

NEWS IN BRIEF

Mrs. Neese Left—

Mrs. W. A. Neese of Hollywood, California, who has been visiting at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Langworthy, for a fortnight has left for Portland where she will visit with her mother for several weeks. In the early fall Mrs. Neese will journey on to Nebraska, her former home. While here Mrs. Neese enjoyed a number of enjoyable trips to resorts about the city and is very much in love with the Klamath country.

Returned From Canada—

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hamilton, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hamilton and daughter, Betty, have returned from a motor trip to Vancouver, B. C. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hamilton and daughter have been visiting in Klamath Falls with relatives for some time from their home at Sacramento. They plan to return south within a few days.

Sacramento Guests—

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Moore and daughter of Sacramento are enjoying a brief visit in Klamath Falls.

Rattlesnake On Display—

A rattlesnake measuring 7½ feet long from tip to tip, killed by J. V. Houston, well known resident of this city while he was spending the past winter in Florida is on display in the window of the Klamath Clothing Company. The rattler was 10 years old at the time Mr. Houston killed it. Skins of the snakes are being used for making men's belts, ladies' purses and shoes.

Mrs. Loreman Visiting Here—

Mrs. J. E. Loreman, formerly of Klamath Falls and now a resident of Eugene, arrived in the city last evening from the north to spend a fortnight here with friends. Mrs. Loreman for the present is a guest at the Hotel Biabee.

Miss McClelland to Malin—

Miss Hazel McClelland of the Klamath county health unit left this forenoon for Malin to spend the afternoon with members of the Helping Hand Society, completing plans for the infant and pre-school age clinic to be held in August.

Home From Vacation—

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hill and children have returned from an enjoyable vacation of a fortnight at Forest, Oregon. They were the guests of Mrs. Wattenburg, the mother of Mrs. Hill and Mr. Wattenburg.

Schall Shows Improvement—

Friends of Charles Schall of Connolly Brothers will be glad to learn his condition shows improvement. Mr. Schall was stricken with an attack of appendicitis on Monday and is confined to his home.

Mrs. Kakarikos Returned—

Mrs. Nick Kakarikos and daughter, Irene, returned to Sacramento this morning after a two week's visit here with relatives and friends. Mrs. Kakarikos was Miss Blanas before her marriage.

Mrs. Barnes Returning—

Mrs. W. B. Barnes is expected home tomorrow from Salem, where she has been visiting with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cook, formerly of this city.

Mrs. Cain Returned North—

Mrs. A. L. Cain of Portland has returned north after a fortnight's visit at the home of her son, R. R. Cain and family, on North Ninth street.

Dr. J. M. Ingalls
Registered Chiropodist
will be at the
Buster Brown Shoe Store
three days this month, July 26th, 27th and 28th
FREE EXAMINATIONS
Treats all Foot Ailments.

PROOF RESTS WITH PATIENTS
Letters and names of hundreds of grateful patients contained in our FREE BOOK on Rectal and Colon ailments; also details of Dr. C. J. Dean's non-surgical method of treatment, which we use exclusively. Send for it today and learn of our WRITTEN ASSURANCE TO ELIMINATE PILES OR REFUND.

DEAN RECTAL & COLON CLINIC
SEATTLE, SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES
SERVING THIS DISTRICT SINCE 1912

Returned From Medford—

J. W. Krug of the Southern Pacific transportation department returned this afternoon from Medford where he has been on official business. Mr. Krug makes his headquarters in Salem and will be here for at least a week completing plans for the motor transportation line between this city and Medford which becomes effective on Thursday. A. S. Rosenbaum, official of the local Southern Pacific offices accompanied Mr. Krug to the valley city.

Mr. Kaylor Visiting Here—

William Kaylor, resident of Saffery, Kansas, father of Mrs. Frank Lucas of this city, is here for a visit of several months. On several occasions Mr. Kaylor has visited here and always enjoys his trip to southern Oregon. He is also a brother-in-law of Mrs. Elizabeth Evans.

Shelton Left—

Ray Shelton, sales manager of the Locke Motor company, has left for Albuquerque, N. M., to bring back a Chevrolet car which was stolen last spring in this city.

Home From Portland—

After spending the past fortnight in Portland, Miss Vera Moore has returned home. She was the house guest of Miss Dorothy Raymond while north.

At Lake o' The Woods—

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Whitlock and son are spending a few days at Lake o' The Woods on an outing with relatives from California.

Here From Burns—

John O. Shive, registered at the hotel Arcade on Tuesday from the thriving little town of Burns, Oregon. Mr. Shive is here on business.

Left For Portland—

George West, W. L. Shields and E. E. Hevenson left this morning for Portland after transacting business here.

Salem Visitor—

V. G. Holt of Salem is among the northern business visitors here today.

Shopping From Bonanza—

Dorris Tuttle of Bonanza is spending the day here shopping and visiting with friends.

Elliott North on Business—

E. L. Elliott, attorney, has left for Seattle on a brief legal trip.

Gordon at the Congress—

R. E. Gordon is at the Congress from Port Klamath, which is the military post on the Klamath reservation. Situated on Wood river, it is a paradise for stockmen. The grass is head and shoulders above the rest of the valley and thousands of head of beef are sent there to be fattened before they are shipped into California. There is probably no better place, the year around, for feeding cattle than in the Wood River valley.—The Morning Oregonian.

Newly Weds Honored—

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Graham nee Freda Dietz of Squaw Creek, Washington, were honored at a dinner party on Sunday at the Puckett Mill in Bear Valley when Mrs. Anna Heublein of the Polly Shoppe presided as hostess. Covers were laid for 26. Mr. Graham is employed with the Ewanna mill. Mr. and Mrs. Graham will make their home in Klamath Falls.

Frentzel From Valley—

Tony Frentzel, representative of the Mack Trucks is in the city on business today from his headquarters in Medford. Mr. Frentzel spends a considerable part of his time here and makes his headquarters at the hotel Willard.

Mrs. Norris Returned—

Mrs. Dorcia Norris has resumed her position at the Pife-Amie store after a two week's vacation spent at various points in California with friends.

Meeting Called for Friday—

There will be a meeting of the Klamath County Library Board on Friday, July 27, at one o'clock, according to announcement made today.

Left For Crater Lake—

William T. Donelson of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, left this morning for Crater Lake. Mr. Donelson is enjoying a tour of the west.

Miller at Chiloquin—

J. J. Miller, district freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific is spending the day in Chiloquin on official business.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Visiting—

Mr. and Mrs. T. Harris and L. Harris, all of Medford are in the city today. The valley visitors are at the hotel Hall.

Dr. Burkland Here—

Dr. A. Burkland of Susanville, California, is a guest at the hotel Hall while here on a short visit.

Visited Enroute Home—

Enroute to their home in Portland from Klamath Falls, where they attended the state convention of Veterans of Foreign Wars, hold last week in that city, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Wood stopped in Ashland to visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wallis, Mountain avenue. Mr. Wood is commander of the Portland unit of Veterans of Foreign Wars, and his post was awarded the state cup for membership and general efficiency at the state convention. Mr. Wood is connected with the Veterans' Bureau work in Portland.—Ashland Tidings.

Hovey Arrived From South—

C. L. Hovey, one of the coast's leading lumbermen, is in Klamath Falls for a vacation with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hovey of the hotel Willard. Mr. Hovey arrived this morning from his home in San Francisco and left today for Lake o' The Woods where he will enjoy several days at the Hovey summer cottage.

Here From Medford—

J. J. Buchter of the California Oregon Power company with headquarters in Medford is in the city on a business trip today. Mr. Buchter is at the hotel Willard.

From Fort Klamath—

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nichols of Fort Klamath are transacting business in the city today.

Enroute to Montana—

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Reynolds passed through Klamath Falls enroute home to Missoula, Montana, from an extended motor trip. In Ashland they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Smith. They have been visiting in Wyoming, Utah, Nevada and California.

Visited at Loosley Ranch—

Mr. and Mrs. Nate G. Bates, Fred Neil and Mrs. Elsie Churchman, all of this city were visitors at the Loosley ranch near Fort Klamath over the week-end. They enjoyed a motor trip to Crater Lake.

Many Tourists Called—

At the information booth of the chamber of commerce on Tuesday, 75 motorists from various points throughout the country registered. At noon today, despite the hot weather 40 tourists had called.

Lumbermen Here—

Robert C. Shaw and R. S. Shaw of Portland, well known lumbermen are in the city today. They are guests at the hotel Willard.

Dillon in Roseburg—

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dillon of the hotel Willard are spending a few days in Roseburg and other valley cities. They made the trip by motor and are expected home tonight.

Here From San Mateo—

Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Hunt of San Mateo, California, are enjoying a visit in Klamath Falls. Dr. and Mrs. Hunt visited Crater lake while in southern Oregon. They are at the Hotel Willard while here.

Visiting From Portland—

A combined business and pleasure trip has brought L. C. Lewis and son of Portland to Klamath Falls for a few days. They are hotel arrivals at the Willard.

Here From Seattle—

James T. Mitchell of Seattle is a business visitor here today. Mr. Mitchell is at the hotel Willard.

Terry Talent Has Blood Poison—

Federal Officer Terry Talent yesterday enjoyed his first day out, after having been confined to his home in Ashland for 15 days past as the result of blood poisoning which attacked the right hand. The blood poisoning resulted from a block struck when the latter resisted arrest in Ashland. Although the wound, caused by the officer's knuckle coming in contact with one of Howe's teeth, was dressed immediately, infection was discovered the next day.—Medford Tribune.

From Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Bagley of Portland are guests at the hotel Willard today.

A clean car a car you're proud to drive

Keep a can in your car always

Oronite
CLEANING FLUID
NON-EXPLOSIVE

A STANDARD OIL PRODUCT

NO UNPLEASANT ODOR

Oronite Cleaning Fluid cleans the cushions and rugs—and grease spots from the polished surfaces.

In ½ pints, pints and 1 gallon cans at drug stores, hardware, department stores, some grocers or any Standard Oil Service Station. Also in barrels, ½ barrels and 5-gallon cans.

Oronite

CLEANING FLUID

Cleans—clean as new

An achievement of the Research Laboratories of STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA
Makers of Oronite Household Products
ORONITE CLEANING FLUID—FLY SPRAY
FURNITURE POLISH
AUTO POLISH and HANDY OIL

At The LIBERTY THEATRE

"The Princess from Hoboken"

One of the greatest laugh pictures of the year!

Coming Thursday and Friday

Wallace Beery Raymond Hatton

"We're in the Navy Now"

Don't Miss This LAUGH SPECIAL!

At The LIBERTY THEATRE

"The Princess from Hoboken"

One of the greatest laugh pictures of the year!

Coming Thursday and Friday

Wallace Beery Raymond Hatton

"We're in the Navy Now"

Don't Miss This LAUGH SPECIAL!

Due to the Increase Of Business—

Dr. J. M. Ingalls
Registered Chiropodist
will be at the
Buster Brown Shoe Store
three days this month, July 26th, 27th and 28th
FREE EXAMINATIONS
Treats all Foot Ailments.

Come to—

Moe's
THE WOMAN'S STORE

DOLLAR DAY
Saturday, July 28th

EXTRAORDINARY
EXTRA SALESPERSONS
TO WAIT ON YOU

Oronite Cleaning Fluid cleans the cushions and rugs—and grease spots from the polished surfaces.

In ½ pints, pints and 1 gallon cans at drug stores, hardware, department stores, some grocers or any Standard Oil Service Station. Also in barrels, ½ barrels and 5-gallon cans.

SIDE GLANCES By George Clark

"Well, I'll plan the vacation next year and the proper dress for dinner will be bathing suits."

Mom'n Pop

WHEN POP SLAMMED THE DOOR IN BRUCE DANGERFIELD'S FACE HE MADE AN ENEMY WHO IS OUT TO GET REVENGE BY HOOK OR CROOK

—THERE'S NO ONE FOLLOWING YOU— WHY?

I WANTED TO BE SURE— YOU SEE— WELL, THIS GRID, I'LL HAVE TO PARK IT HERE UNTIL TOMORROW. I'LL HIDE IT, AND BE SURE TO LOCK THE PLACE IF YOU LEAVE THE HOUSE AND DON'T MENTION IT TO A SOUL!

—COUSIN BRUCE ACTED MIGHTY QUEER ABOUT THAT GRID STRANGE, HIS WONDERING IF ANYONE WAS DOGGING HIS HEELS—AND HIDING IT IN THE FLOOR BIN— STILL IT'S NONE OF MY—

A Bag of Tricks

—AND I DON'T INTEND TO DRY INTO ANYONE'S AFFAIRS, BUT THIS IS MY HOUSE AND I HAVE A RIGHT TO KNOW—

By Cowan

MONEY! NO, STOCKS— WHY, THERE MUST BE A MILLION DOLLARS WORTH—

WANT'S BRUCE DANGERFIELD'S GAME ON POP'S WATCH TOMORROW?

Freckles and His Friends

I'M THINKIN' WE OUGHT TO BE STARTING FOR HOME WHILE EVERYTHING IS RUNNING SMOOTH— WON WOULD YOU LIKE TO COME HOME WITH ME AND SEE ALL OF MY FRIENDS?

Whew!!

YOU'D GET A NICE BOAT RIDE AND HAVE GOOD STUFF TO EAT— OF COURSE, I DON'T MEAN THIS ISN'T A NICE PLACE HERE BUT—

By Blosser

BANG

OH, I'M SHOT! I'M SHOT!