MAYOR WALKER Favors Wines

VICTORIA, B. C., July 26. (AP)—Light wines and beer may be legal in the U. S. if the Democratic party wins the coming election, Mayor James J. Walker of New York City predicted here today.

Prohibition is the most prominent issue in the U. S. presidential campaign, Walker said, expressing the opinion that neither national political party is "dry." The Republicans, he asserted, are prohibitionists by policy rather than by proclivity. A large majority of the Americans want the changed in regard to liquor, he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goeller and children left today for an outing to Lake O' The Woods.

LADIES ATTEND FIGHT TONIGHT

Chicago; Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Mrs. Kermit Roosevelt, Mrs. Arch E. Roosevelt, Miss Neyso McMein (the artist), Mrs. Vincent Astor, Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney, Mrs. Louis G. Kaufmann, Mrs. H. E. Talbot, Mrs. Raymond Baker, Mrs. Charles H. Marshall, Miss Ina Claire and Mrs. Elmer Schlesinger.

At the Yankee Stadium, scene of the fight, a score of ticket sellers yawned in their booths while three times that many patrolmen loitered about with nothing to do.

In contrast to the last big heavyweight fight held at the American League ball park—that between Jack Dempsey and Jack Sharkey last summer—there were no squads of determined customers bent on getting seats if it meant waiting all day.

In fact there were no ticket seekers at all in sight and no fans, the news apparently having not yet become general that the weigh-in at 2 o'clock was to be held at the stadium instead of Madison Square Garden.

The only adult crowd in the neighborhood surrounded an excavation some distance away where the curious watched laborers at work. Even the usual delegation of young boys was absent, the juvenile element appearing to find its chief interest in a wild west show nearby.

There were about 200 men in front of the stadium but they were after jobs as ushers, refreshment salesmen or program vendors, not seats.

The first ticket purchasers who did appear were women—Mrs. Estella Mitchell and Mrs. Jenny Warshawer, both residents of the neighborhood.

Asked who she thought would win the fight, Mrs. Mitchell replied "I think Tunney is beautiful."

STOOL PIGEON NOT PARDONED

have been persistent reports emanating from Klamath Falls to the effect that Shirley was going to get Brad out of the Lake county jail, where he is now serving a sentence on conviction of impersonating an officer.

It was to prevent any such miscarriage of justice that District Attorney Combs and Sheriff Friday appealed to Governor Patterson and urged that no such consideration be shown the stool pigeon.

Strange Friendship.

For some reason which local county officials are unable to comprehend, there seems to be a warm bond of friendship between Shirley, the federal agent, and Brad, the stool pigeon. It was Shirley who produced the bail bond for Brad before his conviction by a jury here two months ago. It was Shirley who headed a group of prohibitionists who came here and testified for Brad in an effort to beat the local case.

But it appears that Shirley has attempted to cover too much territory if he has mapped out any plans to get Governor Patterson to pardon Brad.

TOM'S PARENTS WILL LISTEN IN

AUCKLAND, N. Z., July 26. (AP)—Two persons who are going to listen in on the radio accounts of the Tunney-Heeney world's heavyweight championship fight tonight are the parents of Tom Heeney.

The Heeneys have been so besieged with callers since their son sprang into flistic prominence that they are protesting that they would rather be left alone as they "are not used to it all."

They are planning to listen in on the fight broadcast just "in case Tom speaks." They are sure their blacksmith boy will do his best as far as the fighting goes.

PIRATE FIELDER SERIOUSLY HURT

NEW YORK, July 26. (AP)—Floyd "Pete" Scott, Pirate outfielder, who crashed into the concrete wall at the Polo Grounds today in an effort to catch a home run drive by Travis Jackson, was rushed to a hospital and after examination revealed serious injury had been suffered. An x-ray showed Scott's neck was broken but that the break was not a severe one, although serious.
