

Lumbermen in Lake District

LAKEVIEW, Ore., June 21.—Attracted here by the impending activity in the lumber industry that is expected to result from a reduction in lumber rates as recently announced by the N. C. O., a number of lumber wholesalers representing both Pacific coast and eastern firms have been in Lakeview during the past week.

This unusual activity indicates that a revival of the lumber industry is not far distant, according to local operators.

Among those who have been here are included W. R. Sayre of the Sayre Lumber company of San Francisco; E. A. Horry of the Chicago Lumber company of Chicago; Merrill Stoddard of the Stoddard Moulding company of Reno, and Frank Cole, well known Dallas, Texas, wholesale dealer.

ALTERATION OF COUNTY MARKET ROAD IS ASKED

J. Taylor and W. Moore, of Poe Valley, and A. M. Thomas of Klamath Falls were confering with County Judge F. R. Goddard and Commissioner Short yesterday concerning the routing of the Poe Valley-Malin market road.

It is the contention of the three men that the road can be routed in a more satisfactory manner than the present survey. The court has taken the matter under advisement, and will confer with other residents of the Poe Valley and Malin districts to see if the proposed alteration meets with the approval of the majority.

ASSASSIN GLAD HE KILLED TWO

The government is taking the utmost precautions to prevent outbreaks. It has forbidden more than three peasants to congregate in one place and has confiscated the "Retch," the organ of the radical peasants for vitriolic attacks.

The bodies of the dead deputies will be removed to Agram and buried there tomorrow. The government has offered pensions to the families of the victims but the peasant party has refused to accept them, saying that the bereaved families would be cared for by the peasants.

ZAGREB, Croatia, June 21. (A. P.)—Ten persons were injured, four seriously in a clash between police and demonstrators who had gathered in sympathy for the Raditch followers killed and wounded in yesterday's shooting in Belgrade.

Croatia, which is the home district of the Raditch group, is much excited over the shooting and indignation meetings are held everywhere.

Authorities have taken extraordinary precautions to prevent inflammatory public assemblies when the bodies of Paul Raditch, nephew of Stefan Raditch, Coast peasant leader, and Dr. Basaritchek arrive tonight.

The peasant party has issued a proclamation asking the populace to remain calm and refrain from violence.

At The Liberty

Little Buzz Barton, that 13-year-old bundle of riding nerve, will again demonstrate his ability at the Liberty theater, where his latest production "The Night in Redhead" opens today.

In this picture Buzz and his grizzled pal, Sidewinder Steve, foil the handiwork of Jim Dalton, save the honor of the young blacksmith, and foster the love affair between the sheriff's daughter and the blacksmith with a dash and nerve that hold the interest from the first reel to the last.

Heals Eczema In 7 Days or Less

Here is a surgeon's wonderful prescription now dispensed by pharmacists at trifling cost, that will do more towards helping you get rid of unsightly spots and skin diseases than anything you've ever used.

Not only does this great healing antiseptic oil promote rapid and healthy healing in open sores and wounds, but boils, abscesses and ulcers that are discharging are almost immediately relieved and cleanly healed.

In skin diseases its action is little less than magical. The itching of eczema is instantly stopped; the eruptions dry up and scale off in a very few days. The same is true of barber's itch, salt rheum and other irritating and unsightly skin troubles. You can obtain Moore's Eczema Oil in the original bottle at any modern drug store. It is safe to use, and failure in any of the ailments noted above is next to impossible. Star Drug Store can supply you at any time.

Union Oil Stations Issuing Pamphlets on Coast Highways

For variety of scenery, accessibility by good roads, perhaps no part of the United States offers as many allurements to the motorist as does the Pacific Coast.

In this land of the great outdoors which is within the compass of the average motorist's vacation period, the scenic wonders of the world are grouped into a vacation land supreme. Here is natural beauty and grandeur unsurpassed.

To motor in content over the 10,000 miles of paved boulevards which cover this vacation land is not only the equivalent of a trip abroad in your own great homeland, but is to know the romance of your own Pacific Coast.

To pick out the most entrancing scenery encountered would be as difficult as for the camel to pass through the eye of the proverbial needle for who can say the mountain, with its noble trees that clothe its sides, is more wonderful than the ocean; the mystic appeal of the desert more charming than the orange grove, or that the mountain lake has greater charm than the rushing river. Each has its own individual appeal.

If the urge calls you to the seashore, you may park your car at any one of a thousand beaches and bathe in the balmy waters of the Pacific. If the desire is for the desert, you may walk over a miniature Sahara with its soft carpets of swaying, brilliantly colored flowers. If you hanker after the majestic grandeur of the mountains and the vivid colorings of the mountain lakes, these are within easy reach.

Within the confines of the Pacific Coast vacation land are 12 national parks, regions of plant mountains, dense forests, rushing rivers and lakes. There is the Grand Canyon, Yosemite; General Grant; Tahoe, Mt. Lassen; Crater Lake, Mt. Rainier and the Canadian Rockies and national parks.

Much of the pleasure of a vacation tour by motor depends upon its careful preparation. Motorists want to know the condition of the roads, the interesting spots that may be seen along the way, and distances between points so that convenient stopping-over points may be decided upon. For the convenience of motorists, the Union Oil company has issued a new 12-page map folder of convenient pocket size, which contains a complete list of auto camps along the main traveled routes and listing of points of interest. In addition to providing the motorist with the most up-to-date information on highways and trails in Arizona, California, Nevada, Oregon, Washington and British Columbia, it
