LEWIS DEFENDS MARATHON RACE WORLD'S TITLE STARTS TODAY

Strangler Pins Youthful Challenger to Mat Twice

LOS ANGELES, June 14. (AP)—Ed "Strangler" Lewis successfully defended his world's heavyweight wrestling championship against the youthful challenge of Nick Lutze of Chicago here last night for the second time when he twice pinned his opponent's shoulders to the mat in a finish bout.

The champion annexed a fall after 42 minutes and 12 seconds of grappling, pinning his opponent to the mat with a series of his famous headlock holds. Then Lutze won one, using his jack-knife scissors to good advantage after 11 minutes and 10 seconds. Lutze appeared headed towards victory when he picked up his much heavier opponent and tossed him out of the ring. Lewis came back, however, to apply a string of six headlocks for the third and deciding fall in 27 minutes and 12 seconds.

Howard Cantonwine defeated John "Firro" Wilcox in 19 minutes and 11 seconds.

Bull Montana, the wrestler actor, and Al Baffert of Los Angeles went 15 minutes to a draw in the opener.

29 Indian Runners Enter San Francisco-Grants Pass Race

SAN FRANCISCO, June 14. (A. P.)—Speeded on their way by cheering thousands, 29 Indian runners started from the city hall at 10:20 o'clock this morning on the 428-mile Redwood highway Indian marathon to Grants Pass, Ore.

Jogging down Market street, lined with spectators and in the rear of an automobile caravan, the long distancers passed the financial district and out to the bay where a special ferry carried them across to Sausalito, where the grind up the northern California coast actually begins.

Frank B. Havenner, city supervisor and acting mayor, fired the pistol that started the squad of aborigines on their way. As they lined up, Mad Bull, Karook sponsored by the Oregon Cavesmen of Grants Pass, was favored to repeat his victory of last year.
