

NEWS IN BRIEF

Returned to Richmond—

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Dryden and Miss Dorothy Dryden have returned to their home in Richmond, California, after a brief visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Moore of the Hotel Baldwin. Mrs. Dryden, nee Venice Moore, a former Klamath Falls girl, has hosts of friends in this city.

To Attend Summer School—

Miss Joyce Bennett has left for Ashland, where she will attend summer session of school at the Southern Oregon Normal. Miss Bennett is the daughter of Mrs. Ebba Bennett, principal of Fairview school.

Here From Prospect—

F. M. O'Connell and Dan O'Connell of Prospect are business visitors in Klamath Falls today.

DINE TREE

HAROLD LLOYD

In his latest and funniest production—

"Speedy"

There's a laugh in every bump, and a thrill in every rattle.

BIG SPECIAL DOUBLE BILL SATURDAY at REGULAR PRICES

LIBERTY THEATRE

The Little Whirlwind BUZZ BARTON

"The Fightin' Redhead" The cowboy kid again to the rescue in a thrilling Western.

RAY Electric-Automatic OIL BURNERS

Reliable, Economical Guaranteed

Western manager will be here this week and will be pleased to call upon you.

Please phone us for date and arrange to modernize your heating plant.

Adaptable to steam, hot-water or warm air furnaces.

Peyton & Co. "Wood to Burn" 126 S. 7th, Phone 535

Message by Air Mail—

As Mrs. E. Dietzsch, wife of Dr. Dietzsch of this city, with her daughter, Waltraud, sailed for her home in Germany, where she will spend the summer months with relatives and friends she was greeted with an air mail message and flowers from her husband sent through the Hill Flower Shop of this city. On several occasions Harry Hill of the Hill Flower Shop has used the air mail service for such farewell gifts and has been fortunate in each instance in reaching the parties before their departure.

Motored to Rocky Point—

Mr. and Mrs. John Collier and three sons, of Hill Valley, California, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. Graves of New York City, guests at the Hotel Arcade, left this morning for Rocky Point and Klamath Agency where they will spend the day. Mr. Collier and Mr. Graves will transact business. The party arrived from Redding, California, on Wednesday afternoon.

Walking Home From Chiloquin—

Two Eugene boys, broke and headed back home from Chiloquin, stole Roy Parr's spare tire in Ashland on Wednesday. The game warden apprehended the boys, got his tire back, but did not press the charges, after hearing their hard luck story and their promises to leave other people's property alone in the future. —Medford News.

Miss McCall Seriously Ill—

Friends of Miss Hillis McCall, daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. John A. McCall will be sorry to learn she has suffered a relapse and is reported quite ill at the family home. Miss McCall has been suffering from an acute attack of tonsillitis and mumps.

Duffy Here on Business—

E. D. Duffy of the D and R. G. railroad with headquarters in San Francisco, is among the business visitors in Klamath Falls today. Mr. Duffy has been coming to Klamath Falls for many years and is well known to business men of this community.

Druce From Portland—

Louis Druce, representative of the Grand Trunk with headquarters in Portland, is spending the day in Klamath Falls in the interests of his company. Mr. Druce expects to leave for the north tonight.

Butler From Dunsmuir—

B. L. Butler, connected with the plumbing department of the Southern Pacific company with headquarters in Dunsmuir, is in the city for a few days on business. Mr. Butler is a guest at the Hotel Arcade while here.

Mrs. Murphy Returning—

Mrs. C. F. Murphy and son, Brooks, are expected home within a few days from Cle Elum, Washington, the old home, where they have been visiting with relatives and friends for some time. They are making the trip by motor. Several friends of the family are returning here to visit at the Murphy home for a fortnight.

Married in Klamath—

Miss Mary McKendree, who until early this month was employed as a reporter on The Tribune, was married at Klamath Falls to Jack McCarlie, well known sheep operator of the Bly section. After a short wedding trip they will live at the McCarlie ranch home near Bly. —Lake County Tribune.

Bad Checks Passed—

Bad check artists have passed numerous worthless checks on Lakeview business houses during the past two weeks, and banks as well as the peace authorities urge that business houses generally insist upon proper identification before cashing checks for strangers. —Lake County Tribune.

From San Francisco—

J. Y. Lamberts of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad with headquarters in San Francisco, is among the business callers here today. Mr. Lamberts expects to return south tomorrow.

Nease From Portland—

George H. Nease, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Santa Fe railroad is in Chiloquin today on business. Mr. Nease expects to leave for his northern headquarters tomorrow.

Ray Dunn Here—

F. Ray Dunn, formerly manager of the telephone company in this city, and now holding a responsible position with the company in Seattle is here for a brief business and pleasure trip.

Attending Sacred Heart Academy

Miss Helen Buck and Miss Mildred Tracey of Drews Valley are guests in Klamath Falls for two weeks while attending summer school at Sacred Heart Academy.

Visiting From Sprague River—

Frank Reynolds, Jr. of Sprague River is a business visitor in Klamath Falls today. While here Mr. Reynolds is a guest at the hotel Arcade.

Left for California—

Jimmy Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Camps of Crescent avenue, has left for Chico, California, where he expects to spend the summer months.

Schaal On Fishing Trip—

Charles Schaal of Connolly Brothers left early this morning with a party of friends for Diamond Lake to spend the day fishing.

From Dunsmuir—

J. Martin transacted business in Klamath Falls on Wednesday from his headquarters in Dunsmuir.

Novelist Taking Trip—

Edison Marshall, well known Scottish man and short story writer of note, who on several occasions has visited in Klamath Falls with friends, is planning a North Pole trip with a government expedition. It is expected that Mr. Marshall will start his trip within the near future. Just recently the author purchased a beautiful home at Palmista Lodge at Augusta, Georgia, one of the most picturesque spots of the south land where he and his family will reside following the northern trip. For some months the family have been residing in South Carolina.

Ahlistrom Buys Property—

Purchase of the large home of Dr. H. E. Kelly in North Lakeview together with the motor apartments and other improvements on the property was completed Tuesday by E. C. Ahlistrom who has already taken charge of the property. Construction will be begun at once by the new owner of four additional apartments to be located on the east side of the highway which runs through the property. It is planned to make it one of the most modern headquarters for tourists in this part of the state. —Lake County Examiner.

Rooms For Guests Needed—

Through a committee of women from the Woman's Library Club, with Mrs. H. W. Bathiany, presiding as chairman of the housing committee an appeal is being sent out to the members of the library club to attempt to care for the delegates arriving here the first of next week to attend the Oregon State Federated Clubs convention. Mrs. Bathiany is anxious that any of the members having a room which might be used by one of the delegates for the four days get in touch with her at phone 299-W.

Praised Crater Lake—

High in their praises of Crater Lake and the wonderful view obtained of the lake from the rim, Mrs. C. C. Preston and daughter Billy of Seattle, among the summer tourists will return to the northern city very much impressed with the southern Oregon country. While the road was not the best when Mrs. Preston and daughter made the trip to the lake, necessitating walking for a short distance as one nears the rim, they enjoyed the trip more than they had ever anticipated.

Mr. and Mrs. Brennan Returning

After an extended trip through California, Mr. and Mrs. James Brennan are expected to return to Klamath Falls within a short time to make their future home. Miss Eve Brennan, their daughter, who is employed in Los Angeles will return for a visit of several weeks in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Brennan are the parents of Ray Brennan of this city. Before leaving here they were engaged in the furniture business.

Spanish War Veterans Tonight—

Members of the Spanish War Veterans are asked to meet at the court house this evening at eight o'clock. A number of business matters of importance will be brought before the meeting. Election of delegates to the Department Encampment at McMinnville on July 12, 13 and 14 will be appointed tonight. The Klamath Falls encampment is entitled to five delegates.

Miss Veatch Sang at Kiwanis—

Miss Esther Veatch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Veatch of this city, one of the accomplished young musicians of southern Oregon, pleased members of the Kiwanis club today with two of her favorite vocal selections. Miss Lydia Von Berthelsdorf, another of southern Oregon's talented young musicians accompanied Miss Veatch at the piano.

Returned From Valley—

Following an enjoyable visit in Ashland with relatives and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Veryl Barnhouse and daughter, have returned home. They visited with Mr. Barnhouse's parents who reside on the Boulevard in Ashland.

Frank Lee Located in South—

Frank D. Lee, lumber broker, for a number of years in Klamath Falls, is now located in Dallas, Texas, where he is enjoying a splendid business, according to word received here by friends. Mr. Lee states the lumber market is most encouraging in the southern states.

Daughter Named "Esther Carol"—

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hartley of Bonanza, born on June 19 has been named "Esther Carol." Mother and baby daughter are both doing nicely.

Visiting at Sprague River Lodge

Mrs. F. P. Cronemiller and Mrs. Anna Nelson of Lakeview are visiting at Sprague River lodge for a few days with Mrs. E. J. Stone.

Enroute to Diamond Lake—

W. H. Dyer, superintendent of the Mutual Mill at Medford passed through the city enroute to Diamond Lake to enjoy an outing and few days of fishing.

Interesting Paper Received—

A. M. and J. V. Miller of this city are in receipt of the Old Home Week edition of the Courtland Standard, a daily newspaper established in Courtland, New York, as a weekly under the name of Momer Republican in the year 1816. The old Home Week edition is comprised of 36 pages of the accomplishments and local possibilities of the eastern city. Old Home Week is quite an event in the lives of the Courtland residents and is celebrated each year from June the 17th to 23rd. A. M. and J. V. Miller are former residents of Courtland, having resided there before coming to Ashland a number of years ago. —Ashland Tidings.

Mrs. Frankel in City—

Mrs. G. J. Frankel, state president of the Oregon Federated clubs passed through Klamath Falls on Wednesday evening enroute north to her home in Portland from San Antonio, Tex., where she has been attending the national convention. Mrs. Frankel visited briefly with Mrs. George R. Lindley, president of the woman's club of this city and talked over plans of the state convention here next week which she will attend. She was a guest at the Hotel Willard during her visit here.

The Weather—

The Cyclo-Stormograph at Underwood's Pharmacy shows a decided upward trend in barometric pressure today. While the reading is still rather low the higher pressure promises warmer weather. Forecast for next 24 hours: Fair weather with brisk winds followed by higher temperatures. The Tycoos recording thermometer registered maximum and minimum temperatures today as follows: High, 76; low, 41.

Mrs. Durkan Arrives Friday—

Mrs. K. S. Durkan, daughter of the late Harvey L. Swift, will arrive in Klamath Falls on Friday morning to attend the funeral of her father. Mrs. Durkan is a resident of San Francisco.

Olson to Chiloquin—

E. Olson of the Golden Rule store left for Chiloquin this morning on a hurried business trip.

Visiting From Corvallis—

Dean and Mrs. J. A. Bexell of Corvallis are visitors in Klamath Falls today visiting and expect to motor to Crater Lake tomorrow enroute home via Bend.

Mrs. Probst Ill—

Friends of Mrs. Iva Probst of the baby department at Moel's will be sorry to learn she is confined to her home with an attack of illness. Mrs. Warren Takes Lee Home— Mrs. Charles Warren, formerly of Klamath Falls, has arrived from southern California to spend the summer months and has leased the attractive home of Mrs. Jean Van Fleet Lee at 840 Pacific Terrace. Mrs. Warren will have her son, Scott Warren, with her for the summer months. Mrs. Canning Returned— Mrs. George Canning of the Main News company is home from an enjoyable visit in Portland with relatives and friends.

Watch--Wait For The Shower of Bargains IT'S KLAMATH'S GREATEST SALE You'll Profit -- You'll Save -- At This Marvelous Event. -- Don't Miss It. SEE FRIDAY'S HERALD

Due to the Increase Of Business— Dr. J. M. Ingalls Registered Chiropodist will be at the Buster Brown Shoe Store three days this month, June 21st, 22nd, 23rd. FREE EXAMINATIONS Treats all Foot Ailments.

A Real Snap Two Lots in Industrial District—50x140 Close to S. P. Round House Write Box 942, Herald

ABOVE THEM ALL Fly over here, where the quality is way up and the price is way down. We lead in VALUES, others follow. Our every day BARGAINS are better values than are offered to you in annual sales. Regardless of what others sell — WE ALWAYS UNDERSELL. Beat These Bargains if you can

MEN'S ATHLETIC CUT UNION SUITS Regular 75c Value 35c each, 3 for $1	MEN'S WORK SHOES to go at $1.95 pair
MEN'S KHAKI PANTS Some Buy only 89c pair	MEN'S WORK HATS only 69c each
TENNIS SHOES Some bargain, 59c only	BOY'S PANTS While they last, pair 49c	SUITCASE OR HANDBAG Take your choice, only 98c	MEN'S HAND-KERCHIEFS Six for 25c
WORK SOX 3 pair 25c	MEN'S WAIST OVERALLS Regular $1.25 95c	CANVAS GLOVES Pair Only 12c	MEN'S PANTS For Work or Dress All sizes, pair $1.95

A thousand other bargains too numerous to mention are now yours, be here to see these GENUINE BARGAINS and you will buy them. THE BARGAIN HOUSE Formerly O. M. Hector's The House of 1000 Bargains Klamath Falls 521 MAIN ST.