It might be of interest to a number of the older residents of this section to learn that Leslie Harvey, formerly of Medford, has become one of the leading motion picture organists of San Francisco. He recently went to Sidney, Australia, where he has been playing in the Prince Edward theater. With his mother he is now spending his vacation at Auckland, New Zealand. He is still playing however, during the absence of the regular organist, and writes that he lives in an apartment at the foot of an extinct volcano, that Auckland is a wonderful city of 200,000 and one of the cleanest in the world. Miss Porter is a teacher in the public schools of the eastern city and is enjoying her first visit west to Oregon. She is a cousin of Lloyd Porter of the First National bank.
