

NEWS IN BRIEF

Left for Canada—

Dr. and Mrs. W. Eld of eastern Canada left late Sunday afternoon on their homeward journey after visiting in the United States for the past several weeks. While in Klamath Falls they were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. Dietzsch. They returned Saturday from a trip into California and were very much impressed with San Francisco. "Klamath Falls is the most thriving small city we have had occasion to visit on our entire trip," Dr. Eld commented before leaving with Mrs. Eld on Sunday afternoon. At Bend where they stopped last night they were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Woerner.

Returned to Idaho—

N. B. Houston and son Marvin have returned to their home at Napa, Idaho, after visiting for the past several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Newton of the Klamath Falls & Mattress company. Mr. Houston was very much impressed with Klamath Falls and the surrounding country and declared himself almost ready to return here to make his future home. The father and son are making the trip via motor.

Passes Examination—

Word was received here yesterday that Nick Robinson has been licensed by the state board of examiners as an embalmer. Mr. Robinson has been in Portland for the past two weeks taking the examinations for his license. For the past six years Mr. Robinson has been employed in the A. J. Owsley furniture store and funeral parlors. He will continue in his position with Mr. Owsley, according to present plans. —Lakeview Examiner.

Met Family Here—

C. J. Sweasey, manager of the Lakeview Creamery met his wife and children in Klamath Falls and has returned to Lakeview where they will reside permanently. Mrs. Sweasey and children have just arrived from Chicago where they made their home. Mr. Sweasey has been in charge of the Lakeview Creamery for the past two months.

Langworthys Left—

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Langworthy left on Sunday for a vacation trip to Portland and other northern points. They made the trip via motor. Mr. Langworthy is advertising manager for the K. Sugarman store. They will attend the rose festival in Portland.

To Open Store at Lakeview—

John Brady of Klamath Falls, brother of Mrs. N. A. Nicholas and Mrs. Virgil Paxton was an arrival in Lakeview Thursday to make preparations for the opening of a new clothing store in this city.—Lake County Examiner.

Returned to Lakeview—

Dolly Givan, manager of the Lakeview office of the Lakeview-Klamath Falls stage line has returned home after a business trip to Oakland, Calif.

Mrs. Whitlock North—

Mrs. Amelia Whitlock left on Sunday for Portland, where she will visit for some time and enjoy the rose festival.

Convention at Roseburg—

The state department convention of the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War will be held in Roseburg June 27, 28 and 29. Mrs. Ollie V. Williams of Portland, department president, will preside. Special interest attaches to the visit of the national president, Mrs. Ada M. Glasgow of Grand Rapids, Mich., who will attend. About thirty-five delegates will represent the three Portland tents. Betsy Ross No. 1, Dolly Madison No. 6, and Mary Logan No. 8.—The Oregonian.

Called to Idaho—

Mrs. C. A. Litzberger and Mrs. Carl Wimmer, sisters, were called to Lewiston, Idaho, last evening upon receiving word that their brother had been fatally injured in an automobile accident. A late message from their father, C. Strong, before their departure last night, stated no hopes were held for his recovery. Mrs. Litzberger and Mrs. Wimmer were accompanied by their daughters, Patricia Ann and Jean.

Entertained in Medford—

Rev. and Mrs. V. K. Allison and daughter, Rosemary, of Klamath Falls, are visiting in Ashland, where they were entertained Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wallace on Mountain avenue. Rev. Allison, who was formerly pastor of the local Christian church, is now pastor of the church in Klamath Falls. They expect to leave soon for Los Angeles, where he will attend a convention.—Ashland Tidings.

Returned From Diamond Lake—

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Schuppel, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Olson and Mr. and Mrs. Will Long returned home last evening from Diamond Lake, where they spent the weekend. The party encountered lots of snow and rain but report the roads in splendid condition. They had splendid luck fishing, bringing home a good mess. Diamond Lake was white with snow early Sunday morning but before noon was melted off.

Bored Left on Trip—

Rex Nord, prominent sheep man of Klamath county, has left on an extended trip through the east and south where he will look after business interests and enjoy the principal cities. Mr. Nord plans to sail for Europe late this month and spend at least three months abroad. His old home is in England and he will visit there for some time with relatives and friends.

Leaving for East—

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Steinmetz are planning to leave within a few days for Kansas City, Missouri, and other eastern points where they will visit with relatives and friends for several weeks. At Kansas City they will visit with Mrs. Steinmetz' parents.

Mrs. Winters Returning—

Friends of Mrs. H. J. Winters will be pleased to learn she is planning on returning home from Sacramento the last of this week. She is recovering from a major operation and her friends will be pleased to learn she is showing steady improvement.

Returned Sunday Night—

Miss Helen Abbey returned home Sunday evening via motor from Eugene, where she has been attending college and will enjoy the summer months here with her parents and many friends.

To Attend Graduation—

Several families from Klamath Falls are planning to motor to Ashland tomorrow to attend the graduation exercises at Ashland normal. Several Klamath Falls girls will be represented in the graduating class.

Enroute to Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reynolds of Lakeview were brief visitors in the city over the week-end enroute to Portland to attend the Oregon state bankers convention at the Gearheart. Mr. Reynolds is a banker of Lakeview.

Miss Phinney at Moe's—

Miss Mae Phinney, teacher in the city schools is in charge of the hosiery department at Moe's during the absence of Mrs. Lou Langworthy who left Sunday for Portland on a two weeks' vacation.

Ellis Back on Job—

Otto P. Ellis, Associated Press operator of The Evening Herald resumed his duties this morning after a week's vacation which he spent fishing in Klamath Falls streams and playing baseball.

Enjoy Lake o' the Woods—

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Carter of Ashland are enjoying the month of June at the Chatin cottage at Lake o' the Woods.

Left for Warrenton—

Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Heilbrunner, accompanied by Mrs. Heilbrunner's sister, Miss Josephine Farris, left today via motor for Warrenton, Oregon, located near Fort Stevens, where they will spend the coming two weeks. Mr. Heilbrunner will enter training at Fort Stevens as a member of Battery D of the 249th Field Artillery of this city. Miss Farris is employed with The Evening Herald and the Klamath News and is enjoying her annual vacation.

Leaving for Ashland—

Postmaster and Mrs. John A. McCall with their daughter, Miss Jean, plan to leave tomorrow morning for Ashland to attend the graduation exercises of Ashland Normal. Miss Hillis McCall, daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. McCall, will graduate from the normal school on Tuesday evening and this coming year will teach at Midland.

Business Women to Meet—

Members of the Business and Professional Woman's club will meet tonight at the library club for a regular session. The picnic previously planned has been postponed because of the cool weather until a later date, according to Mrs. John Glover, president.

Mrs. Brearcliffe to Attend—

Mrs. Bess Brearcliffe of The Betty Jane Shop expects to leave Tuesday morning for Ashland to attend the graduation exercises at the Ashland normal. Miss Nadeene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brearcliffe will graduate with the class tomorrow evening.

Left for Junction City—

Mrs. H. J. Hackett and daughter, Miss Patsy Lou, accompanied by Miss Lulu Foster, left today for Junction City, Oregon, where they plan to spend the greater part of the summer months with relatives and friends.

Left Sunday Morning—

Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. May, with their daughter, Miss Winifred, and son George, left Sunday morning for the north on a two week's vacation. Despite the heavy rains, they left the city early Sunday morning.

Left Sunday Morning—

Miss Beatrice Phinney and Miss Ella Willis left over the Southern Pacific on Sunday morning for Bellingham, Wash., where they will spend the greater part of the summer visiting relatives and friends.

Worden in City—

Will Worden, right of way man for the Southern Pacific, is a business visitor in the city from his headquarters in Portland. Mr. Worden formerly made his home in Klamath Falls.

Here from Los Angeles—

Leonard G. Ryerson and Norman R. Ryerson, both of Los Angeles, are enjoying a few days outing in the Klamath country. They arrived here via motor on Saturday.

Visiting Daughter—

Mrs. George Humphrey is enjoying a few days visit in Portland with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keller of the northern metropolis.

Motored to Lake o' the Woods—

Despite the rain and cold of Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hamilton, Mrs. Ida Hamilton and H. J. Winters enjoyed an outing at Lake o' the Woods.

Griffith Back at Work—

R. L. Griffith, assistant postmaster, resumed his duties this morning after having enjoyed the remaining days of his annual vacation with his family.

Visiting in Klamath Falls—

Miss Edith Brown of Lakeview is enjoying a fortnight's visit in Klamath Falls with friends.

Charles Johnston Home—

Charles Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnston, is home from the University of Washington for the summer months.

Klamath Has Largest Delegation—

The Klamath delegation of boys and girls arriving in Corvallis on Sunday to attend summer school was the largest registered in the northern city from various parts of the state. A delegation of 83 was registered from Klamath county, according to J. J. Miller, district freight and passenger agent who accompanied the delegation north, acting as one of the caretakers.

Going to Medford Thursday—

At least 30 members of the Order of De Molay of Klamath Falls are planning to leave here Thursday afternoon for Medford where they will exemplify the De Molay degree on Thursday evening. Following the lodge session the Klamath Falls boys will be honored with a banquet and dancing party. At the present time the Klamath Falls chapter has a membership of 73.

Miss Glabb To Visit Here—

Friends of Miss Ethel Glabb, popular Klamath Falls girl who is in training at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland will be interested to learn she plans to visit the month of July in Klamath Falls with her mother, Mrs. Emma Cole and her sister, Miss Elizabeth. Miss Glabb entered training last September.

Miss Taylor Returned—

Miss Mary Taylor has returned to her home at Merrill from Hill, California, where she has spent the winter months teaching. Until the middle of July, Miss Taylor will visit with relatives and friends at Merrill, later going to Alaska to spend the remainder of the summer visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Calmus Have Son—

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Calmus of 821 Owen street announce the birth of a baby boy this morning. The child has been named Richard Anthony and is the third child born to Mr. and Mrs. Calmus. At the time of his birth "Richard Anthony" weighed nine pounds.

Himes and Edwards Here—

L. Himes and S. Edwards of the film department of the Southern Pacific arrived here this morning from Dunsmuir and expect to remain here until Tuesday taking scenes of various spots throughout Klamath county.

Miller Returned This Morning—

J. J. Miller, district freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific returned home this morning from Corvallis where he accompanied the Klamath county boys and girls who left to attend summer school.

Visiting From Los Angeles—

Donald C. Davis of Los Angeles, California, is enjoying a few days visit in the Klamath country. Mr. Davis is traveling via motor and expects to visit north before returning home.

From Long Beach—

J. A. Brooks of Long Beach, California, arrived in the city this morning from the south to spend several days here enroute north on a motor trip.

Rinehart Going South—

H. A. Rinehart plans to leave this evening for Oakland following a brief business visit in the city today.

Visiting From Hollywood—

Jean R. Collins of 7021 Hollywood Boulevard, Hollywood, California, is visiting for a few days in Klamath Falls enroute north.

No Forums—

Throughout the summer months the Klamath Falls chamber of commerce will not hold forum luncheons on Wednesday, according to announcement made today.

Mammy's Open Door Chicken Shack—

People of Klamath Falls will be interested to learn "Mammy's Open Door Chicken Shack" has opened on the Crater Lake Highway just five miles north of Fort Klamath. H. P. Pfeiffer, manager, recently took the place over which already is meeting with success. People from Klamath Falls are seeking out the popular spot and during the past week a number of dinner parties were enjoyed at the shack. Dancing and music can be enjoyed by the guests. Mr. Pfeiffer is improving the ranch by putting in a garden and is raising his own chickens.

Stinger Arriving Tomorrow—

C. W. Stinger, assistant general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific of Portland will arrive in Klamath Falls tomorrow for a brief business visit.

De Molay Degree Team Tonight—

Members of the De Molay Degree team are asked to be present at Masonic Temple this evening at 7:30 o'clock for rehearsal.

Mrs. Cheyne Improving—

Although no visitors are as yet allowed to visit the sick room of Mrs. Robert Cheyne of the Spring Lake district who is confined to the Klamath General hospital, her condition is showing steady improvement. Mrs. Cheyne submitted to a critical major operation last week.

Visiting in Ashland—

Miss Mary Ann Adams, who has been teaching in Klamath Falls, is spending a few days in Ashland with friends. Miss Adams is very well known here, having formerly taught in the Ashland grade schools.

Returned From Trip—

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fryrear with their daughters, Mrs. Max Brotherton and Miss Dorothy Fryrear, returned today from Crescent City, California, where they enjoyed a week's vacation.

Elks' Summer Session—

The last initiation was held by the Klamath Falls Elks on Thursday evening, June seventh, after which the lodge entered the summer session, with meetings to be held once a month. A class of five candidates will be initiated and will be the second initiation for the new officers. During the summer months drilling will take place to perfect the initiatory work for the Astoria convention which will be held August 30 and 31 and September first. The Klamath Falls lodge has been asked by the Astoria lodge to put on a the initiatory work when officers and members from all the lodges of the state will be present.

Mrs. Kelley Still Improving—

The condition of Mrs. C. C. Kelley continues to show steady improvement and callers are allowed to visit her sick room during visiting hours at the Klamath General hospital where she is a patient.

Bobbie Flannery Improves—

Bobbie Flannery, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wood, who is a patient at the Klamath General hospital, is recovering from serious and painful burns about his little body encountered when he slipped and fell into the boiling water of an open hot springs two weeks ago.

Mrs. Shank Visited Here—
Mrs. Myra Shank, city police matron of Salem, was a week-end house guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. M. McBride of Pacific Terrace. Mrs. Shank has been visiting the past two weeks in Oakland and Los Angeles and was enroute home to Salem.

HERALD CLASSIFIED ADS BRING RESULTS

The Best Dentistry Done Painlessly

By improved methods I am able to do more careful, satisfactory work. My charges are exceptionally low for high class dentistry.

Have Your Teeth Examined Regularly

No need to delay any longer. Come and be convinced that you get a dental service second to none in quality at prices that are lowest for first-class work.

PORTLAND PAINLESS DENTISTS

Corner 11th and Main Sts.

PHONE 94

ELECTRO-COAGULATION

The modern way of removing tonsils and hemorrhoids without pain or bloodshed.

DR. C. R. LUCAS

Competent Chiropractor

Electro-Therapy Specialist

Klamath Falls' oldest Chiropractor.

Phone 420-W.

For—

Piano Moving

Hauling

Crating

Storing

CALL YOUNG TRANSFER COMPANY

Phone 1097, 119 So. 4th St.

$10,000.00

Travel and Pedestrian Accident Insurance Policy

PRESENT SUBSCRIBERS—Fill out the coupon on this page and mail it with the price of the policy ($1.00) to The Evening Herald.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS—May take advantage of any of the travel accident policies by filling out the coupon below and mailing with the price of the policy to The Evening Herald. It is understood that new subscribers will continue to take the Herald during the term of policy, paying the carrier or agent at the regular rate of 65c per month.

MEMBERS OF FAMILY—If the Herald is delivered to a home other members may take out a policy on the same subscription. Additional policies in the same home may be had at the regular quoted price of the policy.

INSURE TODAY

Policy No.	The Evening Herald	Route
KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON Circulation Department PHONE 88
City	Date
Begin Delivery I, the undersigned, do hereby subscribe to The Evening Herald for one year from date for which I agree to pay your authorized carrier or agent the regular subscription price of sixty-five cents per month in advance. In consideration of this subscription contract it is understood that I am to receive a $10,000 Travel and Pedestrian Insurance Policy in the Continental Life Insurance Company. I understand that the dollar I have paid solicitor (receipt for which is hereby acknowledged) is an extra fee for issuing, entering and mailing the policy and is in addition to the subscription price of The Evening Herald. I understand this to be a valid contract and that I cannot expect to accrue full benefit from the above mentioned insurance unless I continue to accept and pay for the Evening Herald for one year from date as therein agreed. If I should move during the life of this contract I will notify you promptly of any change in my address.
Phone No.	Signature	(Give full name)
Send Paper to
Occupation	Age

No medical examination—no red tape. Every person between the ages of 15 and 60 years can obtain this protection and should have it. The man who works for a living and shoulders the responsibilities of supporting a wife, family or home can not overlook this opportunity. These tidy sums may prove a necessity to you before another day passes.

Call Or Write
INSURANCE DEPARTMENT

The Evening Herald

P. O. BOX 878

KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

PINE TREE

THEATRE

LAST SHOWING TODAY

The Leap Year Special!

CLARA BOW

IN

"Get Your Man"

with CHARLES ROGERS

On the same program—

HARRY LANGDON in

"There He Goes"

Coming

Tuesday and Wednesday

VAUDEVILLE

At The

LIBERTY

THEATRE

LAST SHOWING TODAY

HAROLD LLOYD

IN

"Grandma's Boy"

A Mile long—and a laugh every foot of the way.

Coming

Tuesday and Wednesday

BIG DOUBLE BILL

at Regular Prices

'SLAVES OF BEAUTY'

and

'SIMPLE SIS'

Auto

Freight

Lines—

Medford-Klamath

Falls Truck Line

and

Klamath-Lakeview

Truck Line

Daily Service

Phone 999

615 Main

SOUTHERN

OREGON

STAGES—

To All Points North,

South, East and West

For Reliable and

Cheap Transportation

Phone

999

TERMINAL

STAGE

DEPOT

615 Main St.