It Lifts Your Spirit

By Edna Wallace Hopper

The vigor of a March wind carries you along with a light heart. Spring is approaching and the world seems gay and hopeful.

It's great for your spirit but hard on your skin. Every quiver of wind ruthlessly plants tiny particles of dust in your pores, taxes the naturally smooth texture. Your most precious skin is constantly exposed to these harsh effects.

But you can erase the threads upon beauty with a little care and the right help, which 4 spent years to find.

I call this help my Facial Youth. It is a liquid cleanser which soothes the skin and actually removes the dust and grime which are so destructive. Soap and water merely cleanse the surface, and have a coarsening effect.

Facial Youth does not grow hair. It has a clean, fresh odor. It's a pleasure to use this gently soothing cleanser. I know of nothing which does more to retain youthful firm smoothness of face.

May I urge you, for beauty's sake, to buy a bottle of this toilet counter? The price is 75 cents. Your money back if you are not satisfied.

Reporter to Manager in Half Decade

By NEA Service

CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 1.—

He was a cub reporter on the Press here five years ago. Today, at the age of 26, he is general manager of the Ohio Terminal Co., president of the Cuyahoga Cold Storage Co., and secretary of the Merchants' Terminal Co.

He is Albert I. Cornsweet, who wound up his newspaper work as political editor of the newspaper which gave him his start in 1923. Soon after he got his chance as a news gatherer his ability was recognized and he was promoted to take charge of news emanating from city hall. Then he was appointed assistant city editor, followed some months ago by the political editorship.

The company of which Cornsweet is now the directing head has six buildings abutting on the New York Central railroad. Appraisal for a recent bond issue placed a value of $2,148,749 on the property.

"I'm tackling another big assignment," said the youthful business chief as he closed his desk and with it a promising newspaper career.

MAYOR HAS TOUGH JOB.

NOTTINGHAM, Eng., June 1.—

The mayor of this commonwealth has issued a general appeal for help. Two letters asking aid in finding suitable wives are the cause. One from Western Australia stipulates only that she must be born and bred in Nottingham. The other from Lancashire, written by a widower, specifies the prospective bride must be less than 35, and promises that he is not a man "who rambles from home nor one who would keep a woman tied up like a dog in a kennel."

GIRL DEPT'S DADS' DIGNITY AS JUDGE

By NEA Service

CLEVELAND, June 1.—

A temporary injunction was issued the other day by Common Pleas Judge Frederick P. Walther, barring his daughter, Marcia, 3, from his courtroom. It came as a result of the young lady's total disregard of his father's dignity.

Mrs. Walther had entered the courtroom with her mother, Judge's private office. Quick to take advantage of the unusual liberty, Marcia proceeded to make life pleasant for everyone in the room but her father. She jumped on juror's laps, played hide and seek and otherwise interrupted the course of justice. When a recess was announced from the bench, Marcia was taken in custody, charged with contempt of court and sentenced to go to bed two hours earlier than usual.
