of the 1928 games the Dutch committee has shown itself shortsighted in some of the nice little details that were handled so ably by the French in 1924.

The recent official opening of the games in Amsterdam was a social and artistic flop. Sixteen thousand visitors had assembled for the official opening ceremonies, but less than 3,000 remained to witness them.

The committee had failed to provide service at the bars in the stadium and the thirsty customers left by the thousands and flooded all the nearby beer gardens.

There may be no need for Americans to be alarmed. Such service certainly will be available when the U. S. contingent arrives. In fact maybe they're saving supplies now.

It was too much for Jim Jeffries. He lost 30 pounds just in rehearsing for "Davy Crockett" and finally the big words scored a technical knockout.
